

Happy he
With such a mother; faith in womankind
Beats with his blood, and trust in all things high
Come easy to him, and the he trip and fall,
He shall not blind his soul with clay.
—Tennyson.

WOMAN'S SECTION OF THE BEE

The world goes up and the world goes down,
And the sunshine follows the rain;
And yesterday's anger and yesterday's frown
Can never come over again.

CLUBBING

ALL aboard for Chicago! A jubilant group of Omaha and Lincoln women—girls, one might say, thinking of their frolicsome mood—pulled out from Union station Wednesday night at 6 o'clock on their way to Chicago to attend conventions of the American Woman Suffrage association and the League of Women Voters, opening there February 12. Warm greetings little short of embraces met each addition to the party.

"How-do-you-do," said one woman to Mrs. Charles T. Neal. "I know your husband quite well."

"I'm glad to see you," replied Mrs. Neal. "You know it is rather a queer thing; so many people confuse me with my husband, when really we are two distinct persons."

No one evidenced more anticipation than Mrs. David Crowell, who ranks as a "pioneer" in the suffrage movement.

"But you don't look old enough for a pioneer," said one.

"I was just a slip of a girl when I entertained Lucy Stone and Henry Blackwell at Fremont," she explained.

Mrs. Crowell was a member of the program committee which arranged for the appearance in Nebraska of Susan B. Anthony and Phoebe Cousins, many years ago. A feature of the Chicago convention will be a pioneer banquet which Mrs. Crowell will attend. Miss Ellen Harms of Kenedaw will also represent Nebraska on that occasion.

Mrs. Charles Dietrich, president of the Nebraska Suffrage association, has been in Chicago several days. Mrs. Charles Johannes and Mrs. E. S. Rood left Friday, February 6, for the convention city. In the Wednesday night party were Mesdames Jennie Callias, Draper Smith, Charles T. Neal, H. C. Sumner, James Richardson, David Crowell, Hester Cooper, Omaha; Mrs. W. E. Barkley and Miss Edna Bullock of Lincoln. Miss Bullock will also attend sessions of the All American Farmer Labor Co-operative conference meeting in Chicago February 12-14.

Train School Mothers. Mrs. E. A. Leonard will be hostess to the Train School Mothers' club Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at her home, 605 Cedar street. Mrs. E. Peterson will assist.

Eastern Star Bazaar. Fontenelle chapter O. E. S., 249, will hold a "home cooking" bazaar in the Red Cross rooms, first floor Masonic temple, Saturday afternoon, February 14.

Community Service. Friday, February 13—Dinner at Community house at 6:30 for Beche club. Dance at Auditorium at 8:30 given by the American Legion, who invite all clubs of the Girls' Community Service league to co-operate with them in making this dance a social success.

Amateur Musical Club. Mrs. Harry C. Nicholson will be hostess for the Amateur Musical club Friday afternoon, February 20.

Canteen Sewing Club. Mrs. George Redick will be hostess Tuesday afternoon for the members of Company B canteen.

Scottish Rite Women. The Scottish Rite Woman's club will hold a business meeting at the cathedral Friday, February 13, at 2 p. m. A social hour will follow.

West Omaha Mothers. West Omaha Mothers' Culture club will meet Friday, February 13, with Mrs. Blaine Truesdale, 5114 Capitol avenue.

Mrs. E. Hayden and daughter, Miss Ophelia Hayden, will leave for California as soon as they are sufficiently recovered from the influenza. Miss Edna Jones of Washington, D. C., who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Joseph Byrne, will accompany the Haydens.

Louis Knecher has recovered from a mild attack of influenza.

Federation Notes

An "Own Your Own Home" campaign is being promoted by the General Federation of Women's Clubs. Twenty cities are preparing for drives in home building and home owning.

The Twentieth Century club of Cambridge met Tuesday, February 10, with Mrs. H. Lawritson when the following program was given: Book review, "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," Mrs. E. J. Sherburne; sketch of the author, Blasco Ibanez; Mrs. J. W. Babcock; discussion of the books of the war by the entire club.

City engineering challenged the attention of the Woman's Civic club of Hastings at their recent monthly luncheon. Mr. Blackstone, engineer for the city of Hastings addressed the club.

