

Hourly Temperatures table with columns for time and temperature.

U.S. ATTAINS TO GERMAN GOAL

LOCK FOR COMPROMISE OK PACT POOR

Preponderance of Senate Opinion on Eve of Final Partisan Conference Is That Deadlock Has Been Reached.

CANNOT AGREE ON TWO POINTS OF ISSUE

Article Ten and Monroe Doctrine Prove Stumbling Blocks to Compromise That Otherwise Might Come.

"WE WANT TO GO BACK" SONG OF EX-SERVICE MEN.

Philadelphia, Jan. 28.—"We want to go back" is the new slogan of ex-service men here who want to return to France.

MUST PUBLISH NOTHING BY OR ABOUT HIM.

Berlin, Jan. 28.—Hanns Heinz Ewers, the noted playwright and poet, has sent a circular letter to all the principal German newspapers and publishing houses requesting that they abstain from publishing anything by or about him.

HEAVY STEEL DOORS BECOMING POPULAR.

St. Louis, Jan. 28.—Heavy steel doors are in great demand here lately by those who have "some in the cellar."

"WAVES" FROM MARS THEORY INTEREST U. S. RADIO MEN.

Washington, Jan. 28.—Interest manifestly outweighed skepticism among radio experts at the Navy department in discussing Signor Marconi's suggestion that Mars may be attempting to communicate with the earth by radio.

"THERE IS NO FLU," PHYSICIAN ASSERTS.

Ottawa, Jan. 28.—Chicago and New York have no influenza at all, according to Dr. W. H. Church, one of Ottawa's foremost physicians.

American Aviators Land in Mexico and Are Made Prisoners.

McAllen, Tex., Jan. 28.—Two army aviators, Lieutenants E. F. Davis and G. E. Grimes, carrying a military message from Fort Brown, Tex., to Nogales, Ariz., today were forced to make a landing in Mexico.

HINT SUFFICIENT FOR TIGER OF FRANCE.

Paris, Jan. 28.—Former Premier Clemenceau has reserved a stateroom on the steamer Lotus, leaving Marseilles February 3 for Alexandria, Egypt.

Daniels Says He Knows Name of Next President.

Philadelphia, Jan. 28.—Secretary of the Navy Daniels started considerable speculation here as to whom he meant when he said in a speech that he could tell who would be the next president of the United States.

97 NEW CASES OF FLU IN ONE DAY, IS RECORD HERE

Low Mortality Rate, However, Shows Disease Is Not Severe This Year.

Influenza records for one day this season were broken Tuesday, when 97 new cases were reported to the health department.

DELEGATE'S ATTACK ON RED EDUCATORS

Parlor Bolsheviks in American Colleges Worse Than Uneducated, Spillman Tells Constitutional Convention.

POSTPONE PLAN TO BAR ILLITERATE VOTER

Cedar County Man Urges Passage of Proposal on Grounds of Success of Law in Massachusetts.

Will Be Working Body.

"This committee will itself be a working body," he added, "and will suggest the line of thought and investigation for a great many others."

Police Search in Two Cities for Boy Bandit

Omaha and Council Bluffs Officers Unite in Efforts to Capture Youth Who Robbed The Prudential Office.

Liquor Returned by Court Stolen by Highjackers

Daylight Visit of Bandits to Charles A. Lewis Home Nets Two Cases.

Tilden Man Has Leprosy, Omaha Physicians Say

Charles Young Is First Victim of Deadly Malady in Nebraska, According To Authorities.

Street Railway Co. Pays Occupation Tax and Disposes of Suit

The payment of $115,023.39 occupation tax for 1919 by the Omaha and Council Bluffs Street Railway company yesterday disposed of litigation which has been pending between the city and the traction company for nearly a year.

President Renews Appeal to Congress for Aid for Europe

Washington, Jan. 28.—Through Secretary Glass, President Wilson has renewed the appeal to congress to grant credits of $150,000,000 for Poland, Austria and Armenia to alleviate conditions which threaten "moral and material chaos" in those countries.

