Washington Society

Pennsylvania and has sailed with the fleet for practice work in the Cuban waters.

The Ak-Sar-Ben club had a meeting this week to decide upon a date for their next dance and the arrangements attending it. It is being kept alive in the liveliest sort of way, although it was organized by the war workers and for the war workers, and in spite of the fact that the war is over.

Albert Jeffers, son of Representative and Mrs. A. W. Jeffers of Omaha, spent the holidays with relatives in Omaha and returned late this week to get back to his studies at Central High school. Mr. Jeffers has recovered from his recent indisposition and is again in his seat in the house of representatives, but he spent his holidays under the care of the dentist.

D. L. Love, ex-mayor of Lincoln, and J. L. Teeters of Lincoln, spent a part of the week here. Representative and Mrs. McLaughlin of York, Neb., entertained Representative Sweet and Miss Esther Sweet of Iowa at dinner this week.

John Shannahan, secretary to Congressman Jeffers, returned from his holiday visit to his parents in Omaha on Sunday last, having enjoyed his stay in the Gate city immensely.

Many Nebraskans participated in one of the prettiest teas given in Washington this week in honor of Mme. Marguerite Sylva, by the Rho Beta chapter of the Mu Phi Epsilon National Musical Honorary sorority. Mme. Sylva besides being a grand opera prima donna, and an honorary member of this organization is the wife of "the pride of the marines," Col. Bernard M. Smith, now in charge of the marine camp at Dover, N. J., but formerly the naval attaché at the American embassy in Paris, where they met and were married.

Assisting Mrs. Edward Hood Watson, daughter of Edgar C. Snyder, and the president of the Washington chapter of the Mu Phi Epsilon, was another of the chapter's honorary members, Mrs. Newton D. Baker, wife of the secretary of war, who, with Mme. Sylva received the guests, while others assisting at the tea table were Mrs. Albert W. Jeffers, wife of the Omaha congressman; Mrs. William E. Andrews, wife of the congressman from the Hastings district; Mrs. Frank Mondell of Wyoming; and Mrs. Edgar C. Snyder and many others.

Mme. Sylva gave a program of French and American songs, rather classical in composition, and was followed by a little impromptu program by Mrs. Baker.

It is interesting to note that one of the newest chapters of the National Musical Honorary sorority is established at the University of Nebraska, Lincoln.

Dodge, is now touring the west and during the holidays appeared in Salt Lake City. On Christmas day she sang for prisoners at the Utah state prison. Miss Dodge sang in many of the southern camps during the war and was assigned to overseas service at the time of the signing of the armistice.

Birthday Party.

Mrs. A. R. Stone entertained informally at her home, Saturday afternoon, in honor of the seventh birthday of her daughter, Helen. Those present were Catherine Mills, Josephine Coad, Frances Brown, Peggy Young, Jacqueline James, Jane Patch, Betty Ann Patch, Zena Gray Durlinger, Betty Patterson and Shirley Jane Stone.

Relief Society.

The Jewish Woman's Relief society met Tuesday afternoon at the Lyric hall at which meeting Mrs. R. Kulakofsky announced that the membership totaled 700.

Humane Society Reception.

The Nebraska Humane society will hold a reception, Friday afternoon, January 16, in the palm room at the Fontenelle ball room, 3 o'clock, Mr. and Mrs. George Arliss will be the honor guests. Mr. Arliss who will be appearing at the Brandeis, is much interested in this organization. Mrs. J. E. Davidson, Mrs. H. H. Baldrige, Mrs. Lucien Stevens, and Mrs. G. L. Farnsworth, officers of the Woman's auxiliary to the society, will receive.

Gym Classes for Dundee.

A gymnasium class for all women residing in Dundee will be organized Monday evening at 7:30 at the hall of the Dundee Presbyterian church. Mrs. E. H. Westerfield will be in charge.

Dancing Party.

The Temple Israel sisterhood will give a dance at the Blackstone Saturday evening, January 17.

Surprise Marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Feldman announced the marriage of their daughter, Julia, to Julius D. Kraft at a reception given at their home Saturday evening. The ceremony was performed November 20 in Lincoln by Rabbi S. Gordon. The announcement came as a surprise to friends of the couple. Mr. and Mrs. Kraft will make their home in this city.

Junior Club Again Active.

The Junior club, one of Omaha's exclusive social clubs, is about to resume its activities, having eschewed all parties during the war period. A dancing party has been planned for the latter part of January. Charles E. Metz, president, and Harry A. Koch, secretary, are in charge. The membership, which formerly numbered 60, will probably be increased to 100.

Columbian Club.

A card party will be given Wednesday afternoon by the Columbian club at their hall, Twenty-second and Locust streets. Mrs. J. W. Kennebeck and Mrs. Fletcher will be hostesses.

Back to School.

After spending the holidays with their parents here, the Misses Ruth Hattroth, Herberta Barker, Ruth Nickum, Louise Ortmann, Winifred Lathrop, Ethel Streitz and Grace Burgess have returned to the Rockford college, Rockford, Ill., to again take up their studies.

Prettiest Mile Golf Club.

Mrs. D. H. Hawk entertained at a Kensington at her home Tuesday afternoon for the members of the Prettiest Mile Golf club. She was assisted by Mesdames J. C. Ludeky, George Greenough and Elma Wonder. The guests numbered 35.

Leaving for Santa Barbara.

California seems to be the popular resort for Omaha people, now that the holidays are over and the present season sees a general exodus to various points there. Santa Barbara is the favored point with a number of people. Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Storz leaving soon for that city, and Mrs. F. M. Aldous, her son, Frederick, and daughter, Virginia, expect to leave the early part of the month. Mrs. Roy T. Byrne and children left this week to spend the remainder of the winter in Santa Barbara, accompanied by Mrs. Byrne's sister, Miss Theresa Sheridan of St. Joseph.

