HONOR LIST AT CREIGHTON IS GIVEN PUBLIC

High Standings in University and High School Mid-Term Examinatios Announced.

Ralph E. Svoboda, a junior at Creighton university, received highest honors in the midterm examination, Brendan Brown, Thomas Mc-Govern and William Barry of the college received first honors in the examination.

Vincent Whelan, a senior at the Creighton high school, received highest honors in the school examination. Sam Beber, a graduate of Central high school and a freshman in medicine at the university. received highest honors in his group Ralph Kharas, also a Central high school graduate, received first honors in the prelegal class.

Following is the honor list: College of Liberal Arts. Junior Class—Highest honors, Raiph E. voboda; first honors, Brendan Brown, Filliam Barry, Thomas McGovern, Sophomore Prelegal Class—Highest oner, Henry Gierau; first honor, Haroid honor. Henry Gierau; first honor, Harold McGuiggan.

Sophomore A. R. Class—Highest honor.
Leo Wearling; first honors, George Hennegan, Joseph Barkmeier; second honors, Edward McGargill, Raymond Oberie, Francis Pflaum.
Sophomore B. S. in Medicine—Highest honor, Gration FitzGibbon; first honors, Arthur Anthony, John Kestel, Charles Murphy, Earl Smith; second honors, Lawrence Custer, James Hail, Harold Lammers, Rietard Brady, Thomas Kargacin, Mason Lathrop, Joseph Hoverka, Francis McDonough, Milton Beitenman.
Firehman Bachelor of Science—Highest honer, Harold Collin; first honor, John McKeon.

Freshman Bachelor of Science—Hignest honor, Harold Collin; first honor, John McKeon.

Freshman B. S. in Medicine—Highest honor, Sam Beber; first honors, George Delaney, Henry Maly; second honors, Jack Fleishman, Donald Pillsbury, Meyer Smernoff, Frank Svoboda, Frank Abts, Leo Mullaney, Felix Spittier.

Freetman Prelegal Class—Highest honor, Faul Johnson; first honors, Raiph Kharas, Marion Dolan; second honors, Thomas Brown, Charles Rain, Paul Moonan, Freshman Bachelor of Arts Class—Highest honors, Julius J. Berger; first honors, Verne W. Vance, Francis Kasti, Joseph Volir; secend honors, Michael Gleasson, Gerald Fizzlibbos.

Fourth High B—Highest honor, Vincent Wheigh; second honors, Aloysius Blum, James Dunn, Paul Murphy, Adolph Svoboda, Fred Williams.

Fourth High A—Highest konor, Albert Rettenmeler; first honors, Leonard Dieter, John Flannagan, Francis Fitzgerald, Fred Wachtler, Edward Faster; second honors, Joseph Ball, James Maney, Charles Fogarty, Stephen Parquet, Joseph Van Ackeren, Albert Morrissey, Henry Murray.

Third High B—Highest honor, Clarence R. McAuliffe; second honors, Francis Wogan, James Smith, Joseph Fogarty, Joseph Jukosvsky, Martin Dunphy, Walter Lieberknecht, Milo Marsh, William Ramacciett.

Third High A—Highest honor, John J.

Ramacciciti.
Third High A—Highest honor. John J.
McCarten: first honors, Julius Bautzinker.
James Fitzgerald, Herbert Lichtenberger;
second honors, Henry Safarik, James Paul,
Wilbur Eaton.
Second High C—Highest honor, Theodore

Stuckert.

Second High B-Highest honor, Frank
Fogarty; first honors, James W. Vaverka,
Gordon Richmond, Thomas Coleman,
Henry Posts

First High C—Highest honor, Thomas E. Borney; first honors, william Mechandra McCartile, John Monaghan, Alex Klepper, First High B—Highest honor, Raymond McCrath; first honors, William Hinchey, Edward Nash, Gerald Hanley; second honors, John J. Gillian, Charles Owens, Robert Riddle, First High A—Highest honor, Stanton Kennedy; first honors, Frank Winters, Ciarence Ryan, Richard Delehanty, Joseph Gardiner, Harry Metchell, Joseph Fleming; second honora, John Winters, James Dahir, William McCarthy, Francis Noonan.

