OMAHA JURIST ENTERS RACE FOR SUPREME BENCH

Many Filings Are Made on Both Tickets for the April Primary Election.

Lincoln, March 1.—(Special.)—Judge D. of Omaha, recently appointed to the vacancy on the supreme bench caused by the death of Judge Sedgwick, has filed petitions with the secretary of state containing 6,246 names from most of the counties of the state. Judge Day has been on the bench of the high court only about a month.

Judge Bayard H. Paine of Grand Island, one of the judges of the Eleventh Judicial district, has filed for renomination in that district.

M. H. O'Malley of Alda, who served in the legislature of 1913 from Hall county, has filed for the democratic nomination.

Roy M. Harrop of Omaha has filed for the democratic nomination for railway commissioner, but has neglected to state whether he wants the short term caused by the resignation of Commissioner Victor Wilson or the long term of six years.

E. L. Uptigrove of Sidney, who filed for the republican nomination for the state senate from his district, has sent in a corrected filing. In his first filing he neglected to state his party affiliation and showed that he paid a fee of $10. At the fee in this filing is only $5, he has filed again and paid the legal fee.

Location of State Women's Custodial Farm Settled

Lincoln, March 1.—(Special.)—The controversy which has been on between the I. O. O. F. and the state board of control over the locating of the woman's custodial farm a short distance from the Odd Fellows' home at York has been adjusted and a new tract of land on the other side of the city purchased by the board at a cost of $34,881.

Extradition Papers Granted.

Lincoln, March 1.—(Special.)—Extradition papers for the return of William P. Little of Lincoln were issued on the governor of Oklahoma. Little drew a check for $35 on a Lincoln bank in which he had no money on deposit.

CHIEF JUSTICE OF SUPREME COURT TO SEEK RE-ELECTION

Petition Filed Bearing Many Names of Leading Lawyers.

Lincoln, March 1.—(Special.)—Andrew M. Morrissey, chief justice of the supreme court, filed petitions containing between 6,000 and 7,000 names from nearly every county in the state with the secretary of state for renomination to the office of chief justice.

Judge Morrissey has served nearly six years in the position he now holds, having first been appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Chief Justice Conrad Holtenbeck, who died a month after assuming office. Judge Morrissey was elected at the expiration of two years to fill the unexpired term of six years and now files for renomination. Under the present law members of the judiciary are elected on a nonpartisan ballot.

Judge Morrissey's petitions bear the names of nearly all of the leading attorneys and judges in the state as well as a large number of public men.

Furloughed Prisoner Must Serve Rest of Sentence

Lincoln, March 1.—(Special.)—Harry Mahle, arrested in Omaha for stealing and given a 30-day jail sentence, was furloughed from the state penitentiary by Secretary Antles of the public welfare department on September 12, and given a chance to make good. He will now be brought back to serve an intermediate sentence of from one to seven years, given him for grand larceny in Howard county.

Omaha Street Railway Company Reports on Physical Valuation

Lincoln, March 1.—(Special.)—A huge volume of 658 pages was received by the State Railway commission containing the entire report by the Omaha & Council Bluffs Street Railway company of its physical valuation. Accompanying it is another big book about 24 inches by 30 inches, containing maps and plans showing the location of every pile driven and other matters in connection with the location of material.

The report does not give figures, but simply a complete history of the plant, which will be used in fixing the valuation of the same by the commission. It will now be up to the commission to send half a dozen expert engineers to Omaha and compare the report of the company. There are no funds in the hands of the commission which enable them to make the examination.

Boy Bandits Who Stole Rare Old Coins Face Reform School

Lead, S. D., March 1.—(Special.)—Three boy bandits who recently burglarized the home of Ralph Coates here were arraigned before

County Judge Flow of Deadwood, who sentenced them to the state reform school at Plankinton. Sentence was suspended in the case of two of the boys pending good behavior. Among the loot taken by the boys from the Coates' home was a collection of rare old coins.

Rushed to Hospital Seriously Ill; Fined $10 Four Hours Later

Less than four hours after physicians at the Lord Lister hospital had pronounced John Hess of Valley, Neb., in a serious condition from alcohol poisoning, the victim left the hospital arm in arm with two policemen enroute to Central police station. He was booked for drunkenness. Police Judge Fitzgerald fined Hess $10 and costs.

