

FINISH HEARING OF 10 ALLEGED RADICALS HERE

No Statement On Investigation Until the Reports Are Received Back From Washington.

The hearing of the 10 alleged Omaha radicals was completed Thursday at the federal building by Immigration Inspector Warren E. Long. The reports will be sent to the attorney general as soon as they are completed. Inspector Long refused to state whether or not he would recommend deportation for any of the alleged "reds" and stated that no information could be given out until the return of the reports from Washington.

The alleged radicals were arrested in Omaha last Friday night by federal authorities on warrants issued by the Department of Labor.

Those examined here were: Mike Vitelich, secretary, 2803 T street; Mike Dasovh, 2801 T street; Mary Mrs. 2624 Y street; Tom Lertz, 2624 Y street; Frank Ivan, 2814 T street; Tom Solar, 2815 T street; Anton Blaha, 3612 V street; David Lichterman, Avenue K, East Omaha, and Frank Billot, Poppleton. The last two men are alleged to be the members of the communist labor party of America.

Inspector Long yesterday left for Des Moines, Ia., where he will take up the examination of the 15 alleged radicals arrested in that city the night of the nation-wide campaign. He expects to return the first part of next week, at which time all the reports will be forwarded to Washington.

AT THE THEATERS

JACK SINGER will bring his Behman show, which is on its 15th tour, to the Gayety theater starting this afternoon, and at the head of it he will have Harry Lander, who as a tramp comedian has few equals in his line. One of the nine scenes in the two-act burlesque, "Putting It Over," shows the Erie canal where Lander and his brother, Willie, go fishing. In the company are found such stars as Ameta Pynes, Marie Sparrow, Lawrence and Virginia, Harry Watson, Bobby Moore, Ada Vamp West, Elizabeth Rogers, Florence Atkins, Gladys Owens and the Singer All-American beauty chorus. The "Revolving Star" is sure to create a furor—watch for it. Tomorrow's matinee starts at 3.

Frank Herbert, one of the two policemen in "Jack O' Lantern," dives through a window after Fred Stone, recalls the days when he was one-half of one of the greatest acrobatic teams of the time—aron and Herbert. He began in the show business before the day of the actors' unions, when there was nothing to do but work, and he, like Fred Stone, who went through the same experience, and Colly Lorella the other policeman, has been at it ever since, with many years of activity till at last, if one can judge by appearances.

With tonight's performance, which starts at 8 o'clock, the excellent bill at the Orpheum for this week will terminate. The incoming show, which starts with the Sunday matinee, will be headlined by Evelyn Nesbit, assisted by Jimmy Dunn, in a new and exclusive song revue. The Amaras trio, jugglers of exceptional skill, are to present one of the featured acts. Princess Radjah, in her Cleopatra dance, is also featured.

A matinee this afternoon and a performance this evening will end the engagement of "Scandal" at Boyd's, where this daring Cosmo

Hamilton comedy has been delighting large audiences all week. It asks a question you may want to answer in your own way.

Mr. George Arliss, the noted English actor, will bring to this city, almost directly from a protracted engagement at the Blackstone theater, Chicago, a new play entitled "Jacques Duval." It is an adaptation from the Danish, and has proved a sensation in several European capitals. *George C. Tyler is the producer of the attraction, which will be seen at the Brandeis theater for four nights, beginning next Wednesday evening, with matinees on Thursday and Saturday.

Concluding performances will be given today for the current bill at the Empress which has as its featured act, Hawthorne's minstrels. A pleasing musical number is offered by Rich and Lenore, who play the accordion and banjo besides giving some excellent vocal renditions.

"Friendly Enemies," which A. H. Woods will present at the Boyd Sunday for an engagement of four nights received not only a historic public endorsement from President Wilson and from other notable people, but a whirlwind of praise in the press that has been accorded to few plays.

"Turn to the Right," the comedy of mirth and mother-love comes to the Brandeis tomorrow with Samuel Reed, William Foran, Sylvia Field, Charles W. Goodrich, Maude Huntley, Rita Ross, Jane Ellison, Mike Donlin, their former base ball star, and other favorites of the original New York-Chicago cast.

"Parlor, Bedroom and Bath," the big farce success at Boyd's for the three days commencing Thursday the 15th reverses the usual order of farce procedure—the hero is a husband not trying to conceal his love affairs, but striving desperately to live up to a false reputation as a Don Juan.

Drive for Air Mail Hangar Slows Up, Committee Reports

Money is not exactly rolling in to pay for the newly-constructed aerial mail hangar at Ak-Sar-Ben field, according to H. G. Conant, chairman of the aerial navigation committee of the Chamber of Commerce, which is "putting on" a drive for $50,000. The drive was started Monday with about 100 workers on the job. The committee and workers met yesterday at the chamber to report progress, and although the exact amount raised is not known, reports show that it does not exceed $15,000.

Mr. Conant will take immediate steps to continue the drive on a larger scale, he says, and when workers report next Wednesday at the chamber the amount should be nearly the required amount, in his opinion.

Noted Violinist Married In Omaha to Pianist

Rev. Charles W. Savidge of this city performed one of the most notable of the marriages for which he is widely known when he yesterday united William F. T. Mollenhauer, a famous violinist and a son of the late noted German violinist and composer, Edward Mollenhauer, in marriage to Miss Luella Crandall, a pianist of Springfield, Mo.

The couple are on a tour from New York to California.

FLASHES FROM FILMLAND

"SEALED HEARTS," a photo production starring Eugene O'Brien, will have its last showing at the Strand theater today. The screen version is by Eugene Walter and tells the story of a father and his adopted son who love the same woman, one of the deepest and most intricate dramas O'Brien has yet attempted.

Moon—A photo-play out of the ordinary is "My Husband's Other Wife," the offering at the Moon theater today. It presents a famous actress who loves the glamour of the footlights and will not give them up for her husband, who has sacrificed his ambitions, becoming merely the husband of Adelaide Hedlar.

Rialto—Judging from the number of people seen entering the Rialto, one would think eggs were being sold for 20 cents a score, but they're not. It's only Charlie Chaplin that's drawing them. In his new $1,000,000 comedy, "A Day's Pleasure," Chaplin keeps his movie fan friends in a continuous uproar. It will be shown for the last times today.

Sun—"Soldiers of Fortune" will be shown at the Sun for the last time today. With its many wonderful scenes and having sufficient adventure woven into the picturization of this screen story, it cannot help but meet with your approval.
