JACK DEMPSEY IS INDICTED AS DRAFT EVADER

Jack Kearns, His Manager Also Accused of Conspiracy to Violate Selective Service Act.

Universal Service Staff Correspond San Francisco, Feb. 26. True bills were voted today against Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion o the world, and his manager, Jack Kearns by the United States grand jury. Indictments will be returned against the accused men Friday, when the jury makes its final report to the United States district court. The jury voted after hundreds of leters written by Dempsey to his wife, Maxine Dempsey, and other documentary evidence were placed before the jury by United States Attorney Adams. As a result of evidence secured the grand jury immediately began an investigation of charges placed by the United States attorney that Frank Spellman, a Los Angeles moving picture pro-moter, had perjured himself when he testified before that body when called as a witness for the govern-

The federal grand jury investigation of Dempsey was the result of charges made by Mrs. Maxine Dempsey, his divorced wife, that at the time Dempsey secured deferred classification in the draft, she was supporting him and he was not supporting her. She claimed to have letters written by Dempsey to prove that he and others conspired to evade military service. These charges were denied, and Mrs. Dempsey on being given an initial payment of $1,500, signed an affidavit that her charges against Dempsey were not true.

"And some day we'll run away and get married"

We wonder if you, reader, ever said this to some little girl or had it said to you? Nellie and Jimmie are just like all first lovers even as you and I. We will see each other in them. We'll laugh at them-we'll sorrow with them-we'll thrill with them because they're human-they're us! Griffith, the master, has made them so in "The Greatest Question."

OCENARIO writers figure the average age of the moving picture audience as eight years. Which is an unripe old age compared to the composite age of scenario writers.

Figuring on that, we are all entitled to trayel on half-fare from the neck up. The senate is in the first bloom of its second childhood, and corporation lawyers, bank presidents and cotillion leaders should all get their hats in the boys' department. The average citizen is a sapp who eats in Childs' wears a belt and is good to his mother. Childs' is a healthy place to eat. You always come out of one of those restaurants with an appetite. As for the belts, the A. E. F. proved that we could and can wallop any nation that wears suspenders. In no trait is the average sapp more juvenile than in his wardrobe.

You can judge a man by his clothes. Correct.

You can judge a man by his clothes. But you can convict him by his hat Very correct.

There are all kinds of sapps. There is the sapp whose stomach can't stand ocean trips, but can ride forever in a Ford. The sapp who buys a girl an installment diamond and then spends the rest of his life sparring with the bill collector. Buying installment jewelry is like paying alimony on a dead hoss. Strike an average in the sapp ward and you can call the result Everysapp. The place where the sapp runs loosest is in a hat works. Everysapp s a lobb who wears his hat just the way the salesman fixes it on his knob. He walks out as if he were balancing it instead of wearing it. You've got to be a juggler to wear the skull pans they make nowadays,

Woman's crowning glory is her hair. It hides the shape of her

But Everysapp goes into a bonnet foundry baldheaded. He goes into the hat clinic to buy the latest disease in hats and comes out uninto the hat clinic to buy the latest disease in hats and comes out under an M. P. Which doesn't mean Member of Parliament, Mounted Police, but Pocket Money for the three-card monte expert who wisbes, the head dish on him. An M. P. is on old style that's been laying around the store so long that the mice use it for a garage. It's an orphan hat that never had a father and mother to pick out for father. When Every-sapp rattles into the works, M. P. is the countersign. By getting rid of the old style to a customer instead of the ashman, the salesman grabs a percentage on the daylight robberty. percentage on the daylight robbery.

Everysapp is a guy who buys the first soup tureen that he tries on. That is, he thinks he's trying it on. The salesman stands about four feet away and rings Everysapp with it like a quoit. No matter what part of his head it lights on, it's sure to fit some corner.

Then the hat chauffeur rings up a lot of mirrors like a Philadet-phia busybody, which enables Everysapp to see how much better the hat will look when he has his shoes shined. Can you blame the Senate for not signing that Treaty of Peace when guerilla warfare like this is still going on? The M. P. generally has a bow in the back to at-tract attention from the front.

Close Contests Feature Church League Play at Y. M. C. A.; One Game Takes 20 Extra Minutes.

Benson M. E. basket ball squarupset the dope in the Y. M. C. A. Church league last night when they trounced the Pearl M. E., leaders of the league, 11 to 4. The Benson quintet is third in the league, while the Pearls are still leading.

Neither aggregation came up te expectations in shooting baskets Calvert of the Benson quintet made five of his team's points. The abthe Pearl aggregation, was noticed. It took the First M. E. 20 extra minutes of playing before they could conquer the Hanscom Park quintet. The final score was 15 to 14. The First M. E. was leading throughout the game until the last 20 seconds of play when Crowley shot a foul goz and tied the score.

In the first five minutes of extra playing both squads failed to make a basket. In the second extra five minutes each aggregation made a basket. The score stood 12 to 12 Each squad scored another basket in the third extra five minutes.

After 15 extra minutes a foul was called on the Hanscom Parks, which resulted in their defeat. In a close contest the M. E. Wonwon from the Calvary Baptist by the score of 18 to 16. Reeves of the Wops registered seven tallies, while Weiser of the Baptists scored 11
