Omahan Reported Killed on the Russian

Reported killed in action on the iberian front by both army and Red Cross officials, H. Ed Gowen, former employe of the Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railway comcouncil Bluffs Street Railway com-pany, surprised his Omaha sweet-heart last week by appearing be-fore her in person and chiding her for not giving him a warmer greeting than:

"They told me you were dead. Is this your ghost?"

Gowen is the son of John Gowen of Lincoln. He enlisted May 3, 1918, and sailed for Vladivostok with the 31st infantry several months later. He was reported seriously wounded in February, 1919.

When no word arrived concerning his condition, both his father and sweetheart appealed to the Red Cross, which, in June, reported him killed in action, details unavailable. He landed in San Francisco, De- ute lecture by Calder, followed by cember 31, and lost no time get- questions and discussions for 35 ting to Omaha. After surprising his sweetheart here, he left for Lincoln to "shock" his father, and visit brothers and sisters in South Da-

Gayety Homecoming For Behman Show; Harry Lander Big Hit

The Gayety theater is celebrating homecoming this week in presentng Jack Singer's Behman show in Putting It Over." The Behman duction shown at the Gayety over 10 years ago. It is now on its 15th annual tour.

Harry Lander, the surprising new comedian, and his laughing elephant are the hit of the show. Lander is a star of the brightest hue and his tramp character is so different from others that he made an immediate hit when he was induced to quit vaudeville for burlesque.

One of the most humorous scenes ever presented in burlesque is in the second act. It is the Erie canal and at the dock is a large barge. From this barge Lander and his brother, Willie, do a little fishing It must be seen to get even a slight appreciation of its novelty and fun.

Jack Singer never sent a better how over the wheel than his latest effort, Seldom has such scenery been seen on the burlesque stage. The costumes are also gems of the dressmaking art and blend in wonderful hramony with the scenery. These costumes are worn by 25 girls who know how to wear them. In addition to being pretty these girls can sing. Ameta Pynes is again the leading woman of the company. She needs no introduction to burlesque lovers. MUST be sold, F mares, from 5 to 7 years old 2,500 to 2,800 pounds, all matched, that I have worked on my farm; also 2,800-pound 6 and 7-year-old geldings, 815 S, 23d St.