Informal Dance.

A dancing party will be given by the Omaha Elks' dancing club, Saturday evening, January 10.

Theater Party.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Kase entertained at a box party at the Boyd Saturday evening. Their guests included Messrs. and Mesdames James L. Morley, Frank Young, Misses Anna and Helen Carney and Dollie Eoff, and Messrs. J. Warren, E. Butler, R. C. O'Connell of Kansas City and E. Struppith.

Erna Reed Entertains.

Miss Erna Reed entertained informally at the dinner-dance at the Athletic club Saturday evening. Covers were placed for Misses Gwendolyn Wolfe, Winifred Smith and her guests, Wain Richards of Philadelphia and Dorothy Newkirk of Hackensack, N. J.; Messrs. George Metcalfe, Dudley Wolfe, George Stocking, Harry Burkley and Porter Allen.

Church Bazar.

Our Lady of Lourdes parish will entertain at a dinner, bazar and dance Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

Kensington.

Adah chapter of the O. E. S. will entertain at 1 o'clock luncheon and a Kensington Thursday afternoon at Masonic hall, Twenty-fifth and N streets.

The need of a business woman's hotel in Philadelphia is evident, and the matter has been brought before the Business Women's Christian League by Miss Esther M. Hawes, secretary of the field committee of the Y. W. C. A.

Engaged

Pauline Schneider

Mr. and Mrs. Paul G. Schneider announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Pauline, to George F. McShane, son of Mrs. James H. McShane. No date has been set for the wedding but it will probably take place in the spring.

Fine Arts Lecture.

The Omaha Society of Fine Arts will present Moissaye J. Olgin of New York City in a lecture in the Hotel Fontenelle ball room Thursday afternoon, January 15, at 3:45 p. m. The subject of Mr. Olgin's lecture will be "The Spirit of Russian Literature." The spiritual groupings of the Russian nation as revealed in the most beautiful of its arts.

Mr. Olgin is well qualified to fulfill his task. He was a graduate of the University of Kiev, Russia, and also of Columbia college, where he has been giving a course of lectures under the auspices of Arts and Sciences. His chief work in the revolution consisted of editing various pamphlets, journals and papers. From 1905 to 1907, he was editor of the semi-legal Vilna People's Gazette. In 1906 he was press correspondent of the first imperial Duma. Twice he was imprisoned in Russia and he was sentenced to serve a year as a soldier in the barracks, a penalty imposed on revolutionary students, otherwise exempted from military service.

Queen Philippa, consort of Edward III, initiated the manufacture of English by establishing a colony of Flemish artisans at Norwich.

Camp Fire Girls

The Ososha group held a council fire at the home of their guardian, Miss Margaret Stirling. The rank of torch bearer was conferred upon Henrietta Clark at this meeting. The following members were awarded a special local honor: Marjorie Corey, Nina Criss, Marq Gooty, Marion Hoerner, Pauline Parmelee and Elinor Ryner. At their hand craft meetings, the Ososhas are making a quilt for an invalid. Both sides of the quilt are made of blocks in unique designs. These designs were made by the girls. The quilt is hand work and is to be quilted and knotted by the group.

At a meeting Wednesday of Mrs. R. B. MacDougalls group, Bernice Anderson was elected secretary, Gertrude Pollard, treasurer, Ruth Carlberg, scribe, Frances Delaware will notify members of any change in plans of the regular meetings.

Last week the Toheha group (Seeking Good), Miss Bertha Vaughan, guardian, met at the home of Emma Hoagland for a ceremonial meeting. The candles of work, health and love were lighted by Dorothy Barber, Margaret Logan and Helen Montgomery. Virginia Frantz gave the ode to the fire. The fire maker's rank was taken by Emma Hoagland and Harriet Binder and the torch bearer's rank awarded to Jane McConnell.

An important meeting of the Tomoko Campfire group, Mrs. H. Gates, guardian, was held Tuesday afternoon at the Y. W. C. A. The election of officers for the coming half year took place and the result was as follows: Marguerite Forsell, vice president; Florence Rich, treasurer; Frances McClesney, secretary; Arlene Rosenberry, sergeant-at-arms; Helen Erikson, reporter and Alice Pfeiffer, assistant reporter. Following the meeting, the group was entertained by Mildred Osman.

The Wobigoon group met at Omaha Monday afternoon to prepare for a ceremonial to be held at their next meeting.

Monday evening the Oececas, a group from the Calvary Baptist church, held a business meeting at the Y. W. C. A.

The Genesha group held a ceremonial meeting at the home of their guardian, Mrs. Katherine Fisher.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Only a Limited Number of Ford Cars

There are mighty good reasons why you should buy your Ford car now. But the biggest one is that there are only so many Ford cars—just a specified limited number—allotted to this territory. Those who buy their cars now will be wise. They will have them to use whenever they wish.

Don't put it off—next spring, even next month, is an uncertainty. We cannot take orders for spring delivery. Even now, we must have signed bona-fide orders before our monthly allotment is shipped us. So the only way for you to be sure of getting a Ford car, is to order it now. Get your name on an order. It is your protection.

Again we tell you, the allotment for this territory is limited and you must buy now while deliveries are possible. As ever, the demand for Ford cars is away in advance of production. So, it's first come, first served. Spring, summer, autumn and winter are all the same to the Ford car. It is a valuable servant every day of the year. Rain or shine, it is ready for your demands. Buy now and get prompt delivery. You won't have to store it. You can use it. Buy now while the buying is possible.
