Minuet Presented At Saunders School;

Boys and girls of the Sixth, Seventh and Eighth grades of Saunders school presented a joint Lincoln and Washington program yesterday afternoon in the hallway

GREAT HEAVENS

THAT-

of the school.

One of the interesting features was a minuet which was cleverly executed by Dick Sinclair, Thomas Kennedy, Harold Swenson, Darrell Simpson, Jean Robbins, Helen Brown Ruth Rigdon and Margaret Davison. This terpsichorean effort of the youngsters received applause from the parents who were present. The children read quotations from Lincoln and Washington and of-fered stories of their lives. Lincoln's Gettysburg address and "The Per-fect Tribute" were read. The clos-ing feature of the entertainment was community singing, which in-cluded "The Star Spangled Banner," 'America" and other patriotic se-

Speaking of Creeds:

We, at the Lion office, are trying to formulate, in a single sentence, our ideal as to our institution having a conscience, a heart, and a soul.

A corporation with heart and soul! A thing of dollars having a conscience! Certainly, what is more, it must have these attributes if it would grow great. An insurance company, like a bank, may attain moderate success through mechanical functioning, but it can never reach real eminence in the great field of Life, unless it really has principle, and character-it must stand for something.

The Lion Bonding and Surety Company stands for stability, but it also stands for something more—and we will tell you about this next week.

Rich Royalties in the Louisiana Oil Fields

Over Three Million Dollars Expense With the Other Fellow Paying It

Would you like to be interested in a project where other men have so much faith in it that they will expend over three million dollars? And you be in on the profits, but none of the expense except your initial investment!

Here's Your Opportunity

We have a sixteenth royalty in over 500 acres in the Bull Bayou Field, being in Sec. 29, Tp. 13, R. 10. Look at the map and note how section 29 is surrounded by producing wells, and how close to the gushers. We regard this as absolutely proven oil land. We also have a sixteenth royalty on 40 acres in the Homer Field, right in the trend of the big wells. And these are about the largest high grade oil wells in the whole world.

It is estimated that to fully drill out this acreage would cost over three million dollars, there being ample room for 130 wells. This great expense will be paid by the leaseholders. That is the great advantage of investing in royalties over any other branch of the oil business. Buyers of our units will have no expense besides their initial investment-no expense for drilling, no rentals, no marketing expense, no salaries to officers. When the wells come in our unit holders simply get their share of all oil delivered to the pipe lines.

Make your own estimate of what our interests will be worth after this choice acreage is fully developed-with the law of average to back you. That is how we are placing our money. Do you want to do the same? For a short time we are going to offer a limited number of units for 12.50 each. How many do you want? Don't delay and then regret your lost opportunity. Some locations have already been made on this acreage. After the wells are brought in, of course, the price will be greatly increased.

Fill out the coupon below for amount of your remittance and number of units you want. We will then send you certificate for same.

Office Continue to Increase In Number

The great rush of patriots willing to give their services to the county, state and nation continues as shown by filings in the office of Election Commissioner Moorhead for the primaries which will be held on George N. Collins, democrat, and L. N. Bunce, republican, are among the recent candidates to file. They both seek nomination for justice of the peace. John W. Robbins, re-publican, filed for state senator. Edward Palmer and Frank E. Stone, republicans; and Samuel H. Grace and W. E. McMahon, democrats, filed their names for nomination to be state representatives from this district. Augustus Doll, re-publican, seeks to be elected road overseer of District No. 15.
