SIMS EXPLAINS HIS ATTACK ON NAVAL AWARDS

Commander of Foreign Water Fleet Says Morale Has "Been Knocked to Pieces."

Washington, Jan. 16.—While disclaiming any thought of making a personal attack on Secretary Daniels, Rear Admiral William S. Sims told the senate subcommittee investigating naval war decorations that morale of the service had "been knocked to pieces" as a result of methods followed in making the awards.

The underlying cause of "the whole unfortunate affair," Admiral Sims asserted, was failure of Mr. Daniels to formulate a definite policy to govern awards in his instructions to the Knight medal board. Grave injustices had been done many officers because of this, he added.

Admiral Sims, who during the war commanded American forces in foreign waters, said constructive criticism was part of his duty to the service and his recent letter, as well as his testimony, was not to be construed otherwise. His argument for withdrawal of department regulations requiring officers not to publish critical articles without specific sanction as in the best interests of the service. In connection with his original letter refusing a distinguished service medal pending action by the secretary on his plea for reconsideration of his recommendations as to awards, he said Mr. Daniels had written him that no final action had been taken.

Discussion Is Heated.
During the hearing Admiral Sims engaged in heated verbal tilts with Senators Pittman, democrat, Nevada, and Trammell, democrat, Florida, who showed a disposition to cross question him in detail.

Before Admiral Sims was heard, Senator Pittman made a determined effort to have Mr. Daniels called as the first witness, declaring the committee was showing discourtesy in calling a subordinate first. His motion was defeated on party lines. Summing up his objections to the decorations award policy, Admiral Sims declared that "the awarding of medals to men who lost their ships in action without engaging the enemy was without precedent in the history of the American navy or any other navy and had resulted in splintering the morale of the service."

Officers of the navy, the admiral said, would much rather have medals awarded than to have them juggled around. He said that his chief criticism was not that some of his recommendations had not been approved, but that by awarding medals of different value than he recommended to various officers on his staff, the board and the secretary had changed the relative order of merit of the service of the officers, conferring high decoration on officers who performed more or less routine duty and lower honors on officers who administered posts of extreme importance.

England Chiefs to Outline Plan to Cope With the Reds
London, Jan. 16.—The impression prevailed here today that in the conference at Paris of Premier Lloyd George, Winston Spencer Churchill, the war minister; Walter Hume Long, first lord of the admiralty; Baron Beatty, commander of the grand fleet, and Field Marshal Sir Henry Wilson, chief of the imperial staff, it would be decided to take some defensive action against bolshevik military aggression.

The Persian government has requested Great Britain to state what assistance can be given Persia in the event of a bolshevik invasion and what defensive action by Persia would accord with the British policy.

An unconfirmed report from Berlin says that Enver Pasha, former Turkish war minister, who was recently crowned king of Kurdistan, has been in Berlin and has proceeded to Asia Minor. This raises the question of whether he was trying to enlist the support of German extremist elements in carrying out co-operation between the Turks and the bolsheviks.

Pickpocket Steals Watch From Detective, Is Report
A clever thief gracefully and without apparent difficulty went through the pockets of Detective L. O. Toland Wednesday night while he was on duty at the Hotel Fontenelle and relieved him of his watch, according to reports which are circulating in confidence among the detectives at central police station.

Chief of Detectives Dunn has been informed of the facts of the case, but has not issued any statement.

Detective Toland when questioned concerning the theft denies that the report is true, stating that he merely lost his watch some time during the evening. He is stationed at the Fontenelle as house detective.

"I have five hundred crowns—the thrifty hire I saved under your father."—Shakespeare.

THRIFT

There is a world of meaning in that little word of six letters. The practice of thrift means the solution to the problem of the high cost of living; means the abandonment of extravagant habits and practices, and the saving of a part of one's income; means the assurance of prosperity to the individual, and thus in turn to the nation. If you practice thrift you are a true patriot. Get the habit of putting a little money in the bank every week, pay your current bills by check, and enjoy that comfortable feeling of having a bank account. This bank encourages thrift by accepting small accounts and extending every courtesy to the depositor.

CONSTANT BRONCHIAL COUGH FOR 16 YEARS

Then Mrs. Crawshaw stopped her cough so quickly it alarmed her.

"I suffered with bronchial trouble and asthma for 16 years. In January, 1914, I had an unusually severe spell, resulting in pneumonia and was confined to bed for 4 months. Then I began to mend, but my cough never left. The following October, I tried Milk Emulsion. After a few days my cough gave way, and ceased entirely after another bottle—so sudden that I became alarmed. Getting over my fear, I took 6 bottles more. For 3 months previous I had coughed night and day, but my cough ceased entirely. For 16 years I used all kinds of medicines until I became skeptical. But the results from Milk Emulsion were nothing short of marvelous."—Mrs. J. B. Crawshaw, 1428 Grand Ave., Des Moines, Ia.

For bronchial or other severe coughs, or hard colds, Milk Emulsion is really remarkable. The system is built up and strengthened to throw off the trouble. Milk Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physals. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milk Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whom sickness has weakened, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milk Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.50 per bottle. The Milk Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere.
