Heart Beats

I have always Been an echo In this frantic Mixed up scheme-Always striving-Struggling And missing

Things in reach. I have climbed The social ladderfinger tips-Trembled weak And dreadfully frightened-Lest some climber Push me off. Once I reached An upper hand-hold-And sailed back

No regrets from friends-

Just giggles-Save catacoustics Ringing in my ears. Then I tried My hand artistie-When to art I lent my efforts-But effects Were too prosaic For the "new" Artistic eyes. How I longed To be an actress! And was foolish When I tried. To be a raving beauty Was my next

To my sphere-

Freak escapade. But my failures Were persistent As I copied Other's virtues-Other's whims-And queer beliefs-Till one clear voice Sounded queerly In my all too sensitive ears-I listened To its whisper: "Just be yourself-

Don't ape and echo-

And you'll be

milk prices, silence complainants by telling them that if prices are lowered, dairymen will sell their cows and go out of business, thereby boosting still further the price of the remaining supply, or leaving us no milk at all. The Consumer's league of California has solved the problem in this way, according to a report from Sacra-

"By the construction of a modern dairy here, which will sell its products at 'fair and legitimate prices,' the Consumers league of California has struck the first decisive blow at exorbitant milk prices, said to have been established by the so-called 'milk trust' of the Northern Califor-nia Dairymen's association. Milk will be sold at 12 cents per quart and 6 cents per pint by the new milk company, which is indorsed and financed by the Consumers league. Milk is being sold by other companies at prices ranging from 13 to 16 cents per quart. The new plant has a capacity of 1,000 gallons daily, and will be enlarged as the trade increases. The management of the plant announces that by utilizing all by-products, and reducing waste to a minimum, it will soon be able to reduce the price to 11 or 10 cents a quart, and still make a reasonable profit."

Would Standardize Dress.

New York, Jan. 23.-Women were urged to lower the cost of clothes by abandoning the world-old tradi-tion that they must dress to "cap-ture the fleeting fancies of the male" or to excel others of their sex, in an address today by Helen Louise Johnson, editor of the General Federation magazine, before the Colum-bia University Institute of Arts and Sciences. Lower prices could be brought about, she added, in her talk on "The Ethics of Dress" by the adoption of a standardized costume. "Man," Miss Johnson said, "can dress properly and becomingly on a limited number of suits. His reasoning seems to be that beauty unadorned is adorned the most. clothes are far from beautiful." His

Women would become less con spicuous and more impressive by wearing standard dress, she declared, for "the active, healthy woman creates a spiritual impression by simplifying her dress, and thus enhances her facial beauty, while her less advanced sister clings to the older dress forms."

Jealousy. Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: I am a girl of 17 and I have one failing, which is jealousy. Please, Miss Fairfax, can you tell me how to overcome this terrible thing, as it causes trouble and spoils many good

I also have another question to ask you concerning Christmas pres-ents. Should a girl accept a ring from a boy whom she thinks a lot of, this ring already being bought and very expensive? Please answer as soon as possible. Your friend BLACKIE.

Jealousy loses a girl more friends than any other one thing. In the first place, who is worth being jealous over? Personal freedom is necessary to happiness. Your boy friends will think a great deal more of you if you conceal this very ugly trait. You should not accept a ring unless it is an engagement ring.

To School!

Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: I am a girl of 16 and would like to no if it was wrong to go with a nibor boy he is an awful nice boy; he is about 17. This is the first time I have written. Hoping to see my letter in print.

Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee:
You have helped so many people I help me.

I am a professional woman, and

I want a lady that is alone in the age and willing to do housework;

does not have to be so well and does not have to be so well and strong, as the work is not so heavy. A PROFESSIONAL WOMAN.

The above letter was published some days ago. Since then we have had a reply from more than one who wishes to write to the profes sional woman. Will the "profes sional woman" please send us her address?

Wedding Accessories. Dear Miss Fairfax: Will you please tell me if the bride's family furnishes the carriages for a wedding and also who pays the church expense? Does the groom send the bride her flowers?

BAD BRONCHIAL COUGH BACKACHE AND FOR 36 YEARS

Mrs. Bice finally stopped it, with-out changing climate.

"I had bronchitis for 36 years. When I was 2 years old, I had whooping cough and it left me in an awful state. I took hundreds of dollars worth of medicine, with but little relief. I had to sit up in bed all night and cough and choke until my eyes nearly burst out of their sockets. I could not afford to change climate.

choke until my eyes nearly burst out of their sockets. I could not afford to change climate.

"Finally my husband urged me to try Milks Emulsion, saying if it didn't help me. I could get my money back. I tried it and have continued its use until now my bronchial tubes are free and clear and I can breath with ease. When you think that I had this dreaded disease all my life, you can see why I want everybody to try Milks Emulsion."—Mrs. Anna Bice, 1451 Wendall St. Columbus, O. # HEAVY FEELING

Weak, Nervous, Restless Woman in Arkansas Hears of Cardui, Tries It and Is Greatly Benefited. Now Recommends It To Others.

Peach Orchard, Ark .- Mrs. Nonte High, who lives near here, states: "Sometime ago I began to have trouble with my back. I would ache and I could hardly get up when down. I was so weak I would just drag around and did not feel like doing anything at all. I was so nervous I felt I could scream, and . . . such a heavy feeling I could not rest at all. It cloked like I was going to get down in bed. . . .

I heard of Cardui and thought I would try it and see what it would do for my case. After taking a few bottles I grew stronger . . .

The bleated, heavy feeling left me. I wasn't so nervous, in fact, felt better all over. I took twelve bottles and certainly was greatly benefited and can recommend it to anyone as a tonic or builder. I often tell others how it helped and strengthened me."

Cardui is a mild vegetable tonic, with no bad after-effects. Its ingredients act in a helping, building way, on the womanly constitution.

Ask your druggist. He knows about Cardui. Some druggists have sold it for forty years.
