ALLIANCE MAN HELD FOR DEATH OF YOUNG CHILD

Relatives Turn Against Man Charged With Giving His Daughter Poisoned Candy.

Alliance, Neb., Jan. 13 .- Lawrence H. Lackey was held to the district court here by County Judge Tash on a charge of causing the death of his 7-year-old daughter, Pauline, by giving her poisoned candy. The girl died in Allianee last December

Mrs. Mary Lackey, mother of the accused, and Frank Lackey, a brother, were the chief witnesses. The four Lackey children had been makng their home with the grandmother following an estrangement between their parents. Mrs. Lackey testified that two bottles of strychnine had been kept in the house for several years and that the day before little Pauline's death she had placed one of the bottles on the sideboard of the home.

Neighbor Warned Her.

She testified that a neighbor woman had warned her against such action, because of the presence of small children in the home. She said she burned the bottle the day after the death of her granddaughter without looking to see if the seal of the bottle had been broken.

The first witness for the state was Dr. Elmer Blok, the physician who was called to attend the little girl B. B. Wood and when she was seized with convulsions at the school house on December 11. He testified that all indi-

he strange convulsions at the Specified Soft Centers.

Dr. George J. Hand, city physician, and Dr. F. J. Peterson were placed on the stand. They told of the autopsy which was held on the little girl's body and of the examination of the stomach. Earl Mallery, former state representive and proprietor of the gro-cery store where Lackey secured the candy with which the little girl was poisoned, was the next witness. He was followed by Hal Gribble, meat cutter in the store, who sold the candy to Lackey.

Gribble told how Lackey specified candy with soft centers when he purchased the commodity.

Mrs. Nettie Lackey, wife of Frank Lackey, brother to the accused man, was the concluding witness. She testified how she was at the home of little Pauline's grandmother and own daughter, to whom some of the candy was given, said it tasted bitter and spit it out.