Ringer Compliments Omaha Patrolmen on Their Work During Year

Police Commissioner Ringer, in a short talk to patrolmen at Central station last night, complimented the men on their work in the past year and read several letters he had received from citizens expressing their appreciation for the courtesy shown by the officers and their quick response to calls.

Exchange Rates Drop To New Low Records

New York, Jan. 28.—Rates of exchange on London and all the principal European centers continued to dwindle to new low records today through sheer weight of offerings from domestic and foreign sources.

Edwards Disturbs Harmony of Democrats, Bryan Says

Bristol, Va., Jan. 28.—William J. Bryan declared in an address here that although he did not want the liquor question brought into the presidential race, the people should demand that the republicans announce its stand on prohibition.

25,000 Hear Pershing Urge Universal Army Training for Youths

San Diego, Jan. 28.—Gen. John J. Pershing, here on a tour of inspection of army posts and camps, addressed a crowd estimated at 25,000.

No Change in Uniform.

Washington, Jan. 28.—Secretary Baker ruled today that no changes would be made in the present army uniforms, mainly because of the high cost of material.

Chairman Hays Announces Membership and Purpose of Committee on Policies and Platform for Republican Convention

171 Members Are Named, of Whom 19 Are Women—Purpose Is "To Invite Advice and Co-Operation of the Ablest Men and Women From All Groups, Sections, Industry, Business, Professions and Interests in the Nation; to Gather Pertinent Facts and Data, to Study Intensively the Larger Problems Confronting Us and to Offer the Result of Their Efforts as Suggestions to the Resolutions Committee"

San Francisco, Jan. 28.—Will H. Hays, chairman of the republican national committee, tonight made public his appointments to the advisory committee on policies and platform, consisting of 171 members, 19 of whom are women.

"The purpose of this committee," Mr. Hays said, "is to invite the advice and co-operation of the ablest men and women from all groups, sections, industry, business, professions and interests in the nation; to gather pertinent facts and data, to study intensively the larger problems confronting us, and to offer the result of their efforts as suggestions to the resolutions committee."

