The self-upgrading is a sure, though meekness it appears; more humbling is it far for those to face the eternal years.

So trusting him whose love he knows, Singing along the road he goes, And nightly of his burden makes A pillow, till the morning breaks.

The Cudahy-Carry Wedding Takes Place 27th

New Information Bureau.
A community service information bureau will open next Monday in the hut on the north side of the court house.

The purpose of the bureau is not only to supply strangers coming to Omaha with needed information, but to inform community members themselves of local activities and facilities.

The information bureau is the one agency which touches all other agencies and becomes tributary to their success. If its work is properly performed it creates a bond between an organization and the individual to whom service has been rendered that cannot easily be broken.

Many of the large cities already have such bureaus working in an efficient manner. It advertises to strangers the best features of the city and the business, recreational, religious and educational opportunities it offers. It educates the residents of a city as to the city's resources, advocates movements or institutions which are assets to the community and it serves as a clearing house which is in intimate touch with every club, agency and institution that makes for community life and progress.

Christmas tree, vaudeville and film party to be given on the 29th of this month at Wardman Park Inn for the benefit of the fund for the wives and children of the metropolitan police. The ball is being arranged by a committee of society women and Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh asked to be allowed to assume the expenses of the affair so that all the profits might go to the fund. A Christmas tree as big as a big room will be laden with gifts for between 600 and 700 children, of the men of the force, and it is understood that Mrs. Walsh is the Santa Claus who is donating these gifts. The tree will be lighted for the children in the afternoon, and the film party and vaudeville will precede it. The ball will follow at night.
