Woman's section of the EAP year will be featured in next Tuesday evening at the Branders annual formal party of the Winter Dancing club which takes Mr. Fritz Koenig and Mr and Mrs. place next Wednesday evening at Leornard Trestor, who will enterthe Blackstone hotel. Not only will tain together Mr. and Mrs. Charles there be a dancing party, but be- T. Kountze and Mr. and Mrs. H. B. ginning at 7 o'clock a banquet will Burkley. The Amateur Musical be given which all the members and club, Mr. and Mrs R. Beecher Howtheir fair partners will attend. Jazz ell and Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Caldwell. orchestra will furnish the music, as usual, but there will be cabaret features introduced during the dinner. Some unique situations have been invented by the executive committee, among them a "ladies' choice" in the matter of making up the dance programs. At the banquet Harry S. Bryne will preside as toastmaster and the following will respond to toasts: club, Earl H. Burket, former president; Willard C. Slabaugh, Karl H. Hopkins and Alfred C. Munger.

For Bride-Elect.

Mrs. F. Sunshine will entertain informally at the Blackstone, Friday evening, in honor of Miss Tillie Brodkey and her fiance, J. Wright. The guests will number 30.

Newman-Snader.

The wedding of Miss Sadie Snader, daughter of Mrs. R. Snader, and Mr. Julius Newman, son of Mr. Moritz Newman of this city, will take place on January 11, 1920, at Cohn performing the ceremony. The bride will be attended by her sister, Mrs. H. Marx and Mr. Marx of Lincoln. Miss Rose Newman, sister of the groom, will be maid of honor, and Mr. Ed Snader, brother of the bride, will serve as best man. The little Misses Zerline Somberg and Mildred Kadis will be flower girls, and little Selma Berkovitz, ring bearer. Following the ceremony a dirner will be given for the immediate family, followed by a reception in the evening at the

Mr. Newman and his bride will go on a trip to Colorado and after February 1 will be at home at 1029 Jeorgia 'avenue.

For Mrs. Loomis.

Mrs. Florence B. Loomis of Denver, Colo., state president of the P. E. O. society of Colorado, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller the Benbow Court apartments, Mrs. Loomis came on for the general federation board meeting, of the Woman's club, being held in Omaha this week.

yellow and white narcisus was used as the table centerpiece and club, and an informal dinner was given for her Saturday at the regular dinner-dance of the Athletic

Mrs. Bertha Hughes will enter-ained for Mrs. Loomis Wednesday evening at the dinner in honor of the general federation and state officers. Mrs. Loomis will return to her home in Denver the early part of next week.

Fort Crook.

Mrs. William L. Phillips will entertain at a tea at her quarters at Fort Crook, Thursday afternoon from 4 to 6. Mrs. L. W. Snow of Salt Lake City, mother of Mrs. George Van Studdiford of the post, and Mrs. George M. Lewis, wife of Captain Lewis, who has just arrived at the fort, will be the honor guests. Mesdames John Morris, Ben Wade, George Van Studdiford and J. W. Phillips will assist the

Mrs. Van Studdiford will give a luncheon of 12 covers at the Ath-letic club Friday, in honor of Mrs.

Anniversary Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hiller celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary Wednesday with a family din-ner at the Athletic club. A daugh-ter, Mrs. Lester Kirschbaum of Chirago, is in Omaha for the occasion. Concert Box Parties.

Ben Fastor and Gardner Symons, well known artists, will give a free exhibition of their work in Omaha. The exhibition will open Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, on the third floor of the Omaha public library. Mr. Fastor and Mr. Symons will be here Sunday to open the exhibition. The display will Press Club.

The annual dinner of the Omaha Woman's Press club has been postponed from Wednesday evening, January the 14th, to Thursday evening, January the 15th. It will be held in the grill of the Hotel Loyal,

For Miss Sturtevant,

Mrs. C. Ellis Nichols, mother of Clyde Nichols, fiance of Miss Elizabeth Sturtevant, will entertain infor-3:30 p. m., at the home of the bride's mother. Rabbi Frederick voung women. A buffer luncheon Dance.

The Daughters of Isabella will give a dance at the Kel-Pine academy Friday evening. Those in charge are Mrs. R. W. Hamilton, Denn Fodrea and Miss Rose Dixon.

Chorus Rehearsal.

Chorus rehearsal of the business women, under auspices of the music department, Omaha Woman's club, will be resumed Thursday evening at the Y. W. C. A.

