BRYAN ADVISES COMMITTEE ON CONSTITUTION

Representative Hall Packed To Hear Commoner Discuss Needs of State of Nebraska.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 12.—In an address to the state constitutional convention early this evening, Mr. Bryan said he wished it might have been possible for him to have had an intimate part in framing the new Nebraska constitution, and he regretted he could not have entered the race for membership in the body. It was largely lawyers' work, he said, and his profession was that of law, "but," he added semi-humorously, "I am not practicing it just now."

Trust the people was Mr. Bryan's particular admission to the members. He urged co-operation and liberality of laws where the people were affected. "I have had to live the last 25 years," said Mr. Bryan, "defending myself against hard names because I have believed the government can do better things than private concerns." He said he had been repeatedly called a socialist because he had defended what he believed to be private rights as against corporation encroachment.

He spoke for economy in expenditures, careful study of tax enactments and in opposition to prison plants and factories competing with free labor.

Preaches Fuderal Sermon.

The constitutional convention sounded the requiem on Delegate Anderson's proposal No. 75 this morning by sending it to the grave after Mr. Anderson had preached what he called its funeral sermon. He said that he knew it was dead but that something ought to be said before it was consigned to its last resting place. The proposal would require persons signing a referendum petition to make their signature before a notary public.

DYSPEPSIA AND HOME LIFE

What a Relief When All the Family Eat the Same Foods! Avoid Dyspepsia, Sour Risings, Gas—Indigestion from Breakfast Sausage to Dinner Mince Pie.

After mother has struggled two or three hours over a hot fire to do the cooking for a hungry family, it

Health and Happiness

To be free of indigestion contributes wonderfully to happiness of home life. It is real enjoyment when there isn't a dyspeptic jinx among them. Of course, a case of dyspepsia or daily indigestion must be looked after. But it is far more to the point to prevent as well as to treat sour stomach, belching, water brash, etc., by such a valuable means as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Coddling the stomach with soft food and predigested stuff merely invites sluggishness.

Eat your little pork sausages for breakfast without fears; have a plate of beans and a piece of pie with cheese for lunch, and end the day with a real dinner, instead of a bowl of bread and milk. Follow each meal with a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet and get right back to your natural self.

The Easiest Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

FAIL TO SECURE JURY IN DAVIS ASSAULT CASE

Entire Day Spent in Examining Panel, Many of Whom Are Disqualified by Judge.

Little progress was made yesterday in getting a jury to try George Davis, charged with assault to murder and assault to do great bodily injury to Mayor Smith the night of the court house riot.

Man after man was excused because of expressed prejudice or an already formed opinion about Davis' guilt or innocence.

After the entire day spent in examining prospective jurors yesterday, the first twelve men had not been secured, four men had been excused not only from the jury, but from service on any jury on the present panel, because they expressed ideas of their duties as jurymen which were not in accordance with what the law demands.

May Summon More Men.

It is very likely that additional jurymen will be summoned for service on the present panel to take the place of the large number excused and discharged.

Three of the first five prospective jurymen examined by County Attorney Shotwell in the Davis case were excused.

When Attorney Eugene O'Sullivan's turn to examine jurors came, he examined three before he secured the first jurymen. Mose Helzberg, 4910 Dodge street, and Edwin Wilkinson, 1216 South Tenth street, said they had formed opinions regarding Davis' guilt.

They were excused from the jury box and discharged from duty by Judge Redick.

Elwood Cooper, 413 North Twenty-fifth street, a middle-aged man, employed by the American Railway Express company, was excused from the jury and discharged entirely from jury service by Judge Redick, following his answers to questions as to his qualifications to serve as a juror.

He declared that the possibility of imposing a penalty of two to 15 years on Davis if he is found guilty, would probably prevent him from finding him guilty even if he were proved so.

Judge Redick immediately wrote an order, discharging Mr. Cooper from any jury service.

"The law provides the penalty and it is not for any juror to consider that at all," said the judge.

The third juror examined, J. B. McDermott, 319 North Seventeenth street, was excused from the jury because he said sympathy for Davis might influence his verdict.

But Two Accepted.