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Members of the constitutional convention made a broadside attack on parlor bolsheviks Wednesday when an attempt was made to put on general file Proposal No. 205, making it necessary for every voter to be able to read and understand the constitution.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Members of the constitutional convention made a broadside attack on parlor bolsheviks Wednesday when an attempt was made to put on general file Proposal No. 205, making it necessary for every voter to be able to read and understand the constitution.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Members of the constitutional convention made a broadside attack on parlor bolsheviks Wednesday when an attempt was made to put on general file Proposal No. 205, making it necessary for every voter to be able to read and understand the constitution.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Members of the constitutional convention made a broadside attack on parlor bolsheviks Wednesday when an attempt was made to put on general file Proposal No. 205, making it necessary for every voter to be able to read and understand the constitution.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Members of the constitutional convention made a broadside attack on parlor bolsheviks Wednesday when an attempt was made to put on general file Proposal No. 205, making it necessary for every voter to be able to read and understand the constitution.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Members of the constitutional convention made a broadside attack on parlor bolsheviks Wednesday when an attempt was made to put on general file Proposal No. 205, making it necessary for every voter to be able to read and understand the constitution.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Members of the constitutional convention made a broadside attack on parlor bolsheviks Wednesday when an attempt was made to put on general file Proposal No. 205, making it necessary for every voter to be able to read and understand the constitution.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Members of the constitutional convention made a broadside attack on parlor bolsheviks Wednesday when an attempt was made to put on general file Proposal No. 205, making it necessary for every voter to be able to read and understand the constitution.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Members of the constitutional convention made a broadside attack on parlor bolsheviks Wednesday when an attempt was made to put on general file Proposal No. 205, making it necessary for every voter to be able to read and understand the constitution.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Members of the constitutional convention made a broadside attack on parlor bolsheviks Wednesday when an attempt was made to put on general file Proposal No. 205, making it necessary for every voter to be able to read and understand the constitution.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Members of the constitutional convention made a broadside attack on parlor bolsheviks Wednesday when an attempt was made to put on general file Proposal No. 205, making it necessary for every voter to be able to read and understand the constitution.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Members of the constitutional convention made a broadside attack on parlor bolsheviks Wednesday when an attempt was made to put on general file Proposal No. 205, making it necessary for every voter to be able to read and understand the constitution.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Members of the constitutional convention made a broadside attack on parlor bolsheviks Wednesday when an attempt was made to put on general file Proposal No. 205, making it necessary for every voter to be able to read and understand the constitution.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Members of the constitutional convention made a broadside attack on parlor bolsheviks Wednesday when an attempt was made to put on general file Proposal No. 205, making it necessary for every voter to be able to read and understand the constitution.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Members of the constitutional convention made a broadside attack on parlor bolsheviks Wednesday when an attempt was made to put on general file Proposal No. 205, making it necessary for every voter to be able to read and understand the constitution.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Members of the constitutional convention made a broadside attack on parlor bolsheviks Wednesday when an attempt was made to put on general file Proposal No. 205, making it necessary for every voter to be able to read and understand the constitution.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Members of the constitutional convention made a broadside attack on parlor bolsheviks Wednesday when an attempt was made to put on general file Proposal No. 205, making it necessary for every voter to be able to read and understand the constitution.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Members of the constitutional convention made a broadside attack on parlor bolsheviks Wednesday when an attempt was made to put on general file Proposal No. 205, making it necessary for every voter to be able to read and understand the constitution.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Members of the constitutional convention made a broadside attack on parlor bolsheviks Wednesday when an attempt was made to put on general file Proposal No. 205, making it necessary for every voter to be able to read and understand the constitution.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Members of the constitutional convention made a broadside attack on parlor bolsheviks Wednesday when an attempt was made to put on general file Proposal No. 205, making it necessary for every voter to be able to read and understand the constitution.

TOPS WORLD IN ECONOMIC ENTERPRISE

Secretary Lansing Tells Senate America Is in Position Teutons Coveted and Sought By Aggression and Force.

