Important to all Women Readers of this Paper

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney or bladder trouble and never suspect it. Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease.

If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased. You may suffer pain in the back, headache and loss of ambition.

Poor health makes you nervous, irritable and may be despondent; it makes any work a burden. But hundreds of women claim that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, by restoring health to the kidneys, proved to be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions.

counting Sundays) which begins on Ash Wednesday and ends with Easter. Easter comes on April 4, this year. Many people practice self-denial, fasting or "giving up" something during this period and practicing devotion and prayer.

Clay Products Plants In East Inspected By Nebraska Men

J. E. Haarmann, president of the newly-organized Nebraska Clay Products company, and Z. Wirt, superintendent of construction for the company, have just returned from a trip east, where they inspected more than 20 of the most modern clay products plants.

"We found brick and tile plants with orders booked ahead for a year," said Mr. Haarmann. "All of them are swamped with business, and most of the executives to whom we talked said they were pleased to know that Nebraska is, at last, to develop her clay resources."

Divorce Courts

Anna Kammer was granted a divorce in divorce court from Charles Kammer, a plumber in employ of the government at Fort Omaha. She alleged that he struck her and treated her cruelly otherwise. Custody of their child was given to Mrs. Kammer with the provision that it shall be given to Mrs. Julia Kammer, 114 1/2 Frederick street, mother of the defendant, two days each month.

Allegations of extreme cruelty won a divorce for Robert Knight from Harriet Knight in divorce court. Judge Wakeley signing the decree.

Sadie Spencer was awarded a divorce from John Spencer in divorce court on grounds of cruelty.

Dulsie Fodisch was granted a divorce from Roy Fodisch by Judge Sears in divorce court on allegations of extreme cruelty and non-support.

Because Donald Gray told his bride, Ruth Gray, immediately after their marriage at Dakota City, December 4, 1919, that he was suffering from tuberculosis, she refused to live with him and their marriage was annulled in divorce court by Judge Sears. Mrs. Gray says her husband concealed his affliction from her until after the wedding ceremony.

Though Herman Schuler is not ordered to pay any alimony in the decree of divorce awarded his wife, Jennie, by Judge Leslie in divorce court, he is given permission to see the children which are given to Mrs. Schuler's custody. Schuler was restrained from interfering with his former wife.

Custody of the child and alimony of $15 a month were granted to Helen Franks in a decree of divorce from Louis Franks given her by Judge Sears in divorce court on grounds of extreme cruelty.

Isaac Brooks was granted a divorce from May Brooks on ground of abandonment in divorce court, Judge Sears signing the decree.

Anna Patrick asked the district court for a divorce from William Patrick to whom she was married November 3, 1917. She alleges desertion.

Benjamin Jones alleges in a petition filed in district court that his wife, Anna Jones, is really the wife of Henry Henderson of Clinton county, Mo. Benjamin married her in 1915, but he says he has learned since then that her former husband is living and she has not been divorced from him. Benjamin is 58 years old. He says his wife married Henderson 18 days ago.

Tuesday First Day Since Jan. 14 No "Flu" Reported

Tuesday was the first day since January 14 that the health department has reported "No influenza cases reported." Only two new cases have been reported this week. Twenty-one deaths were reported yesterday, three being from influenza and six from pneumonia.

STOMACH SO BAD SHE HAD LOST ALL HOPE

Suffered agony for 8 years, and then got well in a hurry.

"I suffered from stomach trouble for 8 years—had acute indigestion for 4 years. All that time I have not slept a wink before 2 in the morning, and lived on milk and soup. My stomach was one solid sore.

"Doctors said I had catarrh and neuritis of the stomach, also female trouble for which I needed an operation. I was nothing but a living skeleton and had given up hope.

La Belle France and Columbia In Pageant Of American Legion

Miss Helene Bixby.

Miss Helene Bixby, 5435 Florence boulevard, will appear as "Columbia" and Mrs. Irving Benolken, 532 North Thirty-second avenue, as "La Belle France" in the pageant to be presented at Central High school auditorium at 3 p. m. next Sunday in connection with the ceremonial presentation of French war memorials to relatives of Omaha soldiers and sailors who sacrificed their lives in the world war.

The pageant cast will include members of the First Baptist church quartet, Mrs. Mabel Allen-Smails, soprano soloist; Miss Margaret Bradway, alto; Ross Johnson, tenor, and Forest Dennis, bass. Between 50 and 60 persons will take part in the pageant, according to announcement of American Legion officials in charge.

Franklin Instructor Opens School Store To Teach Arithmetic

The pupils of the ungraded room at Franklin school are being taught practical arithmetic through the operation of a school store which has been opened in their room by their teacher, Miss Enid Kenefick, assisted by Mrs. Blanche Cowgill, educational director, and Miss Mary Marston, advertising manager, of Burgess-Nash Co.

These boys and girls are eager for the daily hour when they may "go shopping." Standard packages have been supplied by manufacturers, the cans, bottles and paper boxes being the same as they appear in the ordinary grocery store, with the exception that in this instance they are empty. The children use paper and cardboard money in the usual denominations for their business transactions, and they have a "First National Bank" for their financial affairs.

Mrs. Cowgill and Miss Marston are to visit other schools and deliver talks on "Salesmanship."

Office Equipment

—Steel or Wood —To fit any Office

Special Display All this Week

The orderly arrangement and adequate equipment of an office is always a valuable asset and should receive as much consideration as the careful selection of employes.

Records—that are worth keeping are worthy of fire protection, should be easily found, and filed with due regard for the economizing of space.

Modern desks, typewriter desks, accounting desks, files, shelving, drawer space—even chairs should be considered in the light of a heavy payroll and clerks who work to advantage or disadvantage.

If You Cannot Possibly Attend in Person, Send a Representative—

Marriage License Blanks Not Absolutely Necessary

A little thing like lack of marriage license blanks wouldn't keep the county judge from issuing licenses in Douglas county, Chief Clerk Clyde Sundblad said yesterday. "I saw that news item from Denver saying that marriage licenses there had to be held up until new blanks could be printed. If we were so careless as to allow our supply to run out here we would write them by hand.

"Not long ago County Judge Crawford issued a license at his home by just writing it out on a piece of paper."