Hess was found in an unconscious condition at Fourteenth and Douglas streets Sunday night from the effects of alcohol poisoning.

Postmaster Resigns His Position Due to Ill Health

Wall, S. D., March 1.—(Special.)—C. M. Lewis, because of failing health, has resigned as postmaster of Wall. The place will be filled by a civil service examination, after which the appointment will soon be made. Some competent person will be designated acting postmaster pending the appointment of a permanent postmaster. There are said to be several applicants for the office.

For the Little Ones To Keep Their Digestion Perfect Nothing is so Safe and Pleasant as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets

An experienced observer in charge of a large office said it was a waste of words to tell most people to eat plain food. They prefer the food that delights the eye. Checking up on the after effects the usual distresses of gasiness, sour risings, water brash, loquacity and so on may be avoided by following the meal with one or two Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. They digest food in the stomach with an alkaline effect thus promoting normal conditions as in health. This puts the O. K. on so-called rich food. Men and women are but children of a larger growth when it comes to eating the foods that satisfy, even though they may cause indigestion. Indigestion is no necessarily confined to those who live high. It may follow so simple a process as the flavor of a bay leaf, thyme, garlic,

Wahoo Community Club Has Election at Annual Meet

Plan Consolidated School For So. Dakota Township

Sisseton, S. D., March 1.—(Special.)—Plans are being made by townships adjoining Wilmot, in this county, to consolidate all schools into one in Wilmot, where about 400 pupils would attend and 15 instructors be employed. The movement has gone so far as the appointment of a committee to select the boundaries of the new district and place it before the state department of public instruction for approval.

Farmer Hangs Himself.

Wilmot, S. D., March 1.—(Special.)—During a fit of despondency, it is believed, Jorgen Stensung, 67 years old, committed suicide by hanging himself from a rafter in his barn. On a former occasion he made an attempt to cut his throat with a razor.

Fillmore County Filings.

Geneva, Neb., March 1.—(Special.)—Filings for office have been made by C. J. Watson of Madison township for state senator and Clark Robinson of Fairmont for supervisor of the second district. Both are republicans.

Boy Scouts Entertain Their Mothers in New Club House

Wahoo, Neb., March 1.—(Special.)—The Wahoo boy scouts entertained their mothers at their new club house Monday night. The scouts have their own house and this summer will conduct a garden and will probably compete this fall at the Saunders county fair with other juniors for prize money offered for raising fancy poultry and common garden vegetables.

Postoffice Changes.

Washington, March 1.—(Special.)—Postmasters appointed, Nebraska: Ingleside, Adams county, Lewis C. Simpson, vice E. M. White, resigned; Sarcaria, Buffalo county, Alfred Pearson, vice N. J. Dalley, resigned; Simpson, Keya Paha county, Frank C. Conroy, vice Charles A. Bahr, declined; Vivian, Cherry county, George M. Hull, vice R. V. Stout, resigned; Iowa—Exline, Appanoose county, Fay R. McKeehan, vice W. O. Blinn, resigned; McCalsburg, Story county, William A. Stevenson, vice L. H. Bakke, deceased; Sperry, DeWitt county, James E. Collier, vice F. H. Rolpe, resigned.

Start New Hotel

Ogallala, Neb., March 1.—(Special.)—Citizens of Ogallala and vicinity have entered into co-operation with the hotel company and work on the 52-room hotel will be started at once.

Double Extra Ply

SPRAGUE TIRES

"Endurance Lies Within the Plies"

Sprague Tires Have One More Ply of Fabric Than Any Other, Two More than Most Others

Here is the Difference

| | Ply in SPRAGUE Tires | Ply in Other Tires |
|-----------|----------------------|--------------------|
| 3 1/4-in. | 6 | 4-5 |
| 4-in. | 7 | 5-6 |
| 4 1/2-in. | 8 | 6-7 |
| 5-in. | 9 | 7-8 |

Please get this firmly in mind—one more ply than any other, TWO more than most others.

—17 1/2-oz. fabric, the strongest known. They have more pure rubber. They are correctly built. This is why they go farther—COST LESS PER MILE.
