

"PAY YOUR BILLS" TODAY'S SLOGAN IN THRIFT DRIVE

"Good Pay" Customers Should Help Make Other Fellows Pay, Says Campaign Committee.

Today is the last of the Thrift campaign but not the last of Thrift in Omaha. "Pay Your Bills" is the slogan today for the entire country. While the day is named "Pay Your Bills," those behind the national campaign now wish they had named it "Get used to paying your bills." The Thrift committee is not so much interested in seeing an individual bill paid as in seeing that the practice of paying bills regularly is formed.

Somebody Has To Pay. "Somebody has to pay the bill," the Thrift committee says. "It is always the customer. The 'good pay' customers have to make up for those who do not pay their accounts. The 'good pay' customers should see to it that the other fellows pay their own bills."

Today all the bills owing to the merchants of Omaha are being scrutinized. Some of these accounts were made only last month and may have been overlooked by accident. Others may have been on the books for years. Regardless of their age, the accounts are being looked into very closely today by the credit men of the city.

Taking advantage of the "Pay Your Bills" day, the Associated Retailers of Omaha have issued a broad invitation to every man and woman in the city to call at the office they maintain in the Brandeis building and inspect the elaborate system by which they keep check on accounts.

The lesson sought to be taught by the Thrift campaign committee is not to hoard money but to spend it wisely. The lesson sought to be taught on "Pay Your Bills" day is important to all men and women for the reason that unless prompt and regular payment of bills becomes the custom of men and women everywhere, those who fail to adopt this custom will find it absolutely impossible to obtain credit, and credit is the most valuable possession of any man, rich or poor; the possession of good credit is the road leading to the possession of things worth while.

"Pay Your Bills" day should be on a certain date of each month, the day of the month decided upon in advance, and then have an understanding with all creditors that on that day bills will be paid.

A good credit rating is an asset and credit ratings are won according to the way in which obligations are met, the Thrift committee would teach. Failure to pay bills ties up large sums of money.

Banks Give "Budget Books." Yesterday "Family Budget" day of National Thrift week, and all banks, trust companies and building and loan associations in Omaha gave away "budget books" to all who asked for them. Ten thousand of these books were purchased by these financial institutions for use of Omaha people.

The budget books contain space for the expenses for an entire year. They can be used by single or married people. Comprehensive instructions upon how to make and keep a budget are contained in the book. "The budget plan enables you to keep track of every dollar, so that you can quickly refer to the record to find how you have disposed of your income, and if you have received 100 cents in value for every dollar spent," teaches the budget book.

"It helps you to invest wisely in those unselfish causes, such as the church, which are doing a worthwhile service in the world for the welfare of others. It helps you to save more and leads to happiness and prosperity."

"Intelligent spending will put you on the road to financial independence so that you can get the greatest enjoyment out of life and look forward to an old age without money worries."

"It is as easy to finance a person or a home efficiently as it is important. Keeping a budget is undoubtedly the best plan since no special knowledge or accounting of other technical information is required and only a little time is needed to operate it."

FOES OF PEACE PACT PRESENT NEW ULTIMATUM

Committee of Senators Announces Decision to Fight Compromise on Lodge Reservations.

(Continued From Page One.) among its bitterest foes, one of these present declared tonight that they count on support of 38 votes, or enough to prevent ratification if their protest against modifying the Lodge reservations is not heeded.

Except for brief statements from Senators Lodge and Johnson and a lengthy statement from Senator Sherman, few of the senators participating in the conference would talk for publication. Mr. Lodge said the senators who called him to the meeting represented a large group of senators who want no change in the Lodge reservations. Senator Johnson declared that the Lodge reservations were said by Mr. Lodge to be "the irreducible minimum."

Others in the meeting stated privately that the question of a treaty compromise on republican "solidarity and leadership in the senate and in the country" was discussed.

Bolt Is Threatened. "Were there any threats to bolt the republican leadership or the party?" was asked of one of the republican conferees.

"I would rather not answer that question," came a hesitant reply. "Party solidarity is threatened; that is all I care to say."

Senator Johnson was asked regarding reports widely circulated in senate lobby gossip that declarations had been made of a third party movement and a "bolt" from republican leadership if the Lodge reservation is modified, and the California senator replied: "Poppycock; I haven't such a thought."

Senator Lodge said the meeting was to give information to senators present regarding the compromise negotiations with the democratic committee.

"They represent a large body of senators who want no change in the Lodge reservations," said Mr. Lodge.

SINGING FEATURE OF COMMUNITY CENTER PROGRAMS

Lincoln Symphony Quartet Makes First Appearance; J. W. Gamble Talks.