Unity of Command in Foreign Trade Asked

Recommendations That Diplomatic and Consular Services Be Brought Closer Together and Made Interchangeable.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The United States, Secretary Lansing declared today in a report to the senate, has come, as a result of the war, through no self-effort, into a position of economic preponderance, quite comparable to that which was coveted by Germany and which she sought to attain by means of aggression and force.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The United States, Secretary Lansing declared today in a report to the senate, has come, as a result of the war, through no self-effort, into a position of economic preponderance, quite comparable to that which was coveted by Germany and which she sought to attain by means of aggression and force.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The United States, Secretary Lansing declared today in a report to the senate, has come, as a result of the war, through no self-effort, into a position of economic preponderance, quite comparable to that which was coveted by Germany and which she sought to attain by means of aggression and force.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The United States, Secretary Lansing declared today in a report to the senate, has come, as a result of the war, through no self-effort, into a position of economic preponderance, quite comparable to that which was coveted by Germany and which she sought to attain by means of aggression and force.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The United States, Secretary Lansing declared today in a report to the senate, has come, as a result of the war, through no self-effort, into a position of economic preponderance, quite comparable to that which was coveted by Germany and which she sought to attain by means of aggression and force.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The United States, Secretary Lansing declared today in a report to the senate, has come, as a result of the war, through no self-effort, into a position of economic preponderance, quite comparable to that which was coveted by Germany and which she sought to attain by means of aggression and force.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The United States, Secretary Lansing declared today in a report to the senate, has come, as a result of the war, through no self-effort, into a position of economic preponderance, quite comparable to that which was coveted by Germany and which she sought to attain by means of aggression and force.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The United States, Secretary Lansing declared today in a report to the senate, has come, as a result of the war, through no self-effort, into a position of economic preponderance, quite comparable to that which was coveted by Germany and which she sought to attain by means of aggression and force.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The United States, Secretary Lansing declared today in a report to the senate, has come, as a result of the war, through no self-effort, into a position of economic preponderance, quite comparable to that which was coveted by Germany and which she sought to attain by means of aggression and force.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The United States, Secretary Lansing declared today in a report to the senate, has come, as a result of the war, through no self-effort, into a position of economic preponderance, quite comparable to that which was coveted by Germany and which she sought to attain by means of aggression and force.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The United States, Secretary Lansing declared today in a report to the senate, has come, as a result of the war, through no self-effort, into a position of economic preponderance, quite comparable to that which was coveted by Germany and which she sought to attain by means of aggression and force.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The United States, Secretary Lansing declared today in a report to the senate, has come, as a result of the war, through no self-effort, into a position of economic preponderance, quite comparable to that which was coveted by Germany and which she sought to attain by means of aggression and force.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The United States, Secretary Lansing declared today in a report to the senate, has come, as a result of the war, through no self-effort, into a position of economic preponderance, quite comparable to that which was coveted by Germany and which she sought to attain by means of aggression and force.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The United States, Secretary Lansing declared today in a report to the senate, has come, as a result of the war, through no self-effort, into a position of economic preponderance, quite comparable to that which was coveted by Germany and which she sought to attain by means of aggression and force.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The United States, Secretary Lansing declared today in a report to the senate, has come, as a result of the war, through no self-effort, into a position of economic preponderance, quite comparable to that which was coveted by Germany and which she sought to attain by means of aggression and force.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The United States, Secretary Lansing declared today in a report to the senate, has come, as a result of the war, through no self-effort, into a position of economic preponderance, quite comparable to that which was coveted by Germany and which she sought to attain by means of aggression and force.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The United States, Secretary Lansing declared today in a report to the senate, has come, as a result of the war, through no self-effort, into a position of economic preponderance, quite comparable to that which was coveted by Germany and which she sought to attain by means of aggression and force.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The United States, Secretary Lansing declared today in a report to the senate, has come, as a result of the war, through no self-effort, into a position of economic preponderance, quite comparable to that which was coveted by Germany and which she sought to attain by means of aggression and force.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The United States, Secretary Lansing declared today in a report to the senate, has come, as a result of the war, through no self-effort, into a position of economic preponderance, quite comparable to that which was coveted by Germany and which she sought to attain by means of aggression and force.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The United States, Secretary Lansing declared today in a report to the senate, has come, as a result of the war, through no self-effort, into a position of economic preponderance, quite comparable to that which was coveted by Germany and which she sought to attain by means of aggression and force.

WILL H. HAYS, Chairman Republican National Committee.

sorted, "must always be subject to amendment and change by the responsible living thought expressed within the party by men and women alike. The republican party's half century of achievement is the best guarantee to the country of future fulfillment, but it is only on future fulfillment that its usefulness will depend. The party must continue to be the instrument to apply to new and changing conditions, the wisdom of experience and the efficacy of honest, zealous service. It is the party of the future or there is no use for the party.

Men and Women Alike. "To men and women alike is offered the right of political self-determination. The duty of the party membership is to say what the party's purpose shall be, what its policies shall become. The fundamentally essential right within a political party is the opportunity of the membership to express itself. It is the problem of the party membership to determine what the party stands for. Through it all, however, should run a supreme motif, and in the republican party that supreme motif is the honest and unselfish, patriotic and intelligent effort to promote and safeguard the best interests of the republic and its citizens."

In his statement announcing the committee's appointment, Mr. Hays says further: "The potentiality for usefulness to the country and the party of such a committee is very great. The problems which are ahead of us are immense in magnitude and complexity. The majority of the citizens of the country believe that the republican party may best be trusted with the solution. The country wants and is entitled not only to this faith in the honesty of intention and fundamental ability of the republican party, but to a well defined statement of purpose and party program. It

(Continued on Page Two, Column One.)

