

BOOZE MONEY IS BEING SPENT ON YOUNG BOYS NOW

Omaha Dealer Advises Clothiers to Favor Mothers of Six-Year-Olds and Fathers of Older Youths.

Inner secrets of making a boys' clothing department an asset were described by Bruce McLean, Omaha clothier, at the first session of the Nebraska Retail Clothiers' association at the Hotel Fontenelle yesterday afternoon.

"One should learn to call a customer by name," said Mr. McLean. "He should remember telephone numbers and names of each customer. This will please the woman customer. It will also please the man customer."

"It is really worth while to cultivate the shirt pants boy, for he is the man of tomorrow, and if he gets the habit of coming to a store when a boy and is satisfied he will keep on coming when he is a man."

"The days of the hamster-sliding, cellar-door-coasting boy is over. When a boy does any sliding now he wears unimals."

Another of Mr. McLean's hints to retail dealers was the advisability of taking special care in making a store look well on the right-hand side of the entrance. It is a psychological fact that the customer always looks to the right when he enters a store, Mr. McLean said.

Next Meeting in Omaha. Members of the association yesterday voted unanimously to hold their 1921 convention in Omaha, after a roll call vote to determine whether it should be held here or in Lincoln. The vote was taken at the afternoon meeting of the club at the Hotel Fontenelle.

A. W. Stone of Grand Island was elected president of the organization for the ensuing year. E. J. Smith of Lincoln was chosen vice president and L. A. Leppie of Omaha was named secretary and treasurer.

The clothiers resolved to fully comply with the present policy of the government to reduce prices on commodities carried by retail clothiers. The following resolution on economic conditions was also adopted: "Whereas, present conditions in the economic world are a menace to the nation and believing as we do that much of the high cost of living with its consequent unrest is the result of shortage of supply, be it resolved by the Nebraska Retail Clothiers' association that we endorse the Nebraska economy campaign, designed to assist the voluntary cooperation of all people in the reducing of the prevailing cost by careful conservation and economical living and that we give our support to the work and save movement."

The clothiers' convention closed with a general discussion of problems of the retail clothing business. Clothing Prices to Rise. Prices of clothing are going to be still higher, due to a limited output by factories, according to a message from G. W. Gordon, president of the Gordon & Ferguson Co., St. Paul, Minn., read to members of the association by C. M. Hanniford, a representative of Mr. Gordon, at the Hotel Fontenelle yesterday morning.

Mr. Gordon in his message stated that even the cost of raw materials in this country is only about 10 per cent of normal, and that it will increase from 50 to 80 per cent. When you buy a pair of trousers, you are getting a better than it was in September, he said.

"Merchants should buy carefully," his message continued, "and buy the best quality of merchandise. The people of today are wise enough to get the best quality they can get. The price of leather overcoats, fur-collared overcoats and coats lined with sheep pelts will advance, and it may be even impossible to obtain goods of this description."

Price Reduction a Theory. When Mr. Hanniford had finished reading Mr. Gordon's message a discussion ensued about the return of railroads to private ownership. Mr. Hanniford said that the effect was uncertain, but that in the change should supply transportation facilities it would be a blessing to clothiers.

"The exchange rates fall lower except from this country may stop," he added, "and clothing materials become more plentiful. It so, the price of clothing will eventually drop."

Henry Eisman of Chicago in a message to the clothiers declared that the "deflation of the price of clothing at the present time is a theory and not a fact." He said the high wages paid all classes engaged in producing clothing was one cause of the high clothing prices. At present these wages can in no way be reduced, he said.

DIVORCEE KEEPS EX-HUSBAND FROM U. S. CITIZENSHIP

Judge Bars Greek From Naturalization for at Least Five Years.

Helen A. Kazakes vehemently declared yesterday in naturalization court that her former husband, Paul Kazakes, is not to be an American citizen. And Judge Sears, presiding over the court, agreed with her and barred Mr. Kazakes from citizenship for at least five years.

This in spite of the fact that Kazakes was a soldier of the United States with Battery E, 151st field artillery, overseas, during the world war.

Kazakes appeared in the court for naturalization last Wednesday. Naturalization Examiner A. H. Boide confronted him with the allegations of cruelty contained in Mrs. Kazakes' divorce suit filed in district court September 27, and the decree granted to her November 25.

Kazakes denied he had been cruel and said he would be willing to be confronted with his former wife in court.

"Judge," exclaimed Mrs. Kazakes, "this man let me and went into the army. We had nothing to live on, the home which he tells me he gave me belonged to me all the time. Besides, he took $200 that did not belong to him."

