received yesterday and employes of the revenue office are acquaing themselves with them in order that they will be able to assist the tax-pavers in making out their reports.

The only change in the 1920 blanks from those of last year is that the individual blank cannot be used to report on an income received from a partnership. The small individual blanks are expected to be the first ones received at the revenue office.

Upon information furnished by Alfred Hansen, 2106 North Twenty-ninth street, and John Blain, 322 North Twenty-sixth street, both automobile mechanics, police are searching for A. B. Bishop, negro, manager of the All-Car garage, 2411

North Twenty-fourth street, for the alleged theft of various repair parts of automobiles that had been left in the garage for storage.

Hansen and Blain were arrested Tuesday for investigation and released six hours later upon bonds.

While being questioned in regard to the alleged theft of a self-starter from one of the stored cars, both men started to leave the place in a hurry, police say.

Bishop has been at the garage since last Saturday, it was learned. Alonzo Adams, night man at the place, says Bishop has disappeared.

My Heart and My Husband ADELE GARRISON'S New Phase of "Revelations of a Wife"

What Jerry Ticer Said About the work with a will that sent us fly-when Mrs. Ticer's voice rang out annual meeting Tuesday and elected officers. Walter W. Hoagland of North Platte, Neb., was re-elected president, Walter A. George, Omaha, we can't have no gittin' up in the boat and leanin' over. I don't mean no offense, little girl"-her quick eyes had seen Marion's sensitive face cloud with humiliation-"but I've seen some nasty accidents when peogot excited over drawing fish in fast."

ing erected at Thirty-sixth and streets, South Omaha, shows that "I'll take care of the little girl, my father interposed quickly. the new facilities will enable the company to kill and cure four times she goes overboard she'll have to the present capacity of the plant. Ofdrag me with her, because I'm goficers of the company believe that dividends for the coming year will ing to tie her hair to my button-hole." Marion giggled at his nonsense and the tension was broken. All of us who knew Marion so well also knew there was no need for Mrs. Ticer's warning, for although excit able, she is the most docile of kiddies, and, besides, has a fund of common sense remarkable for her age. But I think we were all grateful to Mrs. Ticer for her warning. showed a caution on her part, which I, little used to boats, found most reassuring.

Only Bottle Fish.

Mrs. Ticer and her sturdy, freckled son, Jerry, pushed off the boat with a mighty concerted effort, and don't seem to know where the fish are, although Buck Elders is in one, and Jim Steele in t'other. If Buck Jim were alone they woudn't be there. I'll bet they'll feel like fightin' when they see us goin' to the real grounds. But they've each got some city fellers in there with
