

FAITHHEALER TO HOLD MISSION IN COUNCIL BLUFFS

London Churchman to Minister to Sick and Suffering of Iowa and Nebraska March 23-24.

James Moore Hickson, Episcopal faith healer, will conduct a healing mission on March 23 and 24 at St. Pauls Episcopal church, Council Bluffs, according to an announcement made by Rev. Willford Ernst...

Applications Already Received. Applications have already been received for appointments with the Episcopal healer from places more than 150 miles from Council Bluffs.

Endorsed by Doctors. The medical association of one large eastern city assured Mr. Hickson of its endorsement of his work. Cases were cited by the medical men where decidedly beneficial results followed his ministrations...

To prepare applicants for participation in the healing mission, W. E. Mann, rector, will conduct special educational conferences beginning next Friday at 10 a. m. Sunday evening services, starting tonight will be devoted to explanation of details of the mission.

All sick and suffering, regardless of creed or faith, will be welcomed by the healer, it is announced.

Stirring Armchair Tales of Revolution Delight 19 Patton Great-Grandchildren

Aged Omaha Grandsire Spins War Yarn About Father In 1776.

Stirring armchair tales of how great-grandfather Tristram Patton served as a staff officer in the campaigns of Gen. George Washington in the war of the revolution form one of the delights of the big family of great-grandchildren of Columbus Patton, 91 years old, who lives with his daughter, Mrs. R. J. Donn, 4317 Barker avenue.

The children reach the height of happiness when they find an opportunity to climb on "grandpa's" knee and draw him into an orgy of storytelling. There are 19 of them now, so calls for repetition of the stories are frequent.

"Grandpa" takes them back to the days of a big fireplace in a farm house in old Virginia, where the adventures of campaigning with Washington were related to him by his father, Tristram Patton. He tells of the epaulettes, sword and spurs saved by his father as trophies of his war experiences as a member of Washington's staff, and recalls the stories handed down to him of the winter at Valley Forge and the triumph at Yorktown.

The photograph shows him with his great-grandson, Morris Patton, son of Austin Patton of Woodbine, Iowa.

His father's stories of the revolution stand out more clearly than any other childhood memories, Columbus Patton says. He was 12 years old when his father died in 1840, at the age of 94. Tristram Patton retained his faculties to the last, the 91-year-old son says, and enjoyed doming his revolutionary sword and spurs for the entertainment of his 14 children.

Columbus was No. 13 in the family, coming into the world a few minutes after his twin sister, Margaret. He is the only one of the 14 now living.

Gasoline Tainted Butter. Lincoln, Feb. 14.—The wide use of gasoline engines in small creameries and on farms is resulting in a material increase in the amount of butter tainted with gasoline, buyers in the middle west report.

Blind Coroner in Vaudeville. Atlanta, Ga., Feb. 14.—Paul Donohoo, Atlanta's widely-known blind coroner, is going into vaudeville. Besides being a coroner and a lawyer, Donohoo is an accomplished musician. He will play the Loew vaudeville circuit during his month's vacation, and if he likes it may continue.

Truck Gardens Urged By Agricultural Dept.

Washington, Feb. 14.—Gardens are going to be just as important the coming season as during the war period, United States Department of Agriculture specialists declared today. High food costs, they say, are likely to remain until more to eat is grown and distributed. Farm gardens, village gardens and city backyard gardens all will help, they declare. They point out that food produced in the garden not only helps balance the family budget, but releases that grown on farms for the use of people who are entirely dependent upon others.

Pays Dime Debt After 7 Years—Conscience Hurt

Memphis, Tenn., Feb. 14.—Elmer Green, Mitchell, Ind., has sent Walter Simmons, Louisville hardware dealer, 10 cents which he has owed for seven years on a base ball glove. "I owe you 10 cents on a base ball mitt I bought seven years ago," Green writes. "So I hope you will forgive me and let me know if you will accept the dime. The Lord has saved me, and I have had no peace because I haven't paid you. I want to make everything right so I won't have to come up short at the judgment bar of God."

Failure to Stop Will Cause Motorman's Arrest

Chicago, Feb. 14.—Long suffering strap-hangers are to have revenge for being forced to stand on frigid street corners while unheeding motormen run their cars by. Commissioner of Public Service William H. Reed announced that hereafter the offending motormen will be arrested.

Lincoln, Feb. 14.—Carrie Hessel-tine, 1911, and formerly a member of the faculty at the Curtis school of agriculture, writes from Maunbin, Burma, where she is a teacher in a missionary school.

Supreme In Distinction

The Super-Six Has Always Been the Pattern Car

Hudson Outsell All Fine Cars

We have never sought to develop the Hudson Super-Six as the greatest speed and power car in the world.

It is true that in speed—in hill-climbing—in quick acceleration—no stock car ever matched it. Official records show that. But they are incidental. They were made in tests to prove Hudson endurance.

A Distinctive Design An Exclusive Motor

Surely these great performance qualities are enough to account for Hudson's five years of leadership as the largest selling fine car in the world. Any owner would take pride in a car that none has equalled in any worth-while performance record.

Yet a large class of Hudson buyers selected it for an altogether different quality.

Thousands chose it with an eye single to its beauty, charm and notable appearance. They hold none can surpass it in distinction. For the Hudson looks its supremacy in every line.

But it is idle to think that those who primarily seek fine appearance in a car, do not value the mechanical superiority of the Hudson Super-Six.

That extra reserve power means utter smoothness—due to less vibration than any other type ever achieved. It means less than half load in ordinary driving.

That, too, is a matter of record. The official proofs are open to all.

In the exclusive Super-Six motor efficiency is increased 80%. Motor power is increased 72%, without added size or cylinders. Endurance is almost doubled.

Its type gives Hudson every advantage. Why pay as much or more for a lesser car?
