

ASK HIGH COURT OF NATIONS PLAN FROM THE HAGUE

Neutrals Agree on Salient Points After Long Period of Study—To Be Submitted to League.

The Hague, Feb. 28.—(By the Associated Press.)—As a result of conferences held at The Hague peace palace by representatives of Holland, Switzerland and the Scandinavian countries, the Dutch government is requested to present to the secretary of the league of nations the plan for a high court of nations agreed upon after long study by these neutrals.

The salient points of the plan are as follows: Complete equality of states in the nomination of members of the court. The court must be free of every political influence, the judges being independent in their actions of the influence even of the governments which appointed them. The law faculties of universities to be consulted in the selections of membership.

Nominations of Judges.

The nominations of judges to be for nine years of life; the judges must live in the city selected as the permanent site of the court. Salaries and costs to be shared equally by the members of the league.

States not members of the league to be permitted to participate in the court's benefits, appearing as plaintiffs or defendants. The interests of private persons to be tried only insofar as their state takes over their claim.

Only International Cases.

The court only to decide cases of an international legal character. The general procedure to follow the plan approved by the second peace conference of 1907.

Each party in a suit to pay his own expenses. It was explained to the correspondent that while the nations participating in this conference are not bound by the plan advanced, they the agreed in all its phases. Each of these nations had drafted an individual plan, and the conference coordinated them at Holland's invitation.

board for the purpose of attempting by conference to agree upon a solution of this wage problem.

"In accordance with the assurance I gave last August and repeated in substance in my letter of the 13th instant, I shall at once request the carriers and the employes to join in this action. I believe such a step will go far toward clarifying and maturing the subject for final disposition. In fact, the sort of board thus contemplated by section 301 appears to be an appropriate substitute for the committee of experts which I have heretofore suggested, and indeed such a board will be authorized to go further than such a committee could have gone.

Can Make Progress.

"While it is true that the provisions of section 307 of the railroad bill relating to the labor board will probably also come into operation as to this wage matter, nevertheless the bipartisan board can make a great deal of progress which will materially diminish the time to be consumed by the labor board, and while the bipartisan board is functioning, the appointment and organization of the labor board can be expedited.

"I cannot share the apprehension of yourselves and your constituents as to the provisions of the law concerning the labor board. I believe those provisions are not only appropriate in the interests of the public, which, after all, is principally composed of workers and their families, but will be found to be particularly in the interest of railroad employes as a class.

The argument that the public representatives on the labor board will be prejudiced against labor because drawn from classes of society antagonistic to labor can and ought to be overcome by selecting such public representatives as cannot be charged with any such prejudices.

Not only must public representatives be selected who can be relied upon to do justice, but the bill itself provides that the labor board shall establish rates and wages and salaries when in the opinion of the board are 'just and reasonable' and it is further provided that the entire labor board shall be guided by the very important standards which are provided in the law, those standards including the wages paid for similar kinds of work in other industries, the relation between wages and the cost of living, the hazards of the employment, the training and skill required, the degree of responsibility, the character and irregularity of the employment and the correction of inequities as the result of previous adjustments. Coupled with the direction to the labor board to take into consideration these important standards is the highly important direction to the commission to prescribe rates sufficient to admit of the payment of reasonable operating expenses including, of course, fair rates of wages.

Expects a New Era.

"My hopes are that the putting into effect of these provisions with a carefully selected labor board whose public representatives can be relied upon to be fair to labor and to appreciate the point of view of labor that it is no longer to be considered as a mere commodity, but will mark the beginning of a new era of better understanding between the railroad managements and their employes and will furnish additional safeguards to the just interests of railroad labor.

"I am sure that every agency which will be involved in the creation of the labor board and in the conduct of negotiations fully appreciates that the wage demands are entitled to the earliest possible consideration and disposition and, therefore, I do not anticipate delay in the appointment and organization of the labor board or in the other necessary steps.

Investing Mr. Hines with the powers granted to the president by the bill, Mr. Wilson made one exception. The president will himself later name the agent or agency of the government against whom suit may be brought to satisfy claims arising out of government control of the railroads as provided in section 206 of the act.

