Personality vs. Beauty

One Night Petite Mile. Nitta-Jo Captivated an Audience In Plain Street Clothes.

By GABBY.

Many a maid has struggled halfheartedly through life with pretty clothes. Others have wedged through on their beauty.

But Mile, Nitta-Jo, who sings her unique French and English song in vaudeville this week, proves beyond a doubt that neither beauty nor clothes are necessary. She runs riot through her 20 minutes on the Orpheum stage, without beauty, and little to her credit but personalitythat subtile charm which even Web-ster finds difficult to define.

When Mademoiselle arrived in Omaha Sunday, 12 hours late from the east, she had neither bag nor baggage, these articles having been delayed somewhere between York and Omaha. Did this fact prevent her appearance that eve-

Hastily borrowing a dress from one sister-actress, and a pair of pumps from another, she went before the footlights. There she portrayed the Apache girl of the Mont-martre of Paris. What Does She Mean? Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: would like to ask your advice on a subject which has caused me consubject which has caused me con-siderably worry. I am a young girl of 18 and live in a small town about two miles from an army post. Now do you think it is all right to go with the soldiers instead of civil-lans even though it is peace time? There are no civilians in this town who are of the right age for me to go with who are the kind of men I. would care to go with. I attend the picture shows, so have a number of soldier friends. Now don't you think it is all right to have "dates" with these young men? I have been keeping company with different young army men, but some people think it is dreadful to go with soldiers. *I do not go with soldiers who do not act decently around me, though I very seldom find one who does not keep his place when with Some of these soldiers want to go

How Many Women Are Like This?

Can anything be more wearing for women than the ceaseless round of household duties? Oh! the monotony of it allwork and drudge; no time to be sick; tired, ailing, yet cannot stop. There comes a time when something "snape" and they find themselves "simply worn out," and to make matters worse, have contracted serious feminine disorder which almost always follows the constant overtaxing of a woman's strength. Then they should remember that there is no remedy like Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound-the experience of these two women establishes that fact:

Cedar Rapids, Ia.—"After the birth of my last child I had such painful spells that would unfit me entirely for my housework. I suf-fered for months and the doctor said fered for months and the doctor said that my trouble was organic ulcers and I would have to have an operation. That was an awful thing to me, with a young baby and four other children, so one day I thought of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and how it had helped me years before and I decided to try it again. I took five bottlee of Vegetable Compound and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and since then I have been a well woman, able then I have been a well woman, able to take care of my house and family without any trouble or a day's pain. your medicine any time. I am forty-four years old and bave not had a day's illness of any kind for three years."

—Mrs. H. Korrio, 617 Ellis Bivd,

Sandusky, Qhio.—"After the hirth of my baby I had organic trouble. My dector said it was caused by too heavy lifting and I would have to have an operation. I would not consent to an operation and let it go for over a year, having my sister do my work for me as I was not able to walk. One day my aunt came to see me and told me about your medicine—said it cured her of the same thing. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and they have cured me. Now I do my own housework, washing and ironing and sewing for my family and also do sewing for my family and also do sewing for coher people. I still take a bottle of Vegetable Compound every spring for a tonic. I recommend your medicine to others who have troubles similar to mike and you can use my letter if you wish."—Mrs. Paul.
