

INROAD OF GREEN VEGETABLES TO HIT H. C. L. HERE

Shipments From South Expected to Cause Prices In Omaha to Drop Materially Next Week.

With the absence of quantities and varieties of green vegetables from the south this week, and indications that shipments will be larger next week, the high cost of living in Omaha and this section is expected to take a material tumble.

While prices continue about the same as they were last week, increased shipments of green stuff will make themselves felt within the next few days on the local market, it is said.

Spanish onions are selling for 10 cents a pound and green onions for 6 cents a bunch. Sweet potatoes were quoted at 7 1/2 cents a pound, lettuce at 12 1/2 cents a head, turnips 4 cents a pound, parsnips 4 cents a pound, red onions three pounds for 25 cents, Irish potatoes 85 cents a peck and winesap apples 40 pounds for $4.50.

Henry W. Rothert Is Victim of Pneumonia At His Home In Bluffs

Henry W. Rothert, 79 years old, former superintendent of the Iowa School for the Deaf, died yesterday in his apartment in the Shugart flat in Council Bluffs after an illness of two days from pneumonia.

Mr. Rothert was superintendent of the Iowa School for the Deaf for 32 years, retiring from that position last year. He was prominent over the state for his work in developing that school to a standard high among similar institutions throughout the country.

He was the highest ranking Mason at the time of his death, being the ranking past grand master of the Iowa grand lodge of Masons, and a past grand master of the Knights Templar.

He is survived by two sons, Edwin H. and Waldo H. Rothert, both of Council Bluffs. Funeral services will be held from the Masonic temple in Council Bluffs Sunday afternoon, Rev. Ernest Mann of St. Paul's Episcopal church assisting. The body will be taken to Keokuk, Mr. Rothert's former home, for burial.

Aged Woman Found Dead In Home From Gas Asphyxiation

Mrs. Mary McKeon, 70 years old, 1909 South Eleventh street, was found dead from accidental gas asphyxiation in the kitchen of her home at 3:30 yesterday morning. The body was lying face downwards on the floor beside the gas stove. She had evidently fallen from a chair. A jet of the stove was wide open, when R. T. Walker, 1730 South Tenth street, who discovered the body, entered the house.

Mrs. McKeon had been dead for approximately 12 hours, undertakers said. The body was found dressed as if prepared for bed. An oil lamp on the kitchen table was still lighted.

Mrs. McKeon had been living alone for several years. According to Mrs. Joseph Wolf, who lives downstairs in the same house, Mrs. McKeon visited her Thursday and appeared so happy that she was able to attend daily services at St. Patrick's Catholic church in her old age. The church is near by. Relatives in Fort Dodge, Ia., were notified.

ASTHMA WOULDN'T LET HIM LIE DOWN

Hasn't had a sign of trouble now for over 9 months.

"A year ago I had asthma so bad my friends thought I would never get over it. I had doctors for a long time without results. I had not been in bed for 3 weeks, could not even sit up straight in a chair. Then I heard of Mils Emulsion and started using it. It was only two days later that I could go to bed and sleep soundly. After taking eight bottles (14 found myself completely cured. It is over 9 months now since I quit taking Mils Emulsion, and I haven't had a symptom of asthma since."

—Geo. W. Baker, R. F. D. 1, Latrobe, Pa. Why shouldn't Mils Emulsion help you? It has worked wonders for others. It costs nothing to try.

DECREASE IN "FLU" CASES EXPECTED HERE NEXT WEEK

Hospital Accommodations Being Taxed to Capacity—Not Enough Nurses.

Dr. J. F. Edwards, health commissioner, reported that 67 new cases of influenza were reported to his office Thursday, bringing the total for this week to 303.

"The average daily cases seems to be about the same for this week," the doctor said. "We are unable to state at this time whether the outbreak is on the wane, but we believe that next week will begin to show a decrease. The percentage of serious cases is small and the death rate thus far is low."

Since January 14 there have been eight deaths from influenza and 14 from pneumonia.

Hospital accommodations are being taxed to capacity and there are not enough nurses to supply the demand.

Fourteen cases of influenza have been reported from the county hospital.

Senator Sorenson Is Seventy, Just a Boy in Years Now

Senator Alfred Sorenson is observing his 70th birthday today by going quietly about his affairs, editing the Examiner and compiling data for his forthcoming history of Omaha. "Al" Sorenson is an Omaha institution. He landed here in the days when the earth was young, and after setting type for a season on The Bee in 1871, became its city editor, reporter and general factotum in 1872. From that day to this he has been a busy man. All his days were not spent with The Bee, for he gave the Republican some of his services, was managing editor of the Herald for a season and then went to Denver, where he broke in on the Rocky Mountain News as a paragrapher. Portland claimed him, and San Francisco, but they could not hold him, and he came back to Omaha in the late '90s, establishing his present very prosperous paper with the beginning of the new century.

Baker in Washington.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 30.—(Special Telegram.)—J. I. Baker, a well known business man of Omaha, is in Washington for a few days.

C. OF C. CHECK ON CENSUS BRINGS 8,879 NEW NAMES

1,623 Unlisted Persons Are Added to Count In One Day.

The total number of Omahans missed by census enumerators has reached 8,879, according to the Chamber of Commerce. School children Thursday reported 792 people missed, girls in the employ of the chamber who are calling every telephone number in the city recorded 373 missed, and 438 names were telephoned to the chamber by employers and individuals.

In addition to this number Fort Omaha officers say that the 800 officers and men at the fort were not counted by census enumerators. John H. Hopkins, director of federal census here is uncertain whether soldiers stationed at this post can be included in Omaha's population. Army officers, however, declare that soldiers are counted and added to the population of the place where they are stationed. Commenting on the large number of names turned over to him by the Chamber, Mr. Hopkins said: "We are going to keep on counting till we get them all, and if Omaha does not go over the 200,000 mark, it will be because there are not 200,000 people here."

Sheriff Clark directed a deputy to ride post haste to the Schirmer habit and read the law.