St. Rose Parish. Women of St. Rose parish will give a card party at 2:30 Friday afternoon_at the Odd Fellows hall, South Omaha.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bullard left Monday for McCook, Neb., where they will reside in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller entertained at dinner at their home Sunday for Mrs. Loomis, A large basket Mrs. Thomas Dugher, returned Tuesday to Chicago.

Miss Willow O'Brien has left for New York City after spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. O'Brien. Miss O'Brien will enter her junior year at Manhattanville college in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Root will leave in a few days for Panama and other southern points, where they will remain for the remainder of the win-

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Love are giving up their apartment at the Colonial the last of the month, and Mrs. Love with her daughter, Harriette, will leave for the south for a stay of several weeks.

/ Mrs. George Brandeis left Wed-nesday for Chicago where she will visit indefinitely.

Mrs. S. R. McKelvie is at the Miss Helen Porter left Tuesday for New York City where she will re-enter Manhattanville college.

Mrs. L. R. Blakeslee and daughter, Miss Ada, of Lincoln, are spending a few days in Omaha.

been spending a few days in the tion of officers.

Box parties are being arranged by members of the Tuesday Musical cal., is visiting his aunt, Mrs. club for the Zoellner-Hackett recital Maude Heim, 1480 Emmet street.

SOCIETY Heart Beats CLUBDOM

WENTY-FOUR states have now ratified the federal suf-

Would be for him only-And the whole world Would respect him. She pictured a fireside With laughing wee tots-A happy, proud father Chicago meet. Rushing toward home-She dreamed of Christmas With bright gifts and toys Awaiting the laughter Of her girls and boys -Who would steal Down the stairs As softly as mice— To see what Old Santy Had left in the night.

Dreams!

Always dreams-

The love of a man

She dreamed of a home,

Whose honor was true— A creed without sham—

She dreamed that her love

They were but dreams That never came true-Her mother heart Has been starved She grieves for these idols-These creatures of love And vivid imagination. Sweet-charming and good-Doing great work In the world.

The Love of God-Smiled and passed by her-And Hymen-The Marriage God-Knew well his work. There is no disgrace To being unloved, But there is sin In being unlovely. So the unmarried maids-And the unmarried men-Are not odd tricks

In the hand of Fate-But are sent here to fill Some difficult post-An important part In the Almighty's plan-And they sacrifice home-And they sacrifice love-And they sacrifice joy-To fulfil it.

The E. John Brandeis Give Supper Dance for Fred Stone and Friends.

Mr. and Mrs. E. John Brandeis vill entertain at a supper dance after the evening performance of "Jack O' Lantern" at their home in Fair Acres, for Mr. Fred Stone and a number of Mr. Stone's Among the honor guests will be the Misses Pauline and Frances Irwin and Mrs. Joella Irwin, daughters of Charles Irwin. owner of Frontier Days' Wild West Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wolf, who show, who arrive this afternoon to covers were placed for seven guests. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wolf, who show, who are successful to the house guests for a couple of have been visiting Mrs. Wolf's be the house guests for a couple of Mrs. Loomis was honor guest at mother, Mrs. Louis Motz, have redays of Mr. and Mrs. Brandeis. The Stone's show, their father and Mr.

Stone being old friends.

The Omaha couple met the Irwins and Mr. Stone in Chevenne, Wyo., last July at the Frontier Days' celebration. Mrs. Brandeis took moving pictures of cowboy "stunts" done by Mr. Stone at the celebration. These pictures will be shown Wednesday evening at her home. Supper will be served in Mr. Bran-deis' den, the interior decorations den, the interior decorations of which are done in "cowboy"

Mr. Stone, following the performance Monday evening, joined the supper-dance party at the Athletic club given by Mr. and Mrs. George Brandeis for 20 guests. The guests had previously been entertained at a box party by Mr. and Mrs. Brandeis at the theater.

Vesta Kensington.

Vesta chapter Kensington club will meet in the Red Cross rooms of Masonic temple Thursday afternoon, January 8, at 2 o'clock. Election of Liberty Chapter Kensington. Mrs. L. R. Blakeslee and daugher, Miss Ada, of Lincoln, are spending a few days in Omaha.

Mrs. Leila Brandeis, who has afternoon at 2. There will be elec-

Camp Fire Girls. The regular monthly meeting of

The Nebraska Federation

frage amendment. Rhode Island and Kentucky "arrived" January 6. Twelve more states are needed to make the amendment effective and suffragists hope to ob-February when the Susan B. Anthony centennial will be held in Chicago. Mrs. Draper Smith of Omaha is on a committee which is making program plans for the big Omaha Federated Clubs Give Dinner and Reception.

