TELLS STORY OF BLOODLESS WAR

Unionistas Endeavoring ta Obtain Free Speech Through Propaganda, Says R. B. Howell.

R. B. Howell, general manager of the Metropolitan water board, returning yesterday from an outing of five weeks spent in Guatemala, brought back a story of a bloodless revolution which is in progress in the Central American republic where he visited.

"Cabrera," he said, "has been president of Guatemala for 22 years and some of the people, known as the unionistas, are endeavoring through propaganda, to obtain what they believe are their constitutional rights in the matter of free speech, free press and the right of habeas corpus. They also stand for a union of the six Central American republice."

Tells of Journey.

Mr. Howell told of his journey from Barios, on the Atlantic coast of Guatemala, to the City of Guatemala, 196 miles inland. He related that the train traveled 16 miles an hour and that for more than 60 miles he passed through a land of bananas. The ride by train from Barios, he said, takes one through luxuriant tropic land, desert stretches and then to an altitude of 5,600 feet at Guatemala City, which has a population of 100,000. The republic has a population of 2,000, 000 and a standing army of 50,000. Mr. Howell stated that he is not ready to give any expression on the merits of the gas plant appraisal controversy, but that he will give this matter early and serious consideration.

The Metropolitan water board will assume management of the gas plant if the city decides to purchase it.