Clubs and schools all over the state are co-operating in a variety of ways. Members of the Papillion Women's club and a large number of invited friends were entertained two weeks ago in Bell's hall when Mrs. F. B. Bell was hostess and the teachers of the Papillion school furnished the program. Burton Twitchell, of Omaha, community song leader, had charge of the entertainment. The Papillion Times, speaking of Mr. Twitchell's part on the program, says:

"After a short talk in which he explained the aim of the community work, how it originated to afford the soldiers amusement and recreation in the concentration and army camps and how its use had been expanded to afford clean, healthful amusement for others, he then got busy with the community sing idea and soon had everyone 'singing' their heads off whether all followed the tune or not. This broke the ice and many who had not opened their mouths to sing for years were hitting high C. After this a number of the community games were introduced and young and old were skating and sliding about the floor in utter oblivion of their age, race or previous condition of reserve and aloofness. People who had not indulged in games since the days of their youth were as keen and as interested as the younger set, and entered into the games with a zest that was gratifying in the extreme. All formality and stiff social ideals were laid aside for the time and enjoyed the program without stint."

Officers elected by the Curtis Woman's club for the coming year are: President, Mrs. S. W. Gilbert; vice president, Mrs. E. E. Patten; recording secretary, Mrs. B. E. Fahrney; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Earl Carstensen; treasurer, Mrs. B. K. Schaeffer. Tuesday, February 10, the club will meet with Mrs. W. S. Merrill.

Hofmann, Famous Pianist Modest Genius

"If the reader were by chance to be introduced to Josef Hofmann, the great pianist, and if he did not know Mr. Hofmann's profession, it would not be odd if the pianist mentioned no word about music," said Mrs. Lucien Stephens. "World-famous as he is, the master of all pianists is likewise a master of many other things, and, in any intellectual or scientific circle he is a brilliant figure with a modest person. Music has been the one great thing of his life, but the other sides of his makeup are no less striking. In appearance the pianist 'giant' is slightly under medium height, and of a solid, compactly built frame. He gives the immediate impression of great vitality and alertness. His forehead is broad and high, the mouth firm and with a trace of sadness at the corners. The eyes are deep set and his hair is tinged with gray."

"On the platform, Mr. Hofmann is the quietest of performers; without apparent effort his colossal strength crashes forth thunders of harmony. He sits almost without moving before the instrument as he performs those wonders that have for years amazed all pianists as well as his big general public of admirers. He steps upon the stage with a brisk, business like tread, very much as a busy man might enter his office, and he seats himself in the same manner. One knows instinctively that here is a master, unassuming and almost oblivious to the audience. When the waves of applause go rolling toward him, he acknowledges them with a simple, respectful inclination of the head. Throughout the entire recital, which he frequently plays without leaving the piano, his attitude is that of one profoundly wrapped in his work, concerned only with the perfect performance of every shade and meaning of the music."

Mr. Hofmann will be presented by the Tuesday Musical club at the Brandeis theater on Monday evening, February 23, at 8:15 o'clock.

Valentine Party. The entertainment committee of the Omaha club announces that there will be a Valentine dinner-dance at the club Saturday evening for members and their friends.

Miss Carita O'Brien is spending several weeks in New York and other eastern points.

Mrs. A. C. P. Farrell will leave the latter part of February for California, where she will spend several weeks.

Mrs. Howard Edwards, who has been in Omaha for several weeks, due to the illness of her father, the late P. E. Her, has returned to her home in New Jersey, accompanied by Mr. Edwards, who came to attend the funeral.

Economy Chairmen Hold a Conference and Extend Plans.

Chairmen of the Omaha committees of the "Woman's Army of Nebraska" met Wednesday afternoon at the Y. W. C. A. for a conference. Mrs. C. L. Hempel, local chairman, presided. Eleven churches in Omaha are enlisted in the campaign, 25 clubs and 30 unclassified organizations, including lodges. Twenty of this number were represented at the Wednesday meeting. Mrs. Hempel reported that 200 pledges and 200 resolutions supporting the economy campaign have been given out.

"We must reach the younger as well as the older women," said many speakers Wednesday afternoon. An effort will be made to enlist the interest and co-operation of organizations chiefly made up of young women.

