

ROBBER CAUGHT LOOTING STORE MAKES ESCAPE

Three Burglaries and One Holdup Reported to Police During Night—Smash Window, Steal Furs.

One holdup and three robberies were committed Thursday night in Omaha, according to police reports. A lone burglar was nearly captured, after breaking into the Palace Clothing company, Fourteenth and Douglas streets, at midnight. The fireman of the establishment discovered the man at work inside the store, and took after him, but the robber made a hasty exit through the sidewalk grating by which he had gained entrance. Police were called, and a squad of detectives scoured the neighborhood, but the robber had escaped. Nothing was missing from the store.

Burglars broke into the home of W. S. Holbrook, 4806 Harney street, during the night and after ransacking the home escaped with $25 in cash and a pearl ring valued at $150. Entrance was gained to the house through a basement window while the family slept.

Thieves smashed the plate glass window of the Fashion store, 111 South Sixteenth street, and stole a Japanese mink fur worth $300. The thieves made their getaway before police arrived.

Two Mexicans held up and robbed Joel Evans, 1505 Chicago street, at 5:30 Thursday afternoon near Twelfth street and Capitol avenue. Both his assailants had revolvers and forced him into an alley, where they relieved him of $9 in cash, Evans told police.

SAY PHYSICIAN'S WIFE WORE ONE OF STOLEN COATS

Dr. G. A. Angus Held to District Court for Receiving Property.

Dr. G. A. Angus, physician, 3520 Hamilton street, was bound over to district court in Central police court yesterday on charges of receiving and concealing stolen property. He was arrested Thursday night by Detectives Danbaum and Haze when two fur coats, valued at $1,000, which had been stolen from the store of F. W. Thorne, 1812 Farnam street, January 4, were found in a trunk in his home. Dr. Angus' wife had worn one of the coats, detectives testified.

Recovery of the stolen goods was made following a confession by Roy Parker, alias J. C. Carter, confessed drug addict, Sixteenth and California streets, that he stole the coats and sold them to Dr. Angus for $100.

Volunteers a Confession. Parker was bound over to district court last Monday on a charge of breaking into a freight car near Fourteenth and Webster streets. He is in the county jail awaiting his trial. He volunteered his confession to Chief of Detective Dunn Thursday afternoon.

Detectives investigated the affair, and found also two automobile tires and two robes, which Parker testified in police court yesterday he turned over to Dr. Angus.

Dr. Angus pleaded not guilty and denied that he bought the coats or other stuff from Parker.

"Parker worked for me about the house and left the coats and robes with me until he was ready to take them away again," Dr. Angus said.

Says He Got Treatments. Parker had on an overcoat which he said Dr. Angus gave him in part payment for the fur coats. Parker testified that Dr. Angus administered several drug treatments for one of the robes.

Detectives learned that the tires were stolen from the Webster street light depot and that one of the automobile robes found in Dr. Angus' possession belonged to Dr. C. A. Shook, a police surgeon.

Bonds of $750 were set for Dr. Angus pending his trial in district court.

Service at Ventura, Cal., For Sister of Mayor Smith

Funeral services for Mrs. Emma Cook, sister of Mayor Smith, were held yesterday at Ventura, Cal., according to word received in Omaha. Mrs. Cook died in the Methodist hospital at Los Angeles Tuesday. She was a native of Iowa and lived in California for years. She was the widow of George Cook, wealthy ranchman, and was 63 years old on Christmas day. She is survived by four daughters, one sister and two brothers. The late Congressman Smith of Bakersfield, Cal., was one brother, the other living brother being E. E. Smith of Spokane, Wash.

Police Search for Girl Missing for Two Days

Catherine Bristow, 11 years old, has been missing from The Creche, a children's home, 1235 Park Wide avenue, for two days. Police are conducting a search for the girl. Mrs. M. Willet, superintendent of the home, reported Catherine's disappearance following failure of the girl to return from an errand. She was dressed in a blue dress, brown coat, gray cap and black shoes and stockings. She has long brown hair and blue eyes.

U. S. and City Officers Find Still and Mash.

At the homes of Vincent Jones, 3608 Haskell street, and Walter Appleton, 3620 Vinton street, federal officers and Police Detective Samardick found a whiskey still and several jugs of sour mash Thursday night, when they raided both places. The still was found in Jones' home. Appleton had the mash in the basement of his place. The officers said, Jones and Appleton were booked at the Central police station for investigation.
