ROY KELLY GETS JAIL SENTENCE

Youth Who Told What He Knew of Disgraceful Police Raid Arrested On Eberstein's Orders.

Roy Kelly, the 18-year-old youth, who told what he knew concerning the disgraceful and unlawful raid sentenced yesterday morning in Central police court to 60 days in the county jail on a charge of vag-

The young men were arrested on orders of Police Eberstein "to bring in that crowd from the Edwards" by Detectives Danbaum and Graham. We just brought them in because they are a no-good bunch of vags," declared the arresting officers. Kelly, who says he is working for William Sulley, 2118 Capitol avenue, was fined $50 last week by judge Foster for vagrancy. Hats last summer when Detectives Herdzina and Armstrong were rebuked severely by Municipal Judge George Holmes for their illegal and disgraceful conduct, Kelly was sought for months by the entire police department. He walked the the streets at his own free will and laughed at the detectives who were

Grow So Bold They Don't Wait for Darkness to Fall-Detectives Arrest

Burglars have extended their operations to daylight activities, according to police report. With the early closing time of retail stores due to the recent ruling of the local fuel administrator, thieves have begun their rampages before dark.
Shortly after T. H. Bantin, 2308
North Twenty-fourth street had closed his bakery Thursday afternoon, burglars broke into the place through a rear window and feasted up on pies and cakes. Tobacco and candy were also taken.

During the absence of the family of Al Wheeler, 4244 Maple street, Thursday afternoon, thieves ran-sacked the place. The thieves entered the house through a rear window after smashing the glass.

A pass key was used by burglars