American Legion to Present French War Certificates Feb. 22

Officers of Douglas county post, American Legion, yesterday an-nounced plans for staging an allegorical pageant in connection with presentation of French war memorial certificates the afternoon of Febru-ary 22 to relatives of Omaha then who sacrificed their lives in the world war.

Presentation ceremonies will be held at Central High school auditorium. The pageant will be in charge of Osear Wilder Craik, directory of the Complete County of the County tor for the Omaha Folk theater organization.

Walter Byrne, chairman of the American Legion committee in charge of the ceremony, said yesterday the committee had been furnished with memorial certificates for relatives of 85 Omaha men. The War department in sending out certificates may have overlooked some Omaha families, he said, and he re-quests relatives of all deceased war veterans to list their names with legion officials.

"This will be the first public commemoration here of the supreme sacrifice made by the men who didn't come back," Mr. Byrne pointed out. "It should attract wide public interest,"

Creighton Orators Will

Meet to Pick School Leader The annual oratorical contest of Creighton university will' be held Friday evening at the Creighton university auditorium. The winners of the contest will represent the school the contest will represent the school at the state oratorical, contest.

Brendan F. Brown will speak on "Government Price Control;" Gerald H. Fitzgibbon, "Article X and Subject Peoples;" Joseph H. McGroarty, "High Cost of Child Labor;" M. Bendict McConville "Higher Standard of Citizenship;" Raymond Oberile, "America's Future Foreign Policy;" and Ralph E. Svoboda, "Introducing Vox. Populi."

Omaha Lawyer Files Şuit Against Court House Bonds

M. O. Cunningham, Omaha attorney, yesterday filed suit against. Douglas county asking that the court house reconstruction bonds for $822,-000, authorized by a special session of the state legislature following the riot, he declared void on the ground that the legislative act was uncon-

This is a test suit to determine the validity of the bonds, and all five county commissioners are named as defendants with the county. The suit asks that the commissioners be restrained from issuing the bonds.

Maryland man is the inventor of a machine to reclaim most of the tin from old cans by chopping off their ends, which are melted down, and smoothing out what remains of

South Side Held On $100 Bond For Alleged Attack Against His Wife

Charged with assaulting his wife, Anna, the night of February 7, and taking $95 from her, at her home. 3705 Q street, Stephen Sedlacek. Twenty-first and O streets, was held for trial-to the district court under a bond of $1,000 in South Side police court-Wednesday.

Mrs. Sedlacek said she had been separated from her husband for over year and that with her children, she had been living at the Glasgow block on the South Side, until three weeks ago. She said her husband came to her home Saturday night nd forced his way into the house, when she sought to get a revolver out of her shopping bag to protect herself, her husband took the bag and gun away from her.

She also alleged that Sedlacek fixed a shot at a young man, Joe Spiner, Forty-ninth and U streets, who was visiting her. Sedlacek denied this and said the gun went off accidentally and that he did not take his wife's money.

Mrs. Sedlacek is employed at the City National bank and her husband is working at the new Skinner

South Side Brevities

Packing plant.

F. C. Hahn brought in 77 head of choice purces last week that sold on the local arket for $14.25, just before the market

Dick Fabich, 3506 South Thirty-fifth street, was sonienced to 20 days in jail in police court Wednesday after conviction of creating a disturbance by heating his wife, Mary who is employed at the St. Marys Orphanage home.

William Langley, colored, living in the rear of 5214 South Thirtieth street, admitted his guilt of a charge of stealing a sack of coal from the Armour packing plant. He said his wife had the "flu" and was cold. He was fined $5.

