18 Months in Prison Sentence for Attempt To Murder Erzberger

C 1920 BY INTL FEATURE SERVICE. INC

Berlin, Feb. 22 .- "I was confaced that Erzberger was working for English money for private gain only," Ensign Von Hirschfield told the court at his trial, when asked the motive which actuated his alleged attempt at murder upon the miniser of finance.

The young officer admitted that Dr. Karl Helfferich's pamphlet, "Away With Erzberger," served as one source of his information, while other acts such as Herr Erzberger's change of front on the question of annexation heightened his antipathy. He described the method of his attack, repeatedly asserting that he had intended only to wound Erzberger so as to confine him to his bed for several weeks.

Alienists who examined Ensign Von Hirschfield pronounced his act 'the deed of a fanatic suffering from hallucinations. Ensign Von Hirschfield was sen

One Thousand Dads and Boys Hear Special Program of Speech and Song at Y. M. C. A.

A thousand Omaha men and boys crowded the Young Men's Christian association gymnasium yesterday afternoon at the father and son meeting which closed "Father and Son week" in Omaha.

W. E. Reed, president of the Omaha school board, presided. "Too many of we fathers have allowed the dust of time to get in our eyes," he said. "We need to be pals to our sons. They expect it of us and they have a right to expect it. Go on hikes with them; go down to the old swimming hole. And let the boys see that you enjoy it as much as they do. Don't make a duty of it, but a pleasure." Mayor Principal Speaker.

Mayor Ed P. Smith made the rincipal address. He was introduced by a high school boy, Linas Anderson, as "a successful father." "You boys are starting on a big campaign and I am going to help you with a platform, said Mayor Smith. "Your campaigns will be for big jobs and great responsibilities and accomplishments in the world of tomorrow. And your platform must be made of planks signifying integrity, industry and morality." High School Boy Speaks.

Ralph Campbell, a high school boy, made a short address. Ford E. Hovey, president of the Stock Yards National bank, gave a "Welcome to One of the big hits of the meeting was singing by the Y. M. C. A. boys' choir, consisting of about 40 lads from 12 to 14 years of age. They had to sing four selections before the big audience was satisfied. Bee Want Ads are the Best Busi-