Community singing, short talks by public men, vocal and instrumental music and other entertainment features were appreciated last night at four community centers. The appearance of the new Lincoln Symphony orchestra in Lincoln school, Eleventh and Center streets, was applauded. These young players are Miss Mildred Bliss, Miss Julia Schegg, Earl Burnham and Howard Woerner. Penn P. Fodrea, vice president of the Omaha Manufacturers' association, spoke on "Americanization." Ed Thompson offered one of his popular trombone numbers. Others on this program were Jack Clifford, Harry K. Bell,

Miss Ottillie Kinder, Mrs. Charles Wright and Miss Vivienne Kasper. R. A. Kirkpatrick spoke on "Food for Thought," at the Edward Rose-water school, Thirteenth and Douglas streets. Others who assisted on the program were Edith Poucaup, R. Swenson, Mildred Sennett, Gladys Venable, Mable Norris, J. Becker, Mrs. Marie Strasser and Elsie Kirk.

R. A. Leussler, general manager of the street railway company, addressed the Monmouth Park community center, Thirty-third and Ames avenue, on "Street Car Service." A musical and dancing program was given by Mrs. George Turner, Eloise Segi, Beulah King, Ruth Hoffman, George and Ruth Johnson, Hazel Huston, Iris and Audrey Kilgore, Lillian Gill and Geraldine Palmatier. Maurice Jacobs spoke on the making of a newspaper.

John W. Gamble, vice president of First National bank, spoke on "Thrift," at the Central Park center, Forty-second street and Grand avenue. An interesting program was offered by the Hallquist Male Quartet, Miss Ann Sollinger, Catherine Benson, Pauline and Mildred Simpson, Florence Lewis, Jennie Liebowitz and Sarah Fisher.

Two Omaha boys answer "Want" for Boy on Ranch. Two boys applied at the Chamber of Commerce employment bureau yesterday for "position" on the ranch of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Woltz of Kennebeck, S. D. Mr. Woltz requested the employment bureau to find him a boy who would like to live on a ranch "with plenty of horses to ride."

The first to apply was Landis McGahey, 16 years old, 3535 B street. Landis said he had no parents and would like to live on a real ranch. The second to apply was Frank Novak, 15 years old, 4401 I street. He has a sister and a mother here, but once he spent a summer on a farm and is convinced he is just the boy for Mr. and Mrs. Woltz, he says. Both applicants are graduates of the grade schools.

Mrs. Woltz is coming to Omaha in a few days to take one of the fortunate youths home with her.

Stolen Goods Unearthed In Empty Store Identified. Every article of the cache of hardware, silverware and automobile tires that was unearthed by detectives three days ago in an empty store building at Fortieth and Bedford avenue, was identified at Central police station yesterday as part of the loot stolen from the hardware store of J. H. Pollard, Clarks, Neb., on the night of September 26.

Fred Brown, ex-convict who is awaiting trial in district court of Douglas county for alleged thefts of two automobiles, had rented the store building in which this loot was found. Brown denies any knowledge of the loot.

Dancing at Auditorium. Dancing will be enjoyed at the Auditorium tonight under the auspices of the Conner Amusement company. Free dancing lessons will be given from 7:30 to 8:30. The dancing will continue from 8:30 to 11, both tonight and Sunday. Carl Lemp's orchestra will furnish the music.

PLAYS FOR SUPPORT FOR THE SAFETY FIRST MOVEMENT IN OMAHA

Interest in the Safety First movement must not be allowed to flag, R. C. Richards of Chicago, president of the National Safety council, told members of the Omaha local council at the Chamber of Commerce last evening.

Richards came to Omaha to stimulate the activities of the local council. More than 50 large Omaha concerns are members of the organization, which includes about 25,000 persons. A campaign will be launched to increase the membership.

Prevention of industrial and public accidents will be the feature of periodical drives to be staged here. A school for foremen may also be inaugurated at which foremen of large local industrial concerns will hear lectures upon accident prevention.

In an effort to decrease public accidents the council will attempt to launch campaigns in the schools. "The Only Way," a moving picture film on these subjects, made by the Ford Motor company, was shown at last night's meeting.

Netherlands Refuses To Turn Over Ex-Kaiser

(Continued From Page One.) refuge for the vanquished in international conflicts, permit the government of Holland to defer to the desire of the powers by withdrawing from the former emperor the benefit of its laws and this tradition.

Justice and national honor, of which respect is a sacred duty, oppose this. The Netherlands people moved by the sentiments to which in history the world has done justice could not betray the faith of those who have confided themselves to their free institutions.

"The government of the queen is pleased to believe that the powers will recognize the good grounds of these considerations, which rise above any consideration of personalities and which seem to it so preperatory that they could not reasonably give rise to wrong interpretations."
