M'KELVIE NAMES STATE SCHOOL WOMAN TO PROBE COST OF LIVING

Mrs. Charles G. Ryan of Grand Island Will Take Up New Duties Monday.

Lincoln, Jan. 10.—(Special.)—Governor McKelvie has appointed Mrs. Charles G. Ryan of Grand Island chairman of the committee to look into the high cost of living. Mrs. Ryan was county food administrator for Hall county during the war, and was recognized as one of the most capable, efficient and energetic workers in the state. She will take up her duties Monday and will begin the work of organization at once. She will be attached to the Department of Agriculture, and it is through this department that the work will be conducted.

Mrs. Andrews Returns From Republican Meeting

Lincoln, Jan. 10.—(Special.)—Mrs. Lula E. Andrews of the republican state committee has returned from the meeting of the national republican committee at Chicago, where she represented the committee. Others representing the republican women of the state were Mrs. E. G. Deats, Beatrice; Mrs. M. D. Cameron, Omaha; and Mrs. Harry Keefe, Walthill. Nebraska women came home with an inspiration for active work and will show it before the April primaries come around.

A. F. Dill, president; Fred Werner, vice president; F. A. Jones, cashier. Incorporation papers show that the proposed bank has 48 stockholders, with an estimated net worth of $1,968,995.

State Auditor Marsh To Seek Renomination

Lincoln, Jan. 10.—(Special.)—State Auditor George W. Marsh seeks a re-election. A message was received by Secretary of State D. M. Amsbury from Brokers Law notifying him that a petition for Marsh's renomination had been filed with the county clerk of Custer county.

Beach Files as Delegate.

Lincoln, Jan. 10.—(Special.)—E. D. Beach, state fire commissioner, filed petitions with the secretary of state as a candidate for delegate at large to the national republican convention. The petitions had more than 5,000 names attached.

Democrat Says He Wouldn't Give Five Cents to Party Fund

W. H. Green of Creighton, Neb., who was a delegate to the democratic national convention at Baltimore, answering a request from W. D. Jamison, treasurer of the democratic national committee, for funds, in a letter dated December 15, wrote: "I voted 43 times for Woodrow Wilson at Baltimore. I again voted for him at St. Louis, but the present democratic party with its overload of southern tory autocracy is dying of dry rot, and I would not contribute 5 cents to give it a decent burial."

Snow and Rain Is Promised Nebraska for Coming Week

Washington, Jan. 10.—Weather predictions for the week beginning Monday are: Upper Mississippi and lower Missouri valleys, snow probable over north and snow or rain over south sections by middle of week with nearly normal temperatures. Generally fair weather latter days, with temperatures somewhat below normal.

Bit In Eye by Coyote; Fears Hydrophobia Attack

Fremont, Neb., Jan. 10.—(Special.)—Eugene Esty of Leshara was in Fremont today for treatment of an injury to his eye, sustained when a coyote bit him in the optic. The wolf snapped Mr. Esty when he came near where it was tied. The animal has been raised as a pet. He fears hydrophobia.

Clemenceau to Tour U. S.

Paris, Jan. 10.—(Havas.)—Georges Clemenceau is said to intend, if he is elected president of the republic, to cross the Atlantic to carry on in the United States a "vigorous campaign" in behalf of the league of nations, according to the newspaper, Evènement.

STATE SCHOOL CHIEF DIES AT HOME OF FRIEND

W. H. Clemmons, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Expires Suddenly in Fremont.

Fremont, Neb., Jan. 10.—(Special.)—W. H. Clemmons, state superintendent of public instruction, died here at the home of Miss Eva Mixer, a former teacher and life-long friend of Mr. and Mrs. Clemmons. He had been in poor health following a paralytic stroke in November, 1918.

Mr. Clemmons was enroute to Lincoln from Atkinson and went to a hotel but later telephoned to Prof. C. K. Burkholder and made arrangements to spend the night at his home as he was feeling ill. He stopped at the home of Miss Mixer, who administered remedies when he complained of not feeling well and declared he felt better when he started to leave. He fell to the floor dying in a few minutes.

He was head of Fremont college for 30 years, selling it to Midland college last year. During 20 years of his reign the college was the largest of its kind in the west, registering as many as 1,500 students. He made several unsuccessful efforts to sell the school to the state when the private normal field became limited.

He was elected state superintendent as a democrat in 1916 and was re-elected in 1918 as a non-partisan. Under the law Governor McKelvie will appoint his successor to serve until January 1921.

Mr. Clemmons was born in Madison county, Ohio, in 1857 and moved to Fremont in 1886. Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30. The body will be taken to Tipton, Ind. for burial.

Opening Our New Fourth Floor With a Sale of

$65,000 Worth of Rugs

Carpets and Linoleums at 20 to 33 1/3% Below Regular Market Prices

These exceptional prices are possible because of judicious buying, months ago, when prices were much lower than they are today. We are willing to accept a fair profit on our original cost, without permitting the sharp advance in the prices of floor covering announced in the markets October first and again on January first to affect selling prices on our present stock. In many cases we could not replace these rugs at wholesale for the prices at which we offer them.

Our stocks are complete as to patterns, qualities and sizes. Any rug you select is an excellent investment at this time.
