

When Judge Redick had the 12 men brought in to the court room second trial on December 29.

He was identified with the greatest certainty by Mayor Smith, who, however, made his first identification from an old photograph of Davis which bears little resemblance saw Davis strike the mayor. Over-bay had known Davis before the night of the riot. Russell Norgard testified that he saw Davis in the mob just before the attack on the mayor.

persons testified that he was at his home from 8:15 in the evening of Sunday, September 28, the night of the riot, until he left for work the Davis himself admitted he was at the court house about 3 o'clock that Sunday afternoon. He said he went from there to a near-beer saloon at Sixteenth and Davenport, where he played cards and drank whisky un-til about 7:30 that evening and then shortly after that time he went home in a taxicab.

Thursday noon. That afternoon was consumed in argument and the jury took the case at 6 o'clock Thursday. Davis is out of jail under $14,000 bond.

"Jay Walking" Must Stop

Boston, Dec. 20.—"Jay-walking must stop," says Col. John W. De-crow, commanding the First Motor corps traffic squad, who is directing another move to protect the lives of Poston citizens by keeping them on the crosswalks and not allowing them to cross the street at any other place.

In two hours one of Colonel Decrow's men on duty at the corner of State and Congress streets, stopped 155 pedestrians who were not using the street crossing. The guard said that most of them apologized declared they did not realize and declared they did not realize the danger. "We have 85 posts," said Col-onel Decrow. "If 155 persons were stopped by each guard every two hours the result would be that 13,-175 persons put themselves into un-necessary danger every two hours of the day. If we stop the 'jay-walking' the number of accidents will decrease will decrease besides a large stock of Fresh Cut

Flowers and Plants.

the makers of the best in gloves! Brandeis Stores-Main Floor Women's Gloves in real Grenoble kid in overseam, attractively embroidered, in white and black and shades of brown, battle and tan; FLOWERS Genuine Roller two-clasp styles; per pair, CANARIES Wamen's Gloves of extra quality kid, with P. For Christmas K. seams, self or two-toned embroidered backs, two-clasp effects, in white, black and shades of African, navy and tan; per These are the genuine "Roller Ca-Visit our Flower Section on the Main Floor, where we have the largnary," with the genuine "Roll Song." pair. est line of Christmas Flowers and Fur Gloves of genuine Muskrat; large, com-fortable cuffs and splendidly lined. Just the glove for the out-of-doors woman. Per Novelties that we have had for many No harsh, choppy or screeching notes, years. There are Magnolia, Boxbut trills and thrills of real music. wood, Ruscus and Holly Wreathes and Table Novelties in various styles,

10.50

Perrin's Glove Bonds make useful and satisfactory gifts. Brandeis Stores-Main Floor-North

If not sold within three hours, they will continue on sale throughout the day at the same price-but inasmuch as there are only 79 bags in the lot, we advise early attendance.

These imported bags-well worth $40.00-have just been received direct from France. French bead-workers create the most artistic designs and the most substantial bags on the market-and this is the handsomest and best lot we have received.

The fate of a frock is often decided by the bag one carries with it! Rest assured that you can't go wrong on any bag in this assortment-and they certainly are

A Bargain at Twenty-Five Dollars Each! Brandeis Stores-Main Floor-East

Take one of these little musicans with you to make the home bright and cheery.

Brandeis Stores-Main Floor-West