

SURVEY SHOWS MANY FAMILIES NEEDY IN OMAHA

Promises of Aid for Christmas Gratefully Received in Packing House Section.

Adjutant H. B. Northrup of the Salvation Army, who has just completed a preliminary survey of conditions in Omaha preparatory to arranging a list of needy families who will receive Christmas baskets, reports that he found many in need of assistance. Families of foreign descent were found in the poorest circumstances.

He reports conditions on the South Side especially deserving and told of families crowded into little houses one behind another. Promises of aid were gratefully received by the poor living in the packing house section.

A number of families were found in Omaha living in alleys, dugouts and other undesirable conditions. Many of these people have large families of children. On Ohio street a family of 10 could see no prospect for a Christmas dinner until the Salvation Army worker called and Parker and South Twenty-eighth streets have two families of nine who are practically penniless.

Five children living on South Eleventh street were despondent and aiding in the support of the family during the illness of their father. A family living in a dugout on Ohio street will be given assistance, as will several couples 80 and 90 years old.

Living in an alley near Twenty-first street, a family was found in need of immediate assistance, as were two old people living on Hickory street. A widow and six children living in a basement on North Twentieth street were found in need of a basket of good cheer.

Snow Promised Christmas Eve by Weather Bureau

Washington, Dec. 20.—Weather predictions beginning with the week Monday, issued by the weather department, are: Upper Mississippi and Lower Missouri valleys—Generally fair, except for snows about Wednesday; normal temperature until latter part of week, when weather will become considerably colder.

The Bee's Free Shoe Fund

Now here's Dan Butler, our jovial city commissioner, who had a magnificent idea. Instead of presenting members of his department with silver wait-a-whiles and other useless thingumajigs for Christmas, Dan just suggested that they all put in the money they had intended to use to buy each other presents and give the whole amount to charity.

The Bee's Shoe Fund received $35 as its share. We never heard of a finer idea. Great!

Why not try it yourself? Scores of poor kiddies are living in wretched homes of poverty in Omaha, where poor widows struggle daily to keep the wolf from the door.

You don't have to think long "what to give" in these cases. They need so much. And shoes are especially needed.

Our old friend "Three-in-One" brought in another $15 contribution, too. And the individuals with other sums from $1 up have been faithful in the work.

Have you a Christmas remembrance for these little waifs who are waiting their turn for shoes? Send or bring it to The Free Shoe Fund, care of The Bee.

Woman Refuses to Let Four "Officers" Search Home at 1 A. M.

Four men, representing themselves to be officers of the law, summoned Mrs. Kate Huston, 828 South Twenty-fourth street, to the front door of her home at 1 a. m. yesterday, read her what she believed to be a false search warrant and demanded admission to the house to make an "official" search, according to a police report. The woman refused to admit them, she told police, and they went away.

Iowan, Jilted by Sweetheart, Attempts to Take Own Life

Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 20.—(Special Telegram) Roy M. Schooley, 24 years old, of Emmetsburg, Ia., attempted suicide here last night by shooting himself in the left side. He was taken to a local hospital, where he lies in a critical condition. He told police officers he shot himself because his fiancée had jilted him.
