SAY "NO BRICK". EXPLANATION IS ALL CAMOUFLAGE

Omaha Dealers Refute Statement of County Commissioners Upholding "Bitulithic" Paving Contract.

Paving brick men in Omaha refuted yesterday the statement of the Douglas county commissioners that it is impossible to get brick to pave the county roads.

Inability to get brick was the only excuse advanced by the county commissioners for awarding contracts last week to pave the Lincoln highway with "bitulithic" instead of brick, though they promised brick over their own signatures prior to the election of last June, when the people voted $3,000,000 bonds for 115 miles of brick paving in Douglas county.

The advocates of the other kinds of paving told the county commissioners they couldn't get brick, said H. C. Gardner, western representative of the Paving Brick Co., Galesburg, Ill., largest paving brick manufacturer in the world.

"It is nothing but camouflage, they cry that they can't get brick. Present Order 'Mere Trifle'."

"This five miles of brick that the county commissioner ordered is the merest trifle. There are dozens of little communities out through these states that have let contracts for much bigger amounts of brick paving than this."

"The Douglas county contract calls for about 50,000 square yards of brick. At Wayne, Neb., we recently sold 80,000 square yards of brick; at Blair, 100,000 square yards; at Aurora, 75,000 square yards; at David City, 50,000 square yards. These counties are able to get brick and Douglas county can't. It's camouflage."

Plenty of Brick. The same situation was set forth by George Sargeant, representative of the Murphysborough Paving Brick company, Murphysborough, Ill. He sold 2,000,000 brick last week to the Allied Contractors, Inc. to pave the 5.33 miles of Lincoln highway ordered paved by brick.

"Could you have supplied more paving brick this year?" he was asked.

"Yes," he said. "I can get them $8,000 brick, though we sold at a higher price than I got for these 2,000,000."

"Nothing but brick on a thick concrete base will stand up under the gigantic trucks which now use the roads, said one dealer.

W. P. Cheek, president of the Omaha Automobile club and chairman of the committee referred to by Mr. Towle, said that a meeting will probably be held today to decide on a course of action to prevent the paving of any county roads with anything but brick.

Three Men Arrested For Alleged Sale of Misrepresented Stock

Three men are in jail at Central police station for investigation regarding an alleged confidence game centered about the sale of misrepresented stock to Joseph and Charles McBuire, wealthy ranch owners of Arnold, Neb.

They gave their names as C. E. Tennant of New Hampton, Mo.; L. E. Moorefield, Merchants hotel, and H. P. Manning of Kansas City, Mo. Detectives arrested them at the Merchants hotel.

Mr. Moorefield and Mr. Manning are said to have received $4,500 from the McGuire brothers two months ago in payment for a number of shares of Douglas Motor company stock of Omaha which to date has not been delivered, it is charged.

When David L. Fitch, attorney for the McGuire brothers, entered Mr. Moorefield's room at the hotel with detectives, Mr. Tennant is said to have offered to turn over some old stock to settle the case.

The alleged sale of the stock is said to have been made after Mr. Moorefield and Mr. Tennant had left the employ of the Douglas Motor company, a George A. Christopher, general manager of the concern, declared neither man had authority to sell what stock the McGuire brothers are said to have paid for.

Several months ago Mrs. Ware's brother, traveling in the south, shot himself. The couple had no children. Mr. Ware is manager of the John A. Tolman company, wholesale grocers.

Sprague Tire Puts Out Double Extra Ply Tire

The Sprague Tire & Rubber Co., Omaha, announces the perfection of a "double extra ply" fabric tire. This new tire, according to E. H. Sprague, president of the company, has two more plies of fabric than the so-called "standard" make tires and one more ply of fabric than any other tire built.

"I stated when we organized this company that it was my intention to build the best tire possible from rubber and fabric," Mr. Sprague said. "Now I am positive I have attained this goal. I am using only the highest quality 17 3/4-ounce fabric, the strongest known, and am using more pure rubber in the thread, sidewalls, cushion and friction. I can safely say, than any other manufacturer.

"These tires have been thoroughly tested, in all kinds of road conditions from Illinois to the west coast, and their performance has led me to put on them an ironclad guarantee of 7,500 miles."

The Sprague factory is now building 350 tires and 300 tubes a day. Plans call for a production of 750 tires and 500 tubes by March 15. Sales for early spring delivery, it was stated, are considerably ahead of the present output.

Their Medicine Chest For 20 Years

IT is characteristic of folks after they pass the allotted "three score years and ten," to look back over the days that are gone and thoughtfully live them over.

I find myself, at seventy-one, frequently drifting back a quarter of a century, when I see myself in the little drug store I owned at Bolivar, Mo., making and selling a vegetable compound to my friends and a customer—what was then known only as Dr. Lewis' Medicine for Stomach, Liver and Bowel Complaints.

For many years while I was perfecting my formula I studied and investigated the laxative and cathartics on the market and became convinced that their main fault was not that they did not act on the bowels, but that their action was too violent and drastic, and upset the system of the user; which was due to the fact that they were not strong enough in their action, some simply acting on the upper or small intestine, while others would act only on the great or large intestine, and that they almost invariably produced a habit requiring augmented doses.

I believed that a preparation to produce the best effect must first tone the liver, then act on the stomach and entire alimentary system. If this was accomplished, the natural cleansing action, and through elimination of the waste without the usual distressing sensations, and make the user feel better at once.

After experimenting with hundreds of different compounds, I at last perfected the formula that is now known as Lewis' Compound, which I truly believe goes further and does more than any laxative on the market today. The thousands of letters from users have convinced me I was right, and that the user of Lewis' Compound as a family medicine, even though he may have used it for twenty-five years, never has to increase his dose.

My knowledge of medicine and the results of its use in my own family and among my friends, before I ever offered it for sale, caused me to have great faith in Lewis' Compound from the very first.

And now as I find myself nearing the age which must bow to the inevitable and go to another life, my greatest pleasure is to sit each day and read the letters that each day bring from people as old or older than I, who tell of having used Lewis' Compound for ten, fifteen and twenty years, and how they and their children and grandchildren have been benefited by it.

It is a comforting thought, my friends, for a man at my age to feel this aside from his own success, one has done something for his fellow man. My greatest satisfaction is that the couple had no children. Mr. Ware is manager of the John A. Tolman company, wholesale grocers.
