

CHILDREN GIVEN MORE QUESTIONS ON STATE BIRDS

Winners in the Contest of Audubon Society Will Be Awarded Valuable Prizes.

Junior memberships in the Nebraska Audubon society can be earned by Omaha school children by paying 10 cents and entering the nature study contest to be inaugurated by the society.

The contest will consist in answering 20 questions on bird life and plant life of species common in Nebraska and the vicinity of Omaha. These questions will be selected from the series of 200 which are now being published by the society to be studied by prospective contestants.

The questions are prepared by leaders of the Audubon society, among them professors of nature studies in the various state colleges and universities.

Many Valuable Prizes. Winners of the contest will be given valuable prizes by the society, ranging from books on nature study and bird life, to field glasses, hiking boots, compasses, etc.

The date of the contest, and governing rules will be announced later.

The fourth group of questions follows:

33. How many eyes has a honey bee?
34. How many legs has a honey bee?
35. Having neither nose nor ears, how does a bee smell?
36. How is the bee's tongue protected?
37. When not in use, where does Miss Anna keep her tongue?
38. Where is the honey sac?
39. What is honey dew?
40. Tell About Queen Bee.
41. How does the Queen Bee differ from an ordinary bee?
42. What is her chief occupation?
43. Through what stages do the eggs pass?
44. Where does a meadow lark build its nest?
45. What bird always goes up a tree trunk?
46. What bird builds no nest, but lays its eggs in other birds' nests?
47. How can you always locate the points of the compass by the trees in the woods?
48. What bird's nest is like a tobacco pouch?
49. Why do shrikes impale their prey on thorns or other sharp objects?
50. What bird goes with equal facility up and down a tree trunk?
51. What color is a male scarlet tanager?
52. What color is the head of a young red-headed woodpecker?
53. What bird is called the thistle-bird?

Two Policemen Quit Omaha Department To Take Up Farming

After 25 years' service in the police department, Capt. Carl Madsen, South Side station, tendered his resignation yesterday to become effective March 1. Captain Madsen will go to live on his farm in Sarpy county, he says. He is 51 years old.

The captain became a patrolman on July 10, 1895. He received his first promotion to the grade of sergeant in May, 1909. In June, 1918, he was made captain.

Desk Sergeant W. C. Smith, on duty at Central police station, has tendered his resignation to Chief of Police Eberstein, to take effect March 1. Sergeant Smith will take up farming near Sargent, Neb. He has been a member of the police department for 12 years. Five years ago he was made desk sergeant at South Side station, from where he was transferred to Central station three years later. Before leaving Omaha for his new home Sergeant Smith will take a 10-day leave, beginning Tuesday.

Aviators to Circle Over Cemetery When Ashmusen Is Buried

Lieut. W. A. Wagner, Omaha, and Lieut. A. J. Nielson, Council Bluffs, aviators, plan to circle above West Lawn cemetery in airplanes this afternoon during burial ceremonies for Henry W. Ashmusen, Aero club member and aviation enthusiast, who died Thursday. According to plans, they will scatter flowers from directly above the grave. Only unfavorable weather will prevent carrying out of aerial ceremony, they stated yesterday.

Pallbearers will be: Andrew Palm, William Weymuller, H. B. Shook, Otto Baysdorfer, R. B. Coleman, and N. B. Gould.

Attorney Scores Probation Officer in Juvenile Court

Excitement marked the hearing of the James McFadden case in juvenile court yesterday. McFadden and his wife, Lena, have separated and complaint was that the father was not treating his three young sons properly. A. Noble, probation officer said he didn't think the McFaddens can live peaceably together. Thomas Hollister, attorney for McFadden leaped to his feet.

"Any officer of this court who will stand here and do anything to disrupt a family is not, in my opinion, fit to be an officer of the court," he exclaimed. Negotiations to unite the family failed when McFadden said he could not contribute $20 a week.

Judge Scolds Mother for 11-Year-Old Son's Truancy

"If you work hard and give this boy of yours a lot of money and turn him loose on the streets, you're a blamed old fool and ought to have a guardian," Judge Sears told Mrs. Anna Ruchter, 283 1/2 North Seventeenth street, in juvenile court yesterday. Mrs. Ruchter's 11-year-old son, John, was in court for truancy. When he was arrested he had about $6 in his possession. Johnnie at first told the judge his mother gave him the money. Then he said he earned it "trussing kindling." Judge Sears sent him to the Kearney Industrial school. He had already been sentenced there on a previous occasion, the sentence being held in abeyance pending his future conduct.