One hundred and twenty-five guests attended the dinner given Wednesday evening at Hotel Fontenelle by the five federated clubs of Omaha in honor of the general federation and Nebraska state officers. The hostess clubs with their presidents, were: Benson Woman's club, Mrs. W. A. Wilcox; Dundee Woman's, Mrs. William T. John-son; South Side Woman's, Mrs. J. B. Watkins; Omaha Woman's, Mrs. C. L. Hempel; Omaha Woman's club, railway mail service, Mrs. J.

Tables were decorated with federation colors, yellow and white narcissus blossoms being used to carry out the coldr scheme. Mrs. F. H. Cole of Omaha was in charge of the dinner arrangements. Following the dinner a reception was held from 8 to 10 o'clock. Two receiving lines were formed, the first including general federation officers and the second made up of state officers. Mrs. M. D. Cameron, director from Nebraska, presented guests from the federated clubs of Omaha to Mrs. Josiah Evans Cowles, president of the General Cowles, president of the General and reception given Wednesday Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. evening by the five federated C. L. Hempel, local chairman for the clubs of Omaha in honor of reception and president of the Omaha Woman's club, introduced greats to Mrs. John Slaker, preside tof the Nebraska Federation of Women's Clubs. Punch was served by younger club members under the meeting Wednesday afternoon. direction of Mrs. Burt C. Fowler.

Republican Women. Mrs. M. D. Cameron has returned to Omaha after attending meetings of the republican gather-ing in Chicago. More than 1,500 people banqueted Monday night. Chairman Hays of the republican national committee said the enthusiasm of the people gathered together, on that occasion indicated clearly that there would be no closed season for republicans from this time until next November. He said further, according to Mrs. Cameron, that women would bring to politics the stabilizing influence they have brought into the homes.

Miss Mary Garrett Hay, chairman of the executive committee of the woman's national republican committee, passed through Omaha Wednesday morning enroute to Denver. Miss Hay is urging women to enroll in political parties as the only way of being effective citi-zens in elections. "Enroll in the party of your choice," she says. "Enroll, enroll and then enroll."

Club Women Guests.

Among the Nebraska club women in Omaha who attended the dinner Wednesday night at 6:30 at the Hotel Fontenelle, given for general federation visitors, were: Mesdames John Slaker and W. F. Morey, Hastings; Addison E. Sheldon, Lin-coln; Paul Perryman, Ord; W. E. Minier, Oakland; S. M. Dewey, Fairmont; J. H. Corrick, Culbert-son; T. J. Gist and P. T. McGirr, Falls City; A. G. Peterson, Aurora; E. E. Welch, York; Bertha Millar, North Bend; E. B. Penney, Fuller-ton; E. E. Burr, Guide Rock; Elizabeth O'Linn Smith, Cladron; F. A. Long, Madison; W. L. Morrill, Sterling; M. A. Hostetler, Shelton; J. T. Lees, Lincoln; Miss Hattie Summers, Beatrice; Mrs. E. S. Luce, Lincoln.

Governor's' Conference. Club women of Omaha who will attend the conference in Lincoln called by Gov. S. R. McKelvie to discuss the high costs are Omaha Woman's club, Mesdames C. L. Hempel, president; S. J. Burnett, J. C. Lawrence, F. A. Howard and J. M. Lowe; from the Benson Woman's club, their president, Mrs. W. A. Wilcox; Omaha Woman's club, ailway mail service, Mrs. M. H. Drama Section, A. C. A.

The drama section of the Associaon of Collegiate Alumnae will meet with Mrs. Howard Rushton, 1013
North Thirty-fourth street, Thursday, January S, at 4 p. m. "Teeth of the Gist Horse," by Margaret Cameron, is the play to be given; Mrs. Philip Horan, leader. Members of the east are Mrs. Anan Raymond, Mrs. Howard Rushton, Mrs. Howard McMonies and Miss Elizabeth and Miss Filbert. American War Mothers.

Omaha chapter of American War Mothers will meet Thursday eve ning at 8 o'clock in Memorial hall. Art Department.
The art department of the Omaha Woman's club will meet January 8 at 2:30 o'clock at the Y. W. C. A.,

with Mrs. Halleck Rose, leader Topic, "Art in Industry."

Longfellow Circle.
Longfellow Chautauqua circle will meet Thursday, January 8, with Mrs. Helen K. Morton, 1003 Norto Forty-ninth street Lesson will be the last two chapters in "America Among the Nations," A social hour" will follow the lesson.

