

South Side BOXCAR LOOT IS FOUND BY BOYS ON SOUTH SIDE

Police of the Opinion That Boxcar Was Robbed In Yards Friday Night.

Loot consisting of smoking tobacco and women's shoes valued at about $500 was found by four boys Saturday afternoon near the Burlington railroad tracks, Eleventh and U streets.

James and Raymond Povondia, 6428 South Nineteenth street, and George and James Pelnar, 5609 South Nineteenth street, all ranging in ages of between 10 and 12 years, were passing over a hill near the Burlington tracks, when they saw a pile of merchandise hidden in the weeds.

Included in the articles found was a case of women's shoes shipped from Coldwater, Mich., to a firm in Sheridan, Wyo., and several cases of pipe and cigar smoking tobacco in jars and cans.

It is the opinion of the police that a box car of merchandise was broken into Friday night. No report of a box car robbery has been made and Burlington officials say it will be necessary to take an invoice of freight shipped to ascertain the amount of goods stolen, which they say may reach several thousand dollars in value.

South Side High Gives Comedy In Four Acts

Comedy and a goodly measure of romance were cleverly blended in "Esmeralda," a four-act comedy, presented Friday night at the South Side High school auditorium before a large and appreciative audience by pupils of the school, under direction of Mr. C. E. ... Miss Elsie Kirk played the title role. Loren Oakes was effective as Mr. Rogers; Gladys Matson and Lucille Bliss gave good portrayals of the Desmond sisters; Jake Newman did some good comedy work as "the Marquis de Montezary"; Fay Cobb played a married woman, and Mayme Pecha a maid. Other characters were efficiently delineated by members of the school.

Vocal Music Teacher Forced to Seek Job of Employment Bureau

A woman who has conducted a vocal music studio in Omaha and who has studied five languages applied yesterday to the free employment bureau in the city hall for office work.

Effie Greenman, in charge of the woman's department of this bureau, withholds the name of the applicant because of the latter's acquaintance here. "It impressed me more than any case I have had since I have been in this work," Mrs. Greenman said. "The woman is 38 years old and she stated that she gave up a promising career a few years ago to come to Omaha to care for her mother and father, both of whom are deaf. "She told me that she studied in Paris and was competent to teach five languages. For some reason she was unable to make a success of her teaching work here, because she said the field was not large enough and she would not leave Omaha on account of the condition of her parents. "During the period of the war she worked in a local railroad office and lost her position when the men returned from military service. She has made one of the greatest sacrifices I ever had personal knowledge of. "Mrs. Greenman believes that this account of the case will result in obtaining congenial and remunerative employment for this woman.

Arliiss Talks About Horses and Chicks To Humane Society

George Arliiss, actor, who spoke before the Humane society at the Hotel Fontenelle Friday, deplored the methods of transporting poultry through the Omaha stock yards, which he has noticed the pitiable condition of express horses in this section of the country. Mr. Arliiss spoke with a decidedly English accent and wore the professional monocle. He commended the Omaha Humane society for the work it is doing here, crediting better conditions in Omaha to the efforts of the members of the society. Upon being informed that the president of the Omaha society, J. E. Davidson, is the vice president of the methods of transporting poultry through the Omaha stock yards, he said: "Light and power is what we need—light to shed on conditions and power to bring about a remedy." Mr. Arliiss appeared at the Brantley theater in the play, "Jacques Duval."

ALLEGED THIEF BLAMES COMRADE FOR CAR THEFTS

Held as Witness Against Ex-Convict Escaped From Missouri Pen.

Allen Shanklin, 2210 North Twenty-seventh street, alleged accomplice of Fred Brown, ex-convict, who was arrested two days ago in connection with the theft of a taxicab belonging to Hynie Borsky, 2210 W. J street, is being held at Central police station as complainant witness against his former comrade.

Detectives Art Cooper and A. W. Toland recovered Borsky's car Friday in a garage in the rear of 3450 North Forty-first street, where Brown had been living a few days before his arrest.

Alleged Many Thefts. Shanklin is to appear against his former pal for alleged box car thefts and the stealing of an automobile, police say.

Detectives have been looking for Brown since last July, when Shanklin was arrested in connection with the thefts. Following his arrest, Shanklin blamed Brown for the crimes, police say.

Brown put up a stiff fight when arrested by Detectives Cooper and Toland, and drew a gun on the officers as he was being led to the patrol.

He was also identified as the assailant of Detective Robert Samardick the night of October 25, 1919, when the detective was shot in the left arm during an exchange of shots with a suspected automobile thief.

Caught by Telephone. Brown's arrest followed several telephone calls to an automobile insurance adjuster from different parts of the city in which the caller stated he would "return Borsky's car for $200." The insurance adjuster notified detectives and the calls were traced.

Police say Brown will be returned to the penitentiary at Jefferson City, Mo., from where he escaped, it was learned, two years ago.

Harness has been invented to prevent conductors of the open type street cars being knocked from the running boards.