We wish to express our sincers gratitude to our many friends and neighbors for the fighal offerings and kindness shown us during the illness and death of our be-loved wife and mother. FRANK CARLSON AND FAMILY. The Great Western Land and Cattle Coras represented on the local-market this sak with two loads of mixed stock, 3 was represented on the local-market this week with two loads of mixed stock, 35 of which were Hereford yearlings. The company operates 1,500 acres of land in Logan county, Colorado, and is a frequent shipper to this market. The last consignment was in charge of R. C. Garver, which is the consignment was in charge of R. C. Garver, with a Signment was in charge of R. C. Garver.

Peter Geersen of Sargent was in with a load of mixed hogs Wednesday. There were 70 head in the shipment that averaged 285 peunds. Mr. Geersen said there would be a large influx of perkers to the local market from his section in a few days and about April 1 he said he would have about three loads of cattle ready for the market.

Jennie May Smith and Mary James, both colored and both living at 4938 South Twenty-sixth street, were each given 30 days in fall in police court Wednesday after conviction of creating a disturbance. It was alleged the women were fighting and that one had a knife and the other an iron bar, when the police came and prevented the women from injuring sach other.

All members of the Epworth league of Fogarty; first honors, James W. Vaverka, Gordon Richmond, Thomas Coleman, Henry Dozler, Second High A.—Highest honor, Edward T. Bourbeau, first honor, Louis Kreiss; Second honors, Henry Leermakers, Lee Fitzwilliams, George Hartley, William Lebentriit, First High D.—Highest honor, Ames Cook; second honors Seb Carnazzo, C. Finocchiaro, Raymond Keily, Roland Wallek, First High C.—Highest honor, Thomas Seb Carnazzo, C. Finocchiaro, Raymond Keily, William Walley, Machine Land Representation of the Epworth league of the Grace Methodist Episcopal church at 7 p. m. after which it will go in a body to the Bapinst church. Twenty-fifth and H streets, to attend a basket ball game, after which a return will be made to the Grace Methodist Episcopal church at 8:30 p. m. for games and refreshments.

He staked his life, his love and is fortune on a horse.

He wagered against his wife in battle of love and happiness. All depended on Dewdrop fo

All depended on Flickamaro for Lady Algy.

TOM

"Lord and Lady Algy

It is a romance of racing that will take you out of yourself. It is the greatest Tom Moore picture you have ever seen.

A Joe Martin Comedy That's a "Humdinger"

> "THE BABY DOLL BANDIT"

My Heart and My Husband ADELE GARRISON'S New Phase of "Revelations of a Wife" angry, passionate words.

They proved to the emotional part of my mentality that my husband must care for me as strongly as ever or he would not display such savage jealousy of Maj. Grantland simply because he had erroneously taken it into his head that the officer had taught me how to drive a pangs of jealousy will understand that we were in a motor car, and it. how my heart leaped at Dicky's that Dicky knew enough about drivfor at least a mile.

Of course common sense would later demonstrate to me that many sents any attentions shown her by get a train back to town." ing at all for his wife, fiercely reother men, simply because his van-ity of ownership has been jostled.

Undisguised Relief.

There was a ring of determination But at the moment of hearing his in his voice which told me that he words I could feel nothing but tri- meant exactly what he said. I was tone-"about Maj. Grantland or heard him laugh in months, anybody else. If it interests you, "You unmitigated little fra

"But"-there was undisguised reing to realize what violent excite- lief in Dicky's tones, and a puzzled ment might do to an inexperienced note as well, "your description of driver. Otherwise I am sure I would the 'best driver you had 'ever have witnessed one of his old time known',"—it was his turn for ironic tantrums. As it was he contented imitation now-fitted Grantland to himself with a muttered impreca- a T. Of course he's a crackerjack tion or two, then sat in stony silence driver. I do not know him very well, and the devil-knows I disapprove "I'll just tell you one thing," he of him, so what was I to think?"
said icily at last, "you'll either tell me the truth about Grantland or voice which told me that his brainan unfaithful husband, caring nothnow. I'll walk to the station and tion would be apologetic. I was sure. I removed my voice from the refrigerator and sunned it a trifle before answering.

umphant joy, mingled with a feminance of the city recreation word, but neither my conscience nor inine desire to prolong the situation the effection that was a feminance of the city recreation when I have beard you have bear and you have beard you have bear have beard you hav the affection that was tugging at in Marvin, whom I have heard you land and you would interest me?" a bit.

