

GOVERNOR MAIN SPEAKER AT "Y" SCHOOL DINNER

'Americanism' Explained to Night Students by Chief Executive of Nebraska.

'Americanization' was discussed by Governor McKelvie last night in the principal address at the 22nd annual banquet of the members of the Young Men's Christian association night school in the Y. M. C. A. building. Over 200 members and guests were present.

The governor expressed pleasure at seeing so many ex-service men in the gathering, and said, "I hope you men who shouldered the burdens of war, will shoulder those of peace with the same spirit which you showed when you were in the United States army."

Governor McKelvie spoke briefly on the problems which confront the people of the country today, the greatest among them being the high cost of living. He explained that the only way in which a remedy could be found, was through the people themselves, and said that while the government and states could make laws, it was up to the people themselves to enforce them.

"There is too much wasteful buying and lack of thrift among the people of the United States," he said. Harry O. Palmer served as toastmaster.

Excellent for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, all pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bite, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). 30c and 60c jars; hospital size $2.50.

master. Harmony Four gave several vocal selections. Charles L. Sykes told of the opportunity which will come to the boys who are attending night school and who, although they are probably sacrificing many things by attending school, will in the end find the reward far greater than the sacrifice which they are making.

Denver, Colo., Jan. 21.—(Special Telegram)—Frances Valenti, 14-year-old Omaha girl, and her cousin, Serbestine Anzalone, were married here Wednesday. They previously had been denied a license to marry in Nebraska under the state laws.

A special dispensation from the Omaha diocese of the Catholic church giving approval of the church to their union had been obtained before the couple left Omaha. Rev. Julius Piccoli of Mt. Carmel Italian Catholic church performed the ceremony.

FLASHES from FILMLAND PHOTO-PLAY OFFERINGS FOR TODAY

ONE of the really strong dramatic plays of the wartime period that has not yet been seen in Omaha, although it would have been played here last season had not the flu epidemic intervened, is "The Copperhead," with Lionel Barrymore in the leading role. This play has been reproduced for the moving picture theaters, and was yesterday given a private showing at the Strand, where it will be exhibited next week. It tells the story of a man who was called on by President Lincoln to do a duty that not only prevented his shouldering a musket, but separated him from his wife, his family, his friends, landed him in prison, and sent him to face life marked as a traitor, a murderer and a skulker. His son, slain in battle, cursed his father with his dying breath; his wife's last words to him were "You're unclean!" Finally a day comes when he can unseal his lips and tell his secret, and he does so only to secure the happiness of his granddaughter and the boy she loves. Mr. Barrymore plays the role with excellent judgment and repression, emphasizing the tension at the proper moment in a way not common among movie actors, and impresses the beholder always with the sense of the grim struggle the strong man has to make as one who one those he loves and those whose friendship he values turn away from him. The many parts in the drama are well played, and some vivid pictures of wartime back of the lines are furnished.

Muse—Tom Mix's new photoplay, "The Speed Maniac," is playing for the last time today at the Muse theater. It contains as many big thrills to the foot as Mix ever put into one of his inimitable pictures.

Moon—There will be only one more opportunity to see William Farnum, the William Fox star, in his latest production, "The Last of the Duanees," at the Moon theater, which will have its final showing today. Manager Ballentine announces that since the showing of the picture he has played to capacity houses and would have been glad had it been possible to prolong the engagement.

Sun—Two men reached the summit of the mighty Pinnacle, the most majestic and inaccessible peak of the Alps range near the Austro-Italian frontier. One was an eminent American surgeon, who had come to the Alps to find rest and to realize his ambition to climb the deadly heights, and the other was a returned Austrian army lieutenant to whom the pursuit of women was almost a profession. Here we have a situation as old as the mountains themselves—the husband and "the other man," supposedly. What Dr. Armstrong, the American surgeon, did when he discovered in the pocket of the weakling braggart a letter from his wife, is one of the intensely dramatic incidents in the unfolding of the story of "Blind Husband," the Universal Jewel production, which is being shown all this week at the Sun.

Empress—"The Right to Lie," starring Dolores Cassinelli, will be the photoplay attraction at the Empire for three days starting today. It is the story of a woman whose husband's life was at stake. He had slain the cur who had attempted to defile her, so she lied. Her mind was pure and her whole life blameless. Was her lie right or wrong? Is it ever right to lie?

Rialto—In these days of widely-heralded all-star motion picture casts that so often fail to materialize on the screen, it is a relief to find a picture like "Everywoman," showing at the Rialto theater this week, and presenting an array of film favorites that has seldom been duplicated in one picture before. Violet Herring, the charming stage and screen player, has the leading role in this sumptuously produced version of Walter Browne's famous morality play. Theodore Roberts is Wealth, Wanda Hawley is Beauty and Monte Blue is Love. Bebe Daniels was recruited from the ranks of comedy to play the role of Vice. Others in the company are Margaret Leonis, Mildred Reardon, Raymond Hatton, Noah Berry, Irving Cummings, Charles Ogle and Tully Marshall. The picture was directed by George H. Melford and is a Paramount-Arterart picture.

Strand—After playing a variety of roles ranging from a member of the Salvation army to actor, Fatty Arbuckle again comes forward, this time in the role of a freeman, in his latest comedy, "The Garage," which will be shown for the last times at the Strand theater today. In this picture, one of the funniest yet produced, Fatty and Buster are employed in a garage, which incidentally, is also the town look-up and fire house.

