NEW BUILD

Wrecking the Old Building to Make Room for the New Burgess-Nash Store Building

We count it a large part of our service of our public to find and gather here the things that are thoroughly good—that will give complete satisfaction to our customers, while bearing fair and moderate prices. During our New-Building Sale we are reducing prices on all kinds of dependable merchandise that we haven't room for—regardless of whether prices are advancing or not. Look over the items in this advertisement, and see how much you can save by buying now. No foresighted man or woman will miss the opportunities presented except at their loss, when they buy later on. Attend "Our New-Building Sale."