Rome, Feb. 28.—The maid servants have held a mass meeting at Ferrara and have unanimously adopted a resolution regarding their claims. They also demand two cigarettes daily throughout the year.

PILOT RECOVERS WHO MADE NEW FLYING RECORD

Major R. W. Schroeder Tells Story of His Battle With Elements in Record-Breaking Flight.

Dayton, O., Feb. 28.—Maj. R. W. Schroeder, chief test pilot at McCook field, who yesterday fell more than five miles in two minutes after shattering the world's altitude record, miraculously escaping death, lies today in the army hospital near here, recovering from partial blindness and determined to make another ascent into the heavens at the first opportunity.

At the hospital last night Major Schroeder told of the climb to heights never before attained, of his battle against cold, wind and lack of air, and of his determination to mount 40,000 feet above the ground, his objective when he took the air yesterday.

"I was thinking only of my desire to climb 40,000 feet, when suddenly my oxygen stopped flowing," he said. "Then, all at once, it seemed that an explosion took place inside my head. My eyes hurt so that I could not open them and I knew I was falling. I guess I pulled hard on the stick, for I knew that I must straighten out for a glide. The plane rode easy. I opened my eyes, but could see nothing of the ground. Then I closed my eyes again for a moment, and when I opened them saw Wilbur Wright field. I knew I couldn't land there because of the hangars and tilted my machine for a climb, intending to make sure of a good altitude and then jump with my parachute. But at that instant I saw McCook field and came down."

Oklahoma Ratifies Suffrage.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Feb. 28.—Gov. J. B. A. Robertson late Saturday signed the joint resolution ratifying the federal woman suffrage amendment, after the House of Representatives had, by a vote of 76 to 4, adopted the amendment of the senate eliminating the emergency clause.

THE FRANKLIN CAR

At the Automobile Show

This is your great yearly opportunity to compare the respective merits of motor cars, with the least expenditure of time and effort. To make the most of it, don't be content with what you see there. Ask questions—investigate.

Learn how reliability, comfort, economy, freedom from trouble, road range, yearly depreciation, and all-round service as evidenced in actual Franklin performance are achieved—these are the true criteria of any car's worth. Ask to be shown the Franklin differences that are giving owners:

- 20 miles to the gallon of gasoline
- 12,500 miles to the set of tires
- 50% slower yearly depreciation

- Economy. Franklin principles took three first prizes in the annual Yosemite Economy Run. The Franklin again won this Western classic, defeating cheaper as well as more expensive cars; lighter as well as heavier cars.
- Road Range. These principles made it possible for the Franklin to set and break the record for distance covered in 24 hours of continuous driving. It did this

Seventeen years of this sort of satisfaction the country over are further emphasized by Franklin results of 1919. Special runs, tests and tours in all parts of the country have been calling attention to what owners get in daily use, and to the superiority of the Franklin principles of light weight, flexibility and direct air cooling (no water to boil or freeze). Here are some of the more important results:

- Reliability. These principles took Franklins from New York to Boston and back; Indianapolis to Syracuse and beyond; Cincinnati to Cleveland and back; New York to Montreal and back—a total of 3,331.4 miles in 98 hours and 50 minutes—without a semblance of motor trouble, with no blowouts and only one puncture.
- Air Cooling Efficiency. And these principles took the Franklin on a phenomenal low-gear non-stop run from Portland, Maine, to the top of Mount Washington in New Hampshire—98.2 miles in all. In the last 9 miles it climbed to an elevation of 6,290 feet. Though running in low gear all the way and without a stop, not the slightest cooling trouble was encountered.

IF KIDNEYS ACT BAD TAKE SALTS

Says Backache is sign you have been eating too much meat.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

This institution is the only one in the central west with separate buildings situated in their own grounds, yet entirely distinct, and rendering it possible to classify cases. The one building being fitted for and devoted to the treatment of non-contagious and non-mental diseases, no others being admitted; the other Rest Cottage being designed for and devoted to the exclusive treatment of select mental cases requiring for a time watchful care and special nursing.