P. E. O. Luncheon. Chapter E of the P. E. O. sister-hood will meet for a I o'clock luncheon Thursday, January 8, with Mr. F. B. Bryant, 625 North Forty-first Story Tellers' League. Mrs. P. M. Pritchard and Mrs Samuel Fullaway will entertain the Omaha Story Tellers' league at the Y. W. C. A. Thursday, January 8, at 5:15 p. m. Each member is asked to bring a guest. Stories will be told by Mrs. Joseph C. Lawrence, Miss Redfield and Miss N. Chapin. Card.

Club President of

of the Nebraska Federation of Woman's Clubs, attended the dinner general federation and state officers. Mrs. Slaker comes here from Lincoln, where she addressed the Lincoin Woman's club Monday afternoon. She presided at a state board Generous Gift of the T. R. Kimballs Makes Day Nursery Prosperous.

It is usually understood that what the National League for Woman's service plans, it "puts over," and when the organization decided to open a day nursery in Omaha for little kiddies whose mothers are working to support them, sympathy was manifest from nearly every corner of the city. Beds were endowed without a campaign for funds, and plans were rapidly completed for the opening of an estab-

Jacob's hall was the site selected or the day nursery but when the building was purchased by the Home Builders' the rent went soaring out of reach of the babies.

It was at this critical period that Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Kimball came to the rescue and gave their arge house on the southwest corner of Twenty-fourth and St. Marys The Kimballs said: "The babies may have our house. Rent? No, not for the little ones. They may have it free of charge and it will be our donation to the coming genera-This generous gift will make i possible for the National League to open a day nursery as soon as the building can be renovated and put in The National League board of diectors will constitute the day nursery board, and with such women as these directing the home, babies have a happy outlook, according to ones while they work. Pledge for Children. I love the United States of Amer-ica, I love my country's flag. I love mothers who must leave their little my country's language. I promise: 1. That I will not dishonor my country's speech by leaving off the last syllables of words;

2. That I will say a good American "yes" and "no" in place of an Indian grunt "umhum" and "nupum" or a foreign "ya" or "yeh" and 3. That I will do my best to improve American speech by enunciat-ng distinctly and by speaking pleasantly and sincerely; 4. That I will try to make my country's language beautiful for the many boys and girls of foreign nations who come here to live; 5. That I will learn to articulate correctly one word a day for one -Mrs. Howard L. Willett. Domestic Education, A. C. A.

Domestic education section, Assoiation of Collegiate Alumnae, will meet Thursday, January 8, at 1:32 p. m. with Mrs. F. B. Hughes, 4817 Capitol avenue. The study of diet will be taken up.

DYE THAT SKIRT. COAT OR BLOUSE

'Diamond Dyes" Make Old, Shabby, Faded Apparel Just Like New

Use "Diamond Dyes," guaranteed to give a new, rich, fadeless color to any fabric, whether it be wool, silk, linen, cotton or mixed goods,dresses, blouses, stockings, skirts, children's coats, feathers, draperies, The Direction Book with each package tells so plainly how to diamond dye over any color that you can not make a mistake To match any material, have drug-gist show you "Diamond Dye" Color

Congress Well Attended

The opening session of the first annual Nebraska Farm Women's congress met Tuesday afternoon at High School of Commerce, was people, will our nation succeed." unable to appear on the program as said, "consider the purpose of the to take an intelligent interest in male authors. gown or material to be purchased, public affairs, and to bring about and buy with that in mind. If your equalization and justice to all classfigure is large, buy material of low luster instead of shiny satin, for example. Black and blue refor example. Black and blue re- at heart is welcomed into this body, duces one's appearance of size, as she says. "There are 50,000,000 do also the bisque, tans and soft farmers in the United States. How green shades A suit having a dividing line just elow the waist is good for slender light shoes because they tend to cut the appearance of height. "Suitability and appropriateness rate garments one should plan to City. Another delegate to the Wommatch the sweater, separate skirt, an's congress is from Fullerton and top coat and hat. "A heavy woman should buy a heavy hat and slender, lighter wom-ance of light weight in order to give the effect of balance in the costume

Miss Mary Bookmeyer, home economics department of South Omaha High school, and O. C. Dunn gave nelpful and well received talks. Mrs. Bacon recited "Lasca" effectively Wallace led in community high cost of living. S. W. Waller of the Swift Packing company will speak on the relative food values of fancy and cheap meats.

Home Economics Department. The home economics department

J. F. W. Club.

The J. F. W. club will meet Harry Johnson entertained in-Thursday for a 1 o'clock luncheon formally at his home Tuesday evenwith Mrs. A. S. Billings, jr.

small, means

Intelligent Votes.