Chairman Hays Announces Membership and Purpose of Committee on Policies and Platform for Republican Convention

171 Members Are Named, of Whom 19 Are Women—Purpose Is "To Invite Advice and Co-Operation of the Ablest Men and Women From All Groups, Sections, Industry, Business, Professions and Interests in the Nation; to Gather Pertinent Facts and Data, to Study Intensively the Larger Problems Confronting Us and to Offer the Result of Their Efforts as Suggestions to the Resolutions Committee"

San Francisco, Jan. 28.—Will H. Hays, chairman of the republican national committee, tonight made public his appointments to the advisory committee on policies and platform, consisting of 171 members, 19 of whom are women.

"The purpose of this committee," Mr. Hays said, "is to invite the advice and co-operation of the ablest men and women from all groups, sections, industry, business, professions and interests in the nation; to gather pertinent facts and data, to study intensively the larger problems confronting us, and to offer the result of their efforts as suggestions to the resolutions committee."

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Members of the constitutional convention made a broadside attack on parlor bolsheviks Wednesday when an attempt was made to put on general file Proposal No. 205, making it necessary for every voter to be able to read and understand the constitution.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Members of the constitutional convention made a broadside attack on parlor bolsheviks Wednesday when an attempt was made to put on general file Proposal No. 205, making it necessary for every voter to be able to read and understand the constitution.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Members of the constitutional convention made a broadside attack on parlor bolsheviks Wednesday when an attempt was made to put on general file Proposal No. 205, making it necessary for every voter to be able to read and understand the constitution.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Members of the constitutional convention made a broadside attack on parlor bolsheviks Wednesday when an attempt was made to put on general file Proposal No. 205, making it necessary for every voter to be able to read and understand the constitution.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Members of the constitutional convention made a broadside attack on parlor bolsheviks Wednesday when an attempt was made to put on general file Proposal No. 205, making it necessary for every voter to be able to read and understand the constitution.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Members of the constitutional convention made a broadside attack on parlor bolsheviks Wednesday when an attempt was made to put on general file Proposal No. 205, making it necessary for every voter to be able to read and understand the constitution.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Members of the constitutional convention made a broadside attack on parlor bolsheviks Wednesday when an attempt was made to put on general file Proposal No. 205, making it necessary for every voter to be able to read and understand the constitution.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Members of the constitutional convention made a broadside attack on parlor bolsheviks Wednesday when an attempt was made to put on general file Proposal No. 205, making it necessary for every voter to be able to read and understand the constitution.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Members of the constitutional convention made a broadside attack on parlor bolsheviks Wednesday when an attempt was made to put on general file Proposal No. 205, making it necessary for every voter to be able to read and understand the constitution.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Members of the constitutional convention made a broadside attack on parlor bolsheviks Wednesday when an attempt was made to put on general file Proposal No. 205, making it necessary for every voter to be able to read and understand the constitution.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Members of the constitutional convention made a broadside attack on parlor bolsheviks Wednesday when an attempt was made to put on general file Proposal No. 205, making it necessary for every voter to be able to read and understand the constitution.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Members of the constitutional convention made a broadside attack on parlor bolsheviks Wednesday when an attempt was made to put on general file Proposal No. 205, making it necessary for every voter to be able to read and understand the constitution.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Members of the constitutional convention made a broadside attack on parlor bolsheviks Wednesday when an attempt was made to put on general file Proposal No. 205, making it necessary for every voter to be able to read and understand the constitution.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Members of the constitutional convention made a broadside attack on parlor bolsheviks Wednesday when an attempt was made to put on general file Proposal No. 205, making it necessary for every voter to be able to read and understand the constitution.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Members of the constitutional convention made a broadside attack on parlor bolsheviks Wednesday when an attempt was made to put on general file Proposal No. 205, making it necessary for every voter to be able to read and understand the constitution.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Members of the constitutional convention made a broadside attack on parlor bolsheviks Wednesday when an attempt was made to put on general file Proposal No. 205, making it necessary for every voter to be able to read and understand the constitution.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Members of the constitutional convention made a broadside attack on parlor bolsheviks Wednesday when an attempt was made to put on general file Proposal No. 205, making it necessary for every voter to be able to read and understand the constitution.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Members of the constitutional convention made a broadside attack on parlor bolsheviks Wednesday when an attempt was made to put on general file Proposal No. 205, making it necessary for every voter to be able to read and understand the constitution.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Members of the constitutional convention made a broadside attack on parlor bolsheviks Wednesday when an attempt was made to put on general file Proposal No. 205, making it necessary for every voter to be able to read and understand the constitution.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—Members of the constitutional convention made a broadside attack on parlor bolsheviks Wednesday when an attempt was made to put on general file Proposal No. 205, making it necessary for every voter to be able to read and understand the constitution.