Willard Fallon, the fifth man examined, was excused because he said he might not return a verdict of guilty even if the state proved Davis guilty beyond a reasonable doubt, of assaulting Mayor Smith, Mr. Fallon is a farmer near Elkhorn, Neb.

The same astonishing reluctance of prospective jurors to convict alleged rioters was shown in District Judge Sears' court, where a jury was being impaneled to try Sam Novak, 17 years old, on the charge of conspiracy to murder Will Brown, the negro lynched by the court house mob.

New Evidence Promised.

Novak was indicted by the grand jury October 21 with Perry Jenkins, Jenkins was acquitted January 2. Novak is a new boy.

George Davis is up for his second trial. County Attorney Shotwell says the trial will probably take the entire week.

Davis was tried the first time on these charges, starting December 15. The case went to the jury December 18. After being out two nights and a day, the jury failed to agree and was discharged.

"We have a great deal of new evidence which, in my opinion, must convince the jury," said County Attorney Shotwell.

"We have about two barrels of new evidence," said Eugene O'Sullivan, one of the attorneys for Davis. "I think I'm to get acquitted this time," said Davis.

Davis is accused of striking Mayor Smith a blow on the side of the head while the mayor was in the hands of the mob. The mayor is positive in his identification of Davis. He declared at the first trial there was no possibility of his being the man who did it.

The alleged assault by Davis took place between 9 and 10 the night of the riot. Davis' defense in the first trial was an alibi. He swore he arrived at his home, 1512 North Twenty-eighth street at about 8:15 the night of the riot and did not leave the house again that night. His sister and five dinner guests who were at the house, swore to this also.

Dr. O. S. Wood, Pioneer Mason, Dies in House of Hope at Age of 88

Funeral services for Dr. O. S. Wood, 88 years old, who died Saturday night at the House of Hope, Florence, will be held this afternoon from the Scottish Rite cathedral at 2. Burial will be in Forest Lawn cemetery.

Dr. O. S. Wood was the oldest living Mason of St. Johns lodge at the time of his death. He was a resident of Omaha for 52 years, actively engaged in the practice of medicine here for 45 years.

During his life he was a prominent Mason of state circles, being made a Master Mason November 29, 1869. He had gone through the 32d degree of the Scottish Rite and was an active Shriner.

He is survived by a married daughter, Mrs. Norma E. Reed of New Rochelle, N. Y., and a son, Charles H. Wood of Bridgeport, Neb.

Taxi Driver to Testify.

It is said that in the present trial, a taxi cab driver will be placed on the stand to testify that his sister swore that he took Davis home in his taxi at 10:10 that night. Davis in the first trial said he went home in a taxi cab, but at about 8.

If Davis' story is true, he was not downtown when Mayor Smith was assaulted. If the taxi driver's story is true, he was downtown at the time of the assault.

Davis was indicted November 7, and was arrested in Lincoln. He is a wholesale and retail fruit and produce peddler.

He was released under $14,000 bond after he had been in jail two weeks. His sister, Mrs. Catherine Campbell, of Memphis, Tenn., went on his bond.

Fred Rissi, charged with conspiracy to commit the murder of Will Brown, the negro lynched by the mob at the court house, September 28, was put on trial yesterday before a jury in District Judge Estelle's court.

Sickness Cure or Sickness Prevention

When Pasteur proved the relation of germs to infectious disease, he marked a big advance in that development of medical science which reigns today—the Idea of Sickness Prevention.

As a result, many plagues and epidemics that were the bane of former ages no longer terrify the world, and science has now developed an effective agent against the condition which is the first cause of over 90% of all human disease—constipation.

That effective agent is Nujol.

Nujol prevents constipation by softening the food waste and encouraging the intestinal muscles to act naturally.

Nujol helps nature establish easy, thorough bowel evacuation at regular intervals—the healthiest habit in the world. Get a bottle from your druggist today.

For valuable health booklet—"Thirty Feet of Danger"—free, write Nujol Laboratories, Standard Oil Co. (New Jersey), 50 Broadway, N.Y.

Warning: Nujol is sold only in sealed bottles bearing the Nujol Trade Mark as shown here. Returns of products represented in the "The sense of Nujol." They may differ from substitution.