Farm Women's congress, now in 2 o'clock in Orchard-Wilhelm's aud- vote, an illiterate vote-of which we itorium with Miss Verda Williams of Omaha, presiding. Mrs. Jessie Bacon of Gothenburg, president, and Mrs. W. J. Waber of Omaha, and Mrs. W. J. Waber of Om Mrs. W. J. Weber of Omaha, vice ballot. The women must be edupresident, and 60 women delegates cated and must study in order to from various parts of Nebraska, cast the intelligent vote which is needed from them. Not by blood Miss Esther Bullard of the Omaha and iron, but by the votes of the

Mrs. Bacon spoke on Americanischeduled. Miss Noble, one of her zation before the congress Wednesassistants, gave an illuminating ad- day afternoon. She declares the dress in her place on "How to Buy purpose of the organization which is having its birth in Nebraska this a library consisting of 32,000 vol-"In buying clothing," Miss Noble year, is to induce the farm women umes, all of them the works of fegreat can this organization of farm women become?

figures only. Tall people can wear gress from various parts of the A state and one woman is here from South Dakota. Mrs. Bacon herself in from Gothenburg, where she has are other important considerations ranch interests. Her time is divided for the purchaser. In buying sepa- between Nebraska and New York many are from Papillion and nearby towns. The attendance of 60 at the Tuesday meeting will be increased an should have a hat giving appear- materially before permanent organization is effected on Thursday, in the opinion of Mrs. Bacon. The women's meetings are held in the afternoons. Mornings are devoted either to the men's sessions, or to sight-seeing tours under guidance of Mrs. Harriett MacMurphy.

ENTERS BUSINESS WORLD. The busines life seems to hold allurements for maid and matron. In

Bacon, president of the Nebraska

Women are attending the con

Press Club Committees.

Miss Belle Dewey, recently elected president of the Omaha Woman's Press club, announces the members of her committees for the coming of the Omaha Woman's club will meet Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at the Y. W. C. A. for a discussion of methods for reducing the cussion of methods for reducing the ship, Lydia Wilson, chairman; Mar-garet McShane and Grace Sorenson; toilet counter for a few cents, pour constitution, Myrtle Mason, chair- a little in your hand and rub it into man; Henrietta Rees and Ella the scalp. After several applica-

Informal Affair

FirstFarmWoman President of Woman's Farm Congress Urges

war days "everybody was doing it," but with the advent of peace women "Women's votes will be one of

Wyche Story Tellers' league will gladly dropped the shattels and rethree things," says Mrs. Jessie B. turned to their leisure. The latest Omaha matron to join the ranks of the business woman so session in Omaha, "an intelligent Mrs. Pryor Markell. She is now employed as professional shopper Mrs. Markell, was formerly Miss Nellie Kitchen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Kitchen. She is very popular in the married set of Oma-

> neet in the public library, January > Miss Ida Crowell and Miss Krebs will tell stories. Count Leopold Ferri of Padua had

SHORT TO DO UP little "Danderine" stops your hair coming out and Wyche Story Tellers.

To stop falling hair at once and rid the scalp of every particle of dandruff, get a small bottle of detions the hair usually stops coming out and you can't find any dand-ruff. Help your hair to grow strong, thick and long and become soft, glossy and twice as beautiful

How Competition Helps You

hundreds of meat distributors, large and lowest possible price, consistent with quality and service. Our profit of only a fraction of a cent a pound on all products is evidence of keen competition.

your dealer or he will buy from our competitors. This means a supply of fine fresh meat always on hand for you at your dealer's.

waste, or else lose money meeting the prices of competitors who do. Swift & Company must make its products of the highest quality, or see you turn to others. This and selling costs, and use all by-products to avoid appetizing, wholesome food. We are as glad for this competition as you should Swift & Company, U.S.A.

Omaha Local Branch, 13th and Leavenworth Streets F. J. Soudess, Manager

You can drink INSTANT POSTUM Without fear of any of the after effects which often follow coffee drinking.

Postum has a thoroughly pleasing flavor greatly liked by those accustomed to high-grade coffee

There's not a trace of "Caffeine" in Postum, so sleepless nights do not follow, and headaches, nervousness and indigestion do not result from its use. "There's a Reason."

Made by Postum Cereal Co. Battle Creek, Mich.

The competition that exists among the

Rivalry in Prices Rivalry in Service Rivalry in Economy Rivalry in Quality

Swift & Company sells meat at the Swift & Company must provide the best service to Swift & Company must keep down manufacturing means better meat for you and a greater variety of

be. It helps to keep us on our mettle.