Secretary Lansing Tells Senate America Is in Position Teutons Coveted and Sought By Aggression and Force.

Unity of Command in Foreign Trade Asked

Recommendations That Diplomatic and Consular Services Be Brought Closer Together and Made Interchangeable.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The United States, Secretary Lansing declared today in a report to the senate, has come, as a result of the war, through no self-effort, into a position of economic preponderance, quite comparable to that which was coveted by Germany and which she sought to attain by means of aggression and force.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The United States, Secretary Lansing declared today in a report to the senate, has come, as a result of the war, through no self-effort, into a position of economic preponderance, quite comparable to that which was coveted by Germany and which she sought to attain by means of aggression and force.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The United States, Secretary Lansing declared today in a report to the senate, has come, as a result of the war, through no self-effort, into a position of economic preponderance, quite comparable to that which was coveted by Germany and which she sought to attain by means of aggression and force.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The United States, Secretary Lansing declared today in a report to the senate, has come, as a result of the war, through no self-effort, into a position of economic preponderance, quite comparable to that which was coveted by Germany and which she sought to attain by means of aggression and force.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The United States, Secretary Lansing declared today in a report to the senate, has come, as a result of the war, through no self-effort, into a position of economic preponderance, quite comparable to that which was coveted by Germany and which she sought to attain by means of aggression and force.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The United States, Secretary Lansing declared today in a report to the senate, has come, as a result of the war, through no self-effort, into a position of economic preponderance, quite comparable to that which was coveted by Germany and which she sought to attain by means of aggression and force.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The United States, Secretary Lansing declared today in a report to the senate, has come, as a result of the war, through no self-effort, into a position of economic preponderance, quite comparable to that which was coveted by Germany and which she sought to attain by means of aggression and force.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The United States, Secretary Lansing declared today in a report to the senate, has come, as a result of the war, through no self-effort, into a position of economic preponderance, quite comparable to that which was coveted by Germany and which she sought to attain by means of aggression and force.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The United States, Secretary Lansing declared today in a report to the senate, has come, as a result of the war, through no self-effort, into a position of economic preponderance, quite comparable to that which was coveted by Germany and which she sought to attain by means of aggression and force.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The United States, Secretary Lansing declared today in a report to the senate, has come, as a result of the war, through no self-effort, into a position of economic preponderance, quite comparable to that which was coveted by Germany and which she sought to attain by means of aggression and force.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The United States, Secretary Lansing declared today in a report to the senate, has come, as a result of the war, through no self-effort, into a position of economic preponderance, quite comparable to that which was coveted by Germany and which she sought to attain by means of aggression and force.

Washington, Jan. 28.—The United States, Secretary Lansing declared today in a report to the senate, has come, as a result of the war, through no self-effort, into a position of economic preponderance, quite comparable to that which was coveted by Germany and which she sought to attain by means of aggression and force.

Washington