Vamps—as related to shoes—came in for discussion. The short vamp seems to be replacing the long vamp in the world of fashion. This fact, in the opinion of chairmen, accounts for a reduction in the price of shoes during the past few weeks. It was stated that manufacturers are not sure whether the short vamp will "take" or not. It was evident at the Wednesday session of economy chairmen, that at least the present supply of shoes in their possession will be worn out before any new styles are purchased.

February 12, the date set by State Director Mrs. C. G. Ryan for filing reports, has been extended one week.

The open meeting of the Omaha Woman's club Monday, February 16, will be on the subject of the high cost of living. The home economics department will have charge and W. F. Baxter will speak. A general discussion will follow his talk.

George Crook Corps. George Crook Relief corps will meet in Memorial hall, court house, Friday at 2:30 p. m.

The Lincoln Woman's club has adopted resolutions endorsing the Nebraska economy campaign and pledging its support to the "Work and Save" movement.

Mrs. C. L. Gutterson of Broken Bow announces that she has appointed Mrs. J. H. Melville to head the economy movement in their city.

The Minden Woman's club presented an exhibit of pictures from the Lincoln Art Shop, February 4 to 7.

A unique entertainment was given by the Woman's club of Nebraska City recently when a Nebraska geography contest was presented. The losing side agreed to entertain the winners, and the obligation was fulfilled when a juvenile party was given at the home of Mrs. W. S.

Cornutt. Members went adorned in juvenile raiment and upon their arrival "went to" an old-fashioned school which was supervised by Miss Anne Stevenson.

Roosevelt Circle.

The Roosevelt Chautauqua circle will meet with Mrs. F. A. Cressey, 4202 South Twenty-second street, Friday evening.

Omaha Dorcas Club.

The Omaha Dorcas club will meet Friday, February 13, with Mrs. Fred Jorgenson, 1120 North Thirty-fourth street.

Do You Have Trouble With Your Feet?

Narrow toe shoes are responsible for most foot troubles, like this.

Your feet should be like this. They can be if you wear "Ground Grippers."

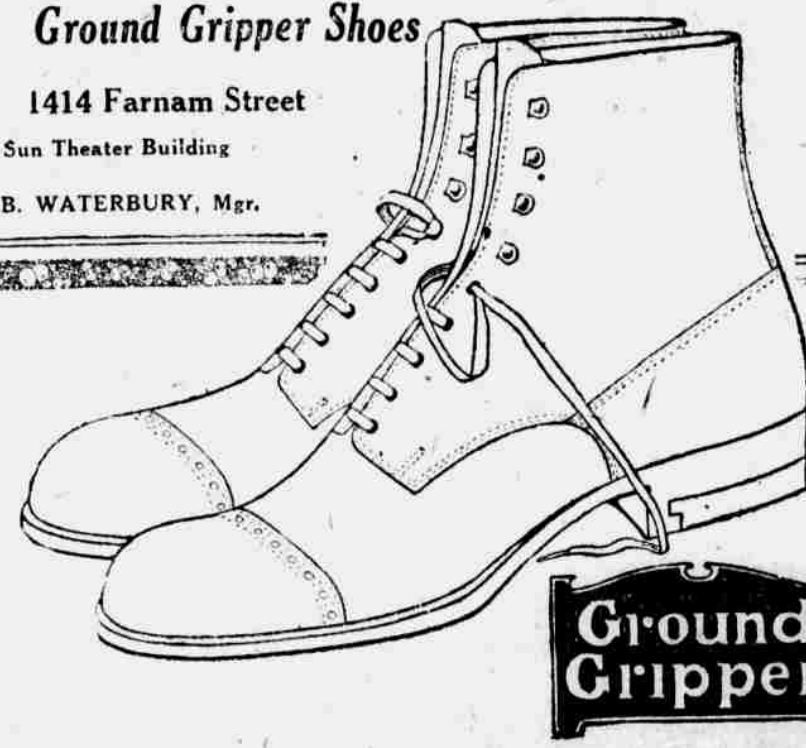

If everybody wore Ground Gripper shoes—corns, bunions, broken arches, and other foot troubles would be as rare as they now are common.

The "Ground Gripper" is not a freak shoe. On the contrary, it is a scientific shoe. Its style is uninfluenced by fad or fashion. It is designed to fit the normal human foot, while most shoes are designed to fit the "eye" and the "fancy."

We'll be glad to explain to you, without obligation, the scientific features of "Ground Grippers" and to show you why they are the ideal shoes for men, women and children.
