END OF EIGHT YEARS MISERY
 Used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Recovered.

Newark, N. J.—"The doctor said I had an organic trouble and treated me for several weeks. At times I could not walk at all and I suffered with my back and limbs so I often had to stay in bed. I suffered for and on for eight years. Finally I heard that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was a good medicine and tried it with splendid effect. I can now do my housework and my washing. I have recommended your Vegetable Compound and your Blood Medicine and three of my friends are taking them to advantage. You can use my name for a testimonial."—Mrs. THERESA COVENTRY, 75 Burnett St., Newark, N. J.

RUSH TO FILE MARKS CLOSING OF ESSAY LIST

Work of Judging Begins Immediately—Winners Get Medals On Washington Free Trip.

The time for filing essays by school children on the subject of benefits of enlistment in the United States army, in the national essay contest, conducted by the army as part of its big recruiting drive, expired yesterday.

During the past several days more than 100 essays per day were received at the Army building, and the indications yesterday were that the mails would bring enough to maintain the daily average. The work of judging the essays to select the district winner, whose essay will compete in the national contest, will begin at once.

Interest in the essay contest developed throughout the state and in Iowa, according to Maj. A. E. Whitworth in charge of the office, and in many towns local prizes for winners have been offered. In Carroll, Ia., he said, merchants had subscribed more than $500 in prizes. Similar offers were made in other towns.

The medals to be awarded the three winners of the national contest, when they and their parents go to Washington as guests of the wounded soldiers at the Walter Reed hospital there, will depict on one side a soldier handing a child a wreath, with the name of the winner and the occasion on the other. They will be about the size of a silver dollar, in gold, silver and bronze. Corp. Henry C. Wild, on duty at the hospital designed the medals.