"Do you really expect," I asked my heart for him would permit such sweetly, with my eyes fixed on the action. I was stubborn enough, scienceless extorter, although I to repeat the words Harry Under-Wednesday of each month.

however, to cloak my acquiscence really think he has always been as wood had said-without, of course, with an air of infinite ennu.

"Why the melodrama, Dicky?" I asked languidly. "I haven't the slightest objection to "tell you the truth" "—I mimicked his strenuous tone "about Mai Groutland or haven't have a language of astonishment, then he put back his head and laughed as I had not tease you."

"Wood had said—without, of course, giving the source of my information—but a sober second thought made me say softly instead:

"I am afraid, Dicky. I wanted to have a laughed as I had not tease you."

The Way Madge Relieved Dickey's road in front of me, "that I am going to answer a question couched in such language as that?"

Any wife who has suffered the pangs of jealousy will understand pangs of jealousy will understand that we were in a motor car, and it."

I think it was as fortunate thing that we were in a motor car, and it."

I think it was as fortunate thing that we were in a motor car, and it."

I think it was as fortunate thing that we were in a motor car, and it."

I think it was as fortunate thing that we were in a motor car, and it."

I think it was as fortunate thing that we were in a motor car, and it."

I think it was as fortunate thing that we were in a motor car, and it."

I think it was as fortunate thing that we were in a motor car, and it."

I think it was as fortunate thing that we were in a motor car, and it." mazume it must have cost you into Doran's potket when I could have taught you for nothing."

I saw he had no inkling of the of his arbitrary manner of teaching me. His voice had the puzzled, grieved note of a child seeking to

What Dickey Said.

"It has not happened to strike rough tenderness, "What did you mean by saying you could't imagine "I. J. Isaacson, of the Y. M. C. A., and J. J. Isaacson, of the city recreation

"Stop this car this instant unless you want to wreck it!" was his laughing answer. "The driver is going to be hugged and kissed properly before we go any farther.' (Continued Tomorrow.)

New Social Workers' Club For Omaha Elects Officers

The Social Workers' club, organ-ized for general community benefit work, has elected the following of fact that I could not possibly have learned anything from him because ficers for 1920: S. H. Schaefer, head of the Jewish welfare board, president; Leon C. Smith, assistant super-intendent of schools, first vice presi-dent; Miss Florence McCabe, secre-"But I wanted to surprise you, Dicky, dear," I said sweetly. "Father bought the car for me, and I thought you'd be awfully surprised when I drove up to the station to make the control of the Nebraska Anti-Tuber-culosis society, secretary, and Mrs.

Mrs. George Doane, of the Asso-

The club will meet the second

Juniper Tar

Coughs, Colds, Sore

60 Doses, 30c AT DRUGGISTS

Coughing

Henry Vadsworth Longfellow's Immortal Love Epic The Tragedy of Acadie C'When she had passed it seemed like the ceasing of exquisite music. A strong vital Americanization picture for true loyal Americans The Cand of Opportunity A page taken from the life of Abraham Lincoln. Pincoln said: ... · Owhatever threatens these United States, whatever threatens it's progress or unity, must be stamped out as one would stamp to death a poisonous snake in a school yard. By God's grace our ancestors built up a great republic. It is in our hands. The price of liberty is loyalty." Ouring presentation of this program of this admitted for 94 plus 14 war tax.