STECHEERDEFEATS CADDOCK; GAINS WRESTLING TITLE

Had Been Agreed That One Fall Would Decide Match; Wrestle More Than Two Hours.

New York, Jan. 30.—Joe Stecher of Nebraska won the heavyweight wrestling championship at catch-can, catch-can, by defeating Earl Caddock of Iowa, with a body scissors and armlock, after more than two hours of wrestling. Madison Square Garden was thronged to its capacity for the match. Referee George Rothner started the bout at 9 o'clock.

Stecher had the advantage in weight and was seemingly about 20 pounds heavier than Caddock. Both were very cautious at the start and for 10 minutes simply pawed each other's neck and shoulders.

After wrestling 30 minutes, Stecher threw Caddock to the mat with a side trip and bounce on top, trying for a body scissors. Caddock twisted out of tight quarters and regained an erect position cleverly.

Tries for Leg Hold. Five minutes later Stecher went down in an attempt for a leg hold, but Caddock could not keep him down, and both were on their feet again in less than a minute. Stecher then got Caddock underneath with a side roll, but was unable to get any advantage. A forward body hold was equally unavailing and both were on their feet after 50 minutes had elapsed.

An attempt for a body scissors by Stecher with Caddock underneath was foiled by the Iowa man. At the expiration of one hour's time, both men were on their feet. The prescription was dripping from them but neither showed any sign of weakening.

Stecher picked up his opponent bodily and threw him to the mat for another futile effort to obtain a body scissors. Again Caddock's wonderful dexterity enabled him to break free and they resumed upright positions. They had been wrestling 75 minutes when Caddock rolled away from another scissors attack and electrified the crowd by a double foot hold from behind which gave him an aggressive position.

They had gone 90 minutes when Stecher secured a headlock out of which Caddock squirmed. Caddock gave a wonderful exhibition of defensive tactics in preventing a body scissors, and cleverly offset Stecher's persistent attack which lasted fully three minutes.

In another effort for a leg hold, Stecher showed his strength by lifting Caddock bodily, while in a kneeling position. The match had then gone one hour and 45 minutes. Caddock conceded 20 pounds in weight to the Nebraskaer, he put up a magnificent battle and it was not until within five minutes of the end that his opponent gained a decisive advantage.

Just before the close of the second hour, Stecher secured a body scissors and wrist lock after Caddock had made a supreme but futile effort to obtain a half Nelson. Caddock brought the spectators to their feet when he broke the double hold as his left shoulder was barely an inch from the mat for a pin fall. The effort had, however, apparently exhausted him for a moment later he was again gripped by a body scissors and this time both his shoulders went to the mat.

The official time was two hours, five minutes and 30 seconds.

PACKERS SWAMPED BY LINCOLNITES SOUGEY THE STAR

Lincoln Center Scores 11 Field Goals in Game Against South High.

Lincoln High school basket ball squad swamped South Omaha High quintet last night at the Packers' gym by the score of 65 to 18. The visiting squad was in the lead all through the game.

When Coach Mead's Lincolnites appeared on the floor they were greeted with great applause. Three minutes after the referee blew the final whistle Sougey of the visitors made the first basket. Sougey was the mainstay for the Red and Black quintet, making 11 baskets during the game.

The first half of the game was played with great vim by both quintets. Coach Patton's cage five put up a good fight against the veteran squad, but could not shoot accurately.

The Lincoln squad had the game won in the first half when 53 tallies were registered against 8 for the Packers. Holland proved to be a valuable asset to Coach Mead's team as he was next to Sougey, registering a total of 18 points.

In the second half the Packers came back a little stronger and held the Red and Black down. Hill of the South Side quintet made six baskets in the second half. He played a great defensive game, always having the ball away from his opponents' baskets.

Tonight on the "Y" floor the Packers will lock horns with the Central High school quintet.

Boone Canceled Game. Boone, Ia., High school basket ball five canceled its game with Council Bluffs High scheduled for last night in Boone, on account of the seriousness of an influenza epidemic now infesting Boone.

It is doubtful that Council Bluffs will make the trip to Ames college today as was planned.

MILWAUKEE POST CLEARS DEMPSEY, GIVES CLEAN BILL

Jack Is Given Clean Bill by Gordon Barber Camp of the American Legion.

Milwaukee, Jan. 30.—The Gordon Barber Post American Legion, Milwaukee, adopted a resolution fully vindicating Jack Dempsey, the world's heavyweight champion of all charges of being a slacker and a draft dodger and making him honorary commander with a membership for life. The honor accorded the heavyweight champion is the highest which the post can bestow.

Dempsey was informed of the post's action through a telegram signed by James T. Lynch, post commander, and officers of the post. The telegram sent to Dempsey follows:

"The Gordon Barber Post of the American Legion, believing in fair play and in the interest of justice, has adopted a resolution completely exonerating you of the charges of being a slacker and draft dodger during the recent world war, as preferred by some misguided legion men.

"You have been elected to the honorary command of the post. A copy of the resolutions will be sent you within the next few days.

"Please accept our good wishes and wire your acceptance to the honorary command of this post."

The Gordon Barber Post is composed largely of overseas men and is newly organized. Lynch, the post commander, is a veteran of five engagements.

"We took the matter up carefully and it seems to us that the way he has been attacked is absolutely unfair. We tried to verify the charges made by his wife but were unable to locate her."

Following is a copy of the resolution adopted by the post:

"Whereas, Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion of the world, has been accused of being a slacker and draft dodger during the recent world war by various posts of the American Legion throughout the United States; and

"Whereas, the Gordon Barber post, believing that an injustice has been done to Jack Dempsey by said accusations; and

"Whereas, Jack Dempsey served his country to the best of his ability by boxing for the Red Cross during the war; now therefore be it,

Coach Patton expressed great confidence in his Packer quintet.

IS YOUR BIG TOE STRAIGHT?

Not if you wear pointed toe shoes. It can't be, although it ought to be. Few people have feet of which they are proud, because they have abused them in shoes which are anything but the true shape of the natural human foot. And how foolish, because you don't need to have distorted feet.

Ground Gripper shoes are scientifically designed, the exact shape of the human foot. They don't bind or pinch or distort. They permit every toe to take its natural position so that your feet are just as comfortable when you have your Ground Grippers on as when you are bare-footed.

The correct shoe for men, women and children.

Wants Fremont to Help Organize State League; Lincoln Has Franchise

Fremont, Neb., Jan. 30.—(Special Telegram.)—James Beltzer of Lincoln called on a number of Fremont business men and base ball fans in an effort to include Fremont as a base ball town in the new state league. Lincoln has already taken a franchise, Beltzer said, and so have four or five other towns. Beltzer said he would like to have Fremont's aid in forming the new league. He found little encouragement in Fremont, but he thinks that by the time the robins fly the base ball fever will induce Fremonters to associate a team with the new organization.

Commercial High Wins Against the State Aggies. Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 30.—(Special Telegram.)—Omaha Commercial High basket tossers won from State School of Agriculture team on the University Place floor Friday night by a score of 34 to 14. The first half ended 13 to 9 for the Omaha lads.

Mahoney was the big point getter for the Commerce aggregation, ringing up nine baskets during the game. Cameron was also responsible for 14 of the points made by the Omaha team. Kimball was the big man for the Aggies, making practice all of the points.

Commerce High plays the University Place High on the same floor Saturday evening.