Charles T. Neal, Chairman Of Near East Relief Body

Says Situation Desperate and Critical—Armenians Entirely Dependent On American Charity.

Charles T. Neal

Charles T. Neal, vice president of the United States grain corporation, has accepted the chairmanship of the Near East Relief committee for Douglas county.

He is being assisted in the work of raising funds for the relief of the Armenian situation by H. H. Baldrige, Charles M. Wilhelm, E. A. Benson, John C. Whitson, the Rev. Robert L. Leavers, Bishop E. V. Shaylor, Dean J. A. Tancocok and Dr. E. H. Joux.

During the period following the seizure of the Armenian Mr. Neal was in Europe, associated with Herbert Hoover in the distribution of food to central Europe and frequently cooperating with Armenian relief workers.

"The situation in the near east is desperate and critical," said Mr. Neal. "A telegram from Herbert Hoover states that Armenians are entirely dependent on American charity, any failure of which would mean the death of hundreds of thousands of people."

"It should be understood that the congressional appropriation has been cut to one third, and even if passed, will be inadequate and will not affect the Armenian situation."

South Side BURGLARS HAUL SAFES BY TRUCK BEFORE LOOTING

Young Men, Caught In Raid On Pool Hall, Discharged

Detectives made a raid on the pool hall of William Yost, 321 1/2 Q street, Thursday night and arrested the proprietor, a charge of carrying a dangerous weapon. The officers said they found a group of men gambling and seized a deck of cards and a $1 bill as evidence.

The following men were also arrested, charged with being inmates of a disorderly house: Frank Zelen, 3305 Q street; Frank Bars, 262 N street; John Bominski, 401 S. South Thirty-third street; James Rane, 5400 South Thirty-third street; Steve Malek, 4415 South Thirty-third street; Peter McMurphy, 3412 Y street; Leroy Olson, 3115 X street; Mike Murphy, Thirty-third and N streets; Joseph Parks, 3413 South Thirty-third street; Thomas Murphy, 3119 T street; George Nightingale, 3420 South Thirty-third street; and Dave Brennan, 3352 T street.

The men, all of whom were young, were lectured by the court and discharged. Decision against Yost was reserved until next Thursday.

Burglars in Omaha are now removing safes from offices and homes before blowing them open to secure the money and valuables supposed to be in them. Three cases of this sort were reported to police last night.

Lester Jacobs, in charge of the T. V. Nicholas Oil company's filling station at Thirty-eighth and Franklin streets, reported to police that a safe containing $250 and several coupon books for gasoline and oil.

Footprints showed that two men had carried the safe to a waiting truck.

St. J. Breiler, in charge of another Nicholas filling station at Twenty-fourth and H streets, reported a like theft of his safe, which he declared contained $50.

Peter Zauk, 7206 South Twenty-eighth street, reported to police that he had found a safe lying in the road, three blocks south of Harrison street, on South Thirtieth, just over the line into Sarpy county.

Detectives who investigated found the door of the safe blown open and papers and books strewn in every direction.

The same burglars who committed these thefts are believed by police to have been the assailants of Paul Schler, a negro, 817 South Twenty-fifth street, when Schler and his wife were home and asleep in their home. A safe containing $250 was hauled from the house by two men, who drove away with their loot in an automobile truck.

Schler soon traced himself, seized a shotgun, and ran down the street firing and yelling for help. He was arrested for alleged insanity, but was freed when he told his story of the burglary of his home.

Regular Habits Produce a Beautiful Complexion

Daily elimination rids the system of poisons. Women should realize that!

MANY women complain daily of their complexion, of their headaches, of general ill health, little realizing that the trouble is constipation. Women, too, are much more subject to such congestion than men, and much more careless of it. The result is seen in listless, weary eyes, in sallow, pimply complexion, in lassitude, bad breath, and in that word so often used, "indisposed."

At the first sign of these symptoms the wise woman will take a laxative, and will see that the young girl and others in her care do likewise. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the favorite with thousands of women because it is mild and gentle in its action and in the end trains the stomach and bowel muscles to do their work naturally without the aid of medicine.

This combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, which can be bought at any drug store, is also a very sterling first-aid in colds, fevers and other sudden ills that make it advisable to always have a bottle in the home. It is free from narcotics and safe for the tiniest baby.

In spite of the fact that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the largest-selling liquid laxative in the world, there being over 6 million bottles sold each year, many who need its benefits have not used it. If you have not, send your name and address for a free trial bottle to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 511 Washington St., Monroeville, Illinois.