Butterfly—The Butterfly ballet as presented by "Butterflies of Broadway" at the Gayety this week is an eye delight not easily forgotten. The cultured soprano voice of Helen Tarr is another enjoyable adjunct to the entertainment. Ladies' matinee at 2:15 daily.

AT THE THEATERS

OTHERN AND MAROWE at Boyd's tonight, the play, "Twelfth Night" and the hour, 8 o'clock, is the big thing on the calendar. This rare and altogether remarkable combination of stars comes with a specially selected company, with some new ideas in stage settings and with the charm of their culture and experience for four performances, of which this evening's is to be the first. Playgoers are earnestly requested to notice that the curtain will rise at 8 o'clock sharp at night and at 2 o'clock sharp at the Saturday matinee during the engagement of E. H. Sothern and Julia Marlowe at Boyd's tonight. As the first scenes in "Twelfth Night," "Hamlet" and "The Taming of the Shrew" are important to the action of the dramas, playgoers are urged to be seated before the rise of the curtain.

DeWolf Hopper will open an engagement of three days at the Grandeur theater tonight in "The Better 'Ole," by Capt. Bruce Bairnsfather, the English comic cartoonist, and Capt. Arthur Eliot. The authors call their play, which is really a musical comedy, "A fragment from France in two explosions, seven splinters and a short gas attack." However, while "The Better 'Ole" treats of the recent war, it makes you forget its horrors in a barrage of laughter. Every explosion in "The Better 'Ole" rocks the theater with laughter; every splinter of the seven is a shaft of fun, and the gas attack is made with laughing gas. This wartime musical comedy is based on Captain Bairnsfather's famous book, "Fragments of France." In it appear the famous trio, "Old Bill," "Bert" and "Alf."

Three feminine stars share headline honors this week at the Orpheum. One is Mlle. Nitta-Jo, most popular of French character singers, who impersonates the girl Apache. Lillian Shaw is a vocal dialect comedienne whose dialect numbers rouse gales of merriment. Eva Shirley's "songs of the moment" range from ragtime to grand opera. She is assisted by a jazz band and by Al Roth, the jazz dancer.

Fanchon and Marco are announced for appearance at the Brandeis for next week, starting Sunday, in a new edition of their revue, "Let's Go." Fanchon and Marco are supported by a notable array of players.

Budd (himself) of Ham and Budd motion pictures, assisted by the Buddie Girls, a bevy of attractive and talented young ladies comes to the Empress theater in a light musical comedy made up of singing, dancing and much comedy. A black-face singing and talking specialty is to be offered by Browning and Davis. Halley and Howard, two graduates from musical comedy, will present their singing oddity, "Fare Thee Well." A musical offering is that by Pierce and Goff, young women who play the drum, xylophone, piano and cornet.

The Butterfly ballet as presented by "Butterflies of Broadway" at the Gayety this week is an eye delight not easily forgotten. The cultured soprano voice of Helen Tarr is another enjoyable adjunct to the entertainment. Ladies' matinee at 2:15 daily.

Buy Bond Certificates of THE REPUBLIC OF IRELAND

This week throughout the United States an enthusiastic campaign is being carried on for the sale of bond certificates of the Republic of Ireland.

News already given out in the large centers shows that the loan will be largely over-subscribed. Lovers of liberty and believers in the American doctrine of self-determination and government by the consent of the governed are showing their substantial sympathy for the government erected by the votes of over four-fifths of the Irish people and now operated by them. NO OTHER PEOPLE IN THE WORLD ARE SO THOROUGHLY IN ACCORD IN SUPPORT OF THEIR GOVERNMENT AS ARE THE PEOPLE OF IRELAND IN SUPPORT OF THEIR IRISH REPUBLIC.

Let us extend the same encouragement and financial aid to this new Republic, erected upon the ideals for which America stands, that our own Republic sought and obtained in the difficult and trying days following our Declaration of Independence. There has been duly authorized by an Act of Dail Eireann (Irish Congress) an issue of $10,000,000 Bond Certificates of Republic of Ireland for disposition in America.

The Bond Certificates will be issued in denominations of $10, $25, $50, $100, $250, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000. They will be non-negotiable and non-interest bearing, but will be exchanged at par for Gold Bonds of the Irish Republic one month after the Republic has received international recognition and the British forces have been withdrawn from the territory of the said Republic of Ireland.

The Bond Certificates will be issued on application and payable as follows: Certificates for $10 cash; Certificates of $25 and over on terms of cash or, if desired, 25 per cent on application, 25 per cent in thirty days, 25 per cent in sixty days, and the balance of 25 per cent in ninety days.

WHAT IS THE MONEY TO BE USED FOR? The establishment of consular service to promote Irish trade and commerce. The fostering of Irish industries, developing her resources, stimulating her weaving and woolen factories. The establishment of Loan Mortgage Banks to finance resettling her untenanted lands.

The encouragement of reforestation. The establishment of her own courts and a national civil service. The quota set by the National Committee for Nebraska is only $100,000.00. Let us double it and again put Nebraska and her liberty-loving people over the top.

The money will be kept in Philadelphia banks subject to draft to pay for the promotion of the above and similar projects as the obligations are incurred and payments authorized by the government of the Irish Republic. IF THERE IS NO LOCAL COMMITTEE FORMED IN YOUR VICINITY OR YOU ARE NOT CALLED UPON PERSONALLY, SEND YOUR SUBSCRIPTION DIRECT TO P. C. HEAFEY, NEBRASKA STATE CHAIRMAN. If you are in sympathy with this movement and desire to aid in advancing it, write to Mr. Heafey, or call at headquarters and full information will be furnished you.
