MANYPEOPLE OUT

Construction of a golf course and a bathing beach at Fontenelle park was favored by a majority of those present. The construction of memorial community buildings as a means of rendering a more direct service to the city than the erection of one big memorial building in the center of the city was also favored.

Commissioner Falconer also made a short address at the meeting at Monmouth park. Programs at all centers were carried out as scheduled, except at the Edward Rosewater—Characterity of the center of the city was also favored.
