Nation-Wide Project Will Be Sponsored Here by the Nebraska Bankers' Association.

National Thrift week will be ob served in Omaha, January 17 to 24, the first date being the birthday anniversary of Benjamin Franklin, who was a notable apostle of thrift.

This is a nation-wide project promoted by the Young Men's Christian association and in this state it will be sponsored by the Nebraska Bankers' association.

Dexter C. Buell has charge of the Omaha observance, his appointment having been made by W. W. Head, chairman of the state thrift league. Mr. Buell met the following committee yesterday noon at the University club and discussed plans for thrift

Boucher and C. A. Goss, Omaha Bar association; A. B. Dunbar, insurance; Rev. E. F. Ellis, that the British secretary for Ire-Ministerial union; C. B. Brown, re-land, Ian McPherson, had narrowly tailers; W. D. Clark, bankers; J. J. McMahon, insurance; C. E. Corey, through the window of the secre-Concord club; W. B. Hughes, Ne-tary's automobile. According to re-Bankers' association; Byron R. Hastings, Omaha Real Estate board; E. J. Phelps, insurance; Mrs. M. D. Cameron and Mrs. C. L. Hempel, Omaha Woman's club; C. J. Shaw, Young Men's Christian association; Paul W. Kuhns, Chamber

During thrift week the following will be emphasized: The service a bank renders to a community; the relation of money to character; the value of protecting loved ones with life insurance; the desirability of owning a home; importance of making a will; the identical interests of employer and employe; the budget plan of finances and the moral obligation of paying bills promptly.
