Hens Showed Steady Egg Gain Mrs. Pierce in Whter Weather.

"The week before we tried Don Sung, we got 5 eggs from 50 hens. The next week, from a 50-cent package of Don Sung, we got 72 eggs, and the next week 104. Some of our hens are mere pullets and Don Sung has started them laying."

and Don Sung has started them laying.

—Mrs. B. F. Pierce, R. F. D. 1, Butler,

Tenn.

Mrs. Pierce selected a severe time for her test—the middle of January. Yet she started getting the eggs promptly. Your hens can lay well, in cold weather, and we'll prove it. Here's our offer:

Give your hens Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that it pays for itself and pays you a good profit besides, simply tell us and your money will be promptly refunded.

Don Sung (Chinene for egg-laying)
works directly on the egg-laying organs, and is also a splendid tonic. It is easily given in the feed, improves the hen's health, makes her stronger and more active in any weather, and starts her laying.

Try Don Sung for 30 days and if it doesn't get you the eggs, no matter how cold or wet the weather, your money will be refunded by return mail. Get Don Sung from your druggist or poultry remedy dealer or send 50 cents for a package by mail prepaid. Burrell-Dugger Co., 373 Columbia Bidg., Indianapolis, Ind.

Lovelorn BY BEATRICE FAIRFAX

The Boy Question.

Dear Miss Fairfax: I am a girl of 14 and am pretty good sized for my age. I am not such a terrible looker either. I wear my hair over my ears and when I wear it down my back in a curl it is only about eight or 10 inches long, would vou wear it down your back if you were in my place or can you tell me something to use on it to make it grow? Should I or any girl my age, stop and talk to a boy on the street or should he walk down to the corner and stop there? Should I attend er and stop there? Should I attend the show with boys? Do you think it proper? Should I and other girls of my age let boys walk home with us when we go to the show, as we girls have done before. Please tell me the best way to turn down a boy when you don't want them to take you home? That is when you don't care for them, but want to keep their friendship on account of other girls. I have not gone with boys long and my brother, who has just come home from war, does not like it at all, and says he will "tin can" the first boy I go with if he sees us. Should I let them (the boys) walk home with me, to show him that I am not afraid of him? Because I don't believe he really would. I would like to see this in print this week. Thanking you kindly for your advice.

You are too young to become deeply involved in the "boy" ques-Be friendly with your boy acquaintances. Wear your hair down your back and be a girl while you are young. You have all your life ahead to worry about men, so don't start in until you have to. If a boy is walking your way, walk along together, but do it in a natural, unaffected way. But this doesn't mean that either you or the boy should "hang around" for the purpose of walking a few blocks together. Don't do anything to show your brother you aren't afraid of him. Behave yourself for your own sake, and brother will be your best friend.

Boxing Match a Draw.
Dear Miss Fairfax: I have read your advice and enjoy it very much. I want to ask you a question, not about love, but just a small one. Some time ago two boys were going to have a wrestling match in Fort Omaha, one was fighting for the hand of a girl, the other one just for the fun of it, I guess. I watched the paper to find out which one won. I must have missed it in some way, as I never found out. Would you please tell me which one won and did the fellow win the hand of the girl, if he won or not, and also what do you thing of my handwriting. Thanking you in advance.

GREEN EYES. The boxing match was a draw, but since the man fighting for the hand of the girl was not beaten. I suppose he has the girl.

Bobby: Not only are you too young to work in a store, but if the laws of our state are enforced you would not be permitted to engage in such an occupation at the age of 13. The thing for you to do is to remain in school, forget about your height and weight and devot yourself to your lessons.

Famous Women

Anne Hathaway. Is there a question on God's round earth more interesting than the following: "What attracted William Shakespeare to Anne Hathaway? She was a woman 10 years his senior. He married her when he was 18. She lived in a thatched cottage in the hamlet of Shottery (you may see that cottage today).

While his imagination was away among kings and queens and women of rare blossoming, whose bewitch-ment stilled conscience, whose beauty ruled cautious men, whose nimble wit overthrew the Shylocks of the middle ages, Shakespeare chose Anne Hathaway. She bore him two sons and a daughter, and in his will will he left her his best bed.

High School Dance. The annual Central High school subscription dance given by the seniors will take pace Monday evening, December 22, at the Ben Hur hall, Twenty-eighth and Farnam Robert Downs and James Holm-quist will be in charge.

Music An Open Sesame.

Music as the greatest aid in reach ng the foreign-born is to be one o the attractive agencies in the Americanization program of the General Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs William D. Steele, Sedalia, Mo., director of its music department, be lieves that never in the history of the world has the power of music been more generally recognized than at present and is urging club women everywhere to put more music into their club work. Community singing in which arias from the famous operas of Europe are sung prove an open sesame to the men and women from other lands who have come to make their home among us. Mrs. Steele has been visiting many of the states, spreading her gospel of good music, in an effort to awaken the American people to its importance. Through her efforts women's clubs everywhere are planning house-tohouse Christmas carolling in foreign districts, asking the singers of the neighborhood to join with them in singing the songs of the fatherland, intermingled with our own patriotic airs, and Christmas songs. Groups to visit psychopathic wards in city hospitals have also begun to make ready musical programs for Christmas day and so awaken memories that will set the afflicted on their way back to health through the Spirit of melody.

Women's clubs are working in conjunction with settlement houses, children's homes and institutions for the aged in reaching those who need the healing power of music to bring light and sunshine into their lives. The organization of orchestras and choral societies is strongly urged by Mrs. Steele in bringing about a better un-derstanding between the foreign born and their neighbors. To further this plan, she also urges the establishment of municipal or-chestras in which all foreign-born music lovers of talent shall be given prominence and helped to perfect themselves in this great means of
