COUNCIL FACES BIG PROBLEM IN YEARLY BUDGET

Tentative Allowances Yield Total of $200,000 More Than Available—Big Deduction at Start.

The city council yesterday began the annual task of endeavoring to make the total budget allowance spread out to meet the total of the various department estimates for

In this instance the commissioners have a general fund of $2,173,256, with a necessary deduction to start with of $150,000 account overlap in fire and police funds for 1919, leaving a net total of $2,023,256 for distribution.

To Make Further Cuts.

Tentative allowances made yes terday yielded a total of $200,000 more than is available. The council will meet again this morning to make further cuts in the esti-

Must Allow Increases. The police department fund is subject to a further increase during 1920, on account of additional expense incurred since the court house riot. This increase for 1920 may be charged to the 1921 fund, according to an enactment of the recent special legislature.

Commissioner Zimman explained that the fire department will require $589,673 this year for payroll and $40,000 for miscellaneous Salaries were raised in the fire and police departments during 1919.

The tentative budget contemplates allowing an increase of $25,000 for the public library.

Discuss Health Department. During the discussion in connec-tion with the health department, Commissioner Butler raised the question of whether Dr. W. C. Herrold, head of the meat inspection bureau, is giving all of his time to the work. Health Commission Edwards explained that Dr. Herrold is giving satisfactory services, but is not giving all of his time, and further stated that full time is not required nor could it be had from a man of Dr. Herrold's ability for a salary of $2,400 a year. The general fund which the council is distributing is made up of a levy of 35 mills, yielding $1.848.483 ward, former manager of the company gave a detailed report of the past saled. The past saled prophesid a successful year and prophesied a successful

Permanent Location of Army Retail Store to

The army retail store, which was moved from its original location in the Auditorium Saturday to make room for the Mid-West Implement Dealers' association, will be permanently located in the old cafeteria of the Millard hotel, Thirteenth and Douglas streets, it was announced yesterday.

The new store rooms, which open on Thirteenth street, are being remodeled, and the store will be open for business some time today. The two branch stores, in the South Side city hall and the Ak-Sar-Ben den, will continue to run as in the

New army shoes are now on sale at both branches and are attracting many purchasers, according to reports at the zone surplus supply oftice in the Army building. A car-load of frozen beef arrived here last week, and is being sold 20 per cent less than the Chicago market price. The price yesterday was 12.8 cents a pound. It is being sold at the Omaha Cold Storage house, Eighth and Farnam streets, under the super-vision of the army zone surplus sup-

Says Police Officer Must

Resign or Be Discharged Patrolman Joseph Trumer, ap-pointed to the police department taste. Full directions for child's three months ago, will be given an dose on each bottle. Give it without opportunity to resign, otherwise he will be dropped from the force, following an affair in which he was involved Sunday at Twenty-fourth and Vinton streets, according to Police Chief Eberstein.

Chief Eberstein.

Harry Sparger, 2929 Spring street, stated that he was sitting peacefully at a lunch counter when Trumer began a tirade of abuse and also forced him to go to a nearby pool hall, where the officer teleoned for the patrol wagon. Ernie Bahnke endeavored to intercede in behalf of Sparger and he, too, was placed under arrest.

Sparger and Bahnke were released upon arrival at the police station. Witnesses asserted that Trumer was intoxicated. After the arrests had been made Sergeant Frank Rose went to Vinton street and accompanied Trumer to police headquarters.
