HANDS YANKTON DRUBBING, 54-13

Haley Shoots Eight Baskets In Half the Game: Mullholland and Vandiver Also Star.

Scoring at will and playing their opponents of their feet throughout the entire contest, Creighton university cage shooters, for the second time in as many nights, easily defeated Yankton college at the Creighton gym floor last night by the score of 50 to 13.

Coach Tommy Mills' warriors showed plenty of fight throughout and played a remarkable guarding game, breaking up many of the "trick" plays of the visitors.

Shortly after the blow of Ref ton started the scoring when Eddie Haley, the star right-forward, shot a perfect field goal on a dead run. Haley, who has been one of Coach Mills' crack performers, was by far the star of the evening, shooting eight field goals, four of which were impossible shots. He was always in the game and had his eye for the goal when shooting. The clever floor work of Eddie Mulholland and the guarding of Captain Howard Vandiver were tures for the Blue and White play. During the first half Yankton was helpless against Mills' first squad, only being able to register 6 points, while Creighton piled up a total of 4l, through the brilliant shooting of Eddie Haley, Wise, Kearney and Vandiver.

Coach Mills sent in his entire sec ond team at the start of the second The second team registered 15 tallies more.

Creighton committed by seven fonls, four of the personal order. while 11 were committed by the Platz Out of Game.

Roy "Dutch" Platz, former Creighton university basket ball and foot ball star, has decided not to enter the cage game this season.

Last year, while in the army, he broke his arm and although he is able to use it, he has decided to keep out of the game to put it in condition for next season. "Dutch has had a number of offers with many of the teams in the city to play this year, but has refused all. He is also well-known in local amateur base ball circles.

EXPERT COACHES FOR TRACK TEAM AT NEBRASKA U

Schulte Developed Bob Simpson; Fred Leuhring Also Mentor.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 17.—(Special.)—Track hopes are flying high at Nebraska University with a string of last year's athletes and a half-dozen old stars back in the races working out on the athletic field every afternoon. Besides the strengthening of the 1919 team with the addition of several of last year's yearlings and a handful of old stars, the Huskers will have two coaches this spring noted the country over as track experts, to train the squad. Coach Schulte was the man who developed "Bob" Simpson and other stars at Missouri University. Coach Fred Leuhring of Princeton, who has been secured by Nebraska of-ficials to act as athletic director at the state university, will be here to take up his duties within two or three months. He is also noted as a track specialist. Among the old stars on the squad are "Mike" Finney, crack hurdler of the 1918 team, and Graff, miler and two-miler, who took honors in the distance events in the Missouri valley two years ago. "Squirt" Owens, all-round star of the 1917 Husker track team, and captainelect of the 1918 squad, who has been in the service, is expected to return to school next semester. Warner, another star of two years ago, who has good records in the sprints and the jumps, is expected to return to the university next

Of last year's squad the four members of the mile relay team, which took second place at the national relays at Penn State las spring, are on the squad. Have Acquired Social Status Down in Mexico

San Antonio, Tex., Jan. 17.- Jack Johnson has acquired a certain so-cial status in Mexico, C. L. Gardner of Hot Springs, Ark., told the senate subcommittee investigating the Mexican situation. Johnson did it with the assistance of a group of armed Carranza army officers, the witness explained. Johnson, the witness said, in July, 1919, entered an American-owned drug store and demanded service in the cafe division. The American waitress informed Johnson it was against the orders of the place to serve negroes.

Johnson left with the threat "to make trouble." He returned, accom-panied by white Mexican women and army officers. The officers compelled the attendant to fill Johnson's One of the owners of the store feel proud of his campaign, for durfive new trotters in the 2:10 list, Murphy placing as large a number of trotters on the "honor foll." Murphy's count was five, so Owen is ahead of all others aside from "The Wizard." Owen too comes in for additional honors, for he not only gave Luana 2:0734 a heat record on a mile track, but likewise a win race of 2:0934 over a half-mile track. It is a remarkable record for any driver to make in these days when so many post-graduate horses go into the hands of the big stables. Tommy Murphy's star stake trotter of 1919, and winner of $13,265, Mariondale 2:051/2, was, by the way, Roy's former pupil, he having raced the gelding to a record of 2:101/4
