OMAHAMEN MUST INCREASE SIZE STAND TRIAL ON OF STATE SENATE BLUFFS CHARGE TO 50 MEMBERS

Private Quarrels Must Be Settled Outside of Governor's Office Ruling Of Barrows.

Lincoln, Feb. 14.—(Special.)—Bootleggers and other criminals must settle their private quarrels outside the office of the governor of Nebraska, according to action taken by Acting Governor P. A. Barrows, who granted a requisition asked for by the governor of Iowa to take to Council Bluffs three men, Tom Kelly, Wiley Compton and F. Cain alias "Ping Pong," charged with entering the home of N. C. Arbuckle in Council Bluffs and robbing the house of articles of jewelry and money said to be worth $1,030. Application was made by Harry Fiehart, Omaha attorney, for postponement of the hearing on the grounds that if given time he could bring witnesses to show Arbuckle had said that no jewelry had been stolen, but that he made the charge for the purpose of forcing the men to pay him for a lot of booze they had stolen when they broke into the house.

"Do I understand Mr. Fiehart," asked the acting governor, "that you contend that no jewelry was stolen and that the charge of stealing the jewelry was made by one bootlegger against other bootleggers of the same gang simply that he might force them to settle for the booze they had stolen from him?"

"That is about the size of it," answered the attorney.

"In that case your application for a further hearing is denied and the requisition is granted and I want it understood right now that it is entirely out of place for any set of bootleggers to come into the governor's office of this state with any kind of a proposition to settle their personal quarrels."

The requisition was then signed and handed to Sheriff W. A. Groneweg of Pottawattomie county, Iowa, and the hearing closed.

Appeal Jury Trial Ruling On State Liquor Cases

Lincoln, Feb. 14.—(Special.)—In a case appealed from Lancaster county to the state supreme court the latter court holds that a person charged with the illegal possession or transportation of intoxicating liquor has no right to demand a jury trial.

The court says that it is within the power of the legislature to enact a law declaring possession and transportation of intoxicating liquors to be a misdemeanor and provide that violators may be tried before magistrates and police courts without jury, where the penalty does not exceed a fine of $100 or imprisonment for three months.

Spring Time Favorites—

Taffeta Frocks

Early frocks indicate a penchant for elaborateness in trimming and styles. New features are novel pleating and ruffles, draped effects, and the new Harem skirts. Hints of the Colonial, in close Basque-type bodice, vary with the becoming long waistslines. Rich embroidery, fancy stitchings and braidings are much in evidence in trimmings.

We particularly recommend the fluffy Taffeta Frocks for the miss—and in women's sizes to 40. Above that size more becoming lines will be found in exquisite models of Charmeuse, Satins, Tricolettes and Georgette combinations. Features of the Spring models are graceful long lines in draperies and girdles in contrast shades. Braidings are a favorite mode of trimming, with dainty laces used in collars.

Spring shades present Browns, Beaver, Taupe, Wisteria and the much-demanded Navy Blues.

Complete line of new models, range in price—

Artificial Teeth That Are Artistic, Comfortable and Serviceable

The MORRIS-THIN denture unites these splendid qualities, and gives the wearer the product of years of research and development.

No branch of dentistry is so unsatisfactory alike to dentist and patient as that of Artificial Dentures, because of the lack of skill and experience on the part of one and natural distaste on the part of the other.

By establishing a special department for Artificial Dentures and selecting for it men of both talent and experience, we have eliminated our part of the great handicap, and are now able to produce dentures that are wonderfully satisfactory. The beauty of our dentures will overcome any distaste the patient may have.

We urge you to visit our consultation rooms and learn more about these fine dentures.

Our fees are very low for the class of service we are rendering.
