Mrs. Cowles will arrive in Omaha January 5 to attend and preside at the general federation board meeting which will be held here during he early part of that week. Omaha s glad to have been chosen as the hostess city for this gathering which will bring women from every state in the union. It will be distinctly a working session, but the federated clubs of Omaha and the Nebraska state board may have a social opportunity for meeting the national workers. Mrs. M. D. Cameron of Omaha gave the invitation which brings the board meeting to this city. Mrs. Thomas G. The RICH-people who can afford to pay any price ALWAYS DEMAND THEIR MONEY'S WORTH. They look for VALUE and get it.

There's a lesson which, if learned and profited by, will do much to bring down prices in all lines. It's the clerk, who wears silk shirts and $20 hats, and
