

LOWDEN NOT TO FIGHT PERSHING ON HOME GROUND

Friends Say Illinois Governor Believes That No Candidate Should Oppose "Favorite Son."

State Senator Clarence F. Buck of Monmouth, Ill., while in Omaha yesterday in the interests of the "Lowden-for-President" campaign, stated that Governor Lowden has not been an ardent seeker after political honors.

Governor Lowden has planned to file in Nebraska as a candidate, but has taken the stand that he would not file in any state where he has a favorite son as in the case of General Pershing in Nebraska.

"The industrial portions of Illinois were storm centers during the recent labor disputes," continued the senator. "With more than 100,000 men on strike, the situation was handled by Governor Lowden without the aid of federal troops and without any serious disturbances or loss of life. The federal government's final adjustment of the coal strike was made in line with his published suggestions."

PAINS NEARLY DOUBLED ME UP Nothing Helped Me Until I Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Wyandotte, Mich.—"For the last four years I have doctored off and on without help. I have had pains nearly doubled up. Sometimes I could not sleep a room without stopping and crying. The only thing I ate upset my stomach. Three years ago I lost a child and suffered so badly that I was out of my head at times. My bowels did not move for days and I could not eat without suffering. The doctor could not help me and one day I told my husband that I could not stand the pain any longer and sent him to the drug-store to get me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and throw the doctor's medicine away. After taking three bottles of Vegetable Compound and using two bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash I could do my own housework. If it had not been for your medicine, I don't know where I would be today and I am never without a bottle of it in my house. You may publish this if you like that it may help some other woman."—Mrs. MARY STENDER, 120 Orange St., Wyandotte, Mich.

PRICES DOWN ON ALL THINGS BUT FOWL AND MEATS

Butter and Eggs May Go Lower Still—Early Strawberries 90 Cents a Quart.

Skidding retail quotations on butter and eggs give encouragement for lower food prices. Strictly fresh eggs will be offered at several downtown stores yesterday at 50 cents a dozen, 5 cents under last week's price. Best grade storage eggs are selling generally at 40 cents, 10 cents lower than last week.

Predict Lower Butter. Several retail dealers predicted still lower butter and egg prices. The wholesale market has a heavy surplus of butter, and the warm weather of the last two weeks has increased egg production to such an extent prices are certain to show further declines, they said.

A few stores are offering them at 85 cents a peck.

Strawberries 90 Cents. If you would partake of early arriving strawberries, you will pay around 90 cents a quart box. They are not of the best quality, either. Wholesale prices for oranges jumped 50 cents a crate yesterday. Grape fruit offers nearly the only chance for a "cheap buy" in fruits.

BROTHER VAINLY SACRIFICES SELF TO SAVE SISTER

Mrs. David Allan Dies Friday—William Falconer, Nursing Her, Died Thursday.

The story of a brother's vain sacrifice for his sister, with the deaths of both of them within a day of each other, is found in the death Thursday of William Falconer, 2618 North Twenty-seventh street, a brother of City Commissioner Thomas B. Falconer, and yesterday at 1:30 p. m. of his sister, Mrs. David Allan, 2066 North Twenty-seventh street. In addition, the wife of the dead brother, William Falconer, who assisted her husband in attempting the nursing of his sister, lies dangerously ill at her home.

Last night the bodies of sister and brother lay in the home of the dead sister, the burial of the man to take place this morning, and that of the woman Monday.

Whether or not the death of the brother contributed to the breakdown of the sister could not be said, but she sank rapidly and expired at 1:30 Friday, within a day of the death of her brother. Mrs. Allan was born 35 years ago. Mr. Falconer was 41 years old.

case in the city, nurses could not be obtained and William Falconer and his wife undertook to care for the sister and sister-in-law. Infection attacked Mrs. Allan, and the care of the brother and his wife redoubled. This resulted in the brother becoming stricken with the disease and he rapidly collapsed, giving way before the sister, whom he had undertaken to bring back to health, his death occurring Thursday of pneumonia.

Mrs. Falconer also became ill and was placed under the care of physicians, her condition now being serious.

Consolidated Ticket Offices to Remain as Roads Are Returned

Washington, Feb. 13.—Consolidated ticket offices established during the federal operation of railroads will be retained in most large cities when the roads are returned to private control, according to information received at the railroad administration.

Most of the companies were said to have endorsed the public convenience and economics afforded by grouping the sales forces instead of having them scattered. Chicago, it is said, may abandon the plan because one of the biggest roads there has insisted on having a place exclusively for its own business.

for firemen has been invented, supplied with current by storage batteries and the entire equipment carried on a man's back by suspenders.
