

THE OMAHA BEE

Published by the OMAHA BEE COMPANY, PROPRIETOR... MEMBERS OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS... BEE TELEPHONE... Tyler 1000... OFFICES OF THE BEE... CIRCULATION... Daily 66,000 Sunday 63,505

You should know that It requires over 300 cars, 129 miles of track and a $2,000,000 power plant to operate Omaha's street railway system.

What the Bee Stands for: 1. Respect for the law and maintenance of law... 2. Speedy and certain punishment of crime... 3. The best possible government of the city... 4. The best possible government of the state... 5. The best possible government of the nation...

High prices are getting careless. If they don't get lower, they take elsewhere. They might have had a hard time doing so had it not been for the war.

Other than Nebraska farmers are getting after the Federal Reserve board because of its practices. "Return to normal" is the slogan.

A court in London has just now probing the theft of a value of $500,000. The judge shows rare determination in not trying to find out where the money was.

European ideas resident in and around Omaha are reported to be in their way home in large numbers. There is no accounting for tastes, but if they prefer Europe to Yankeland it is their own fault.

Chicago is being a great growing out of the agreement between coal mines and miners. The problem, however, is Chicago's, and the method of dealing with it may be selected there.

Julius Barnes has rather the better of Senator Grout in the matter of the continuation of the wheat control. The government made a bargain with the farmers and should carry it out.

The worst waste is not faced when the church fails and is discontinued, but when it keeps on year after year at more denominational and unneeded expense.

A GOD OF BATTLES.

At the preliminary conference at both times, it was determined to appoint a committee to look into the possibility of a conference looking to the general training of our youth in military and a study of military history. At this time the committee was organized.
