

JAIL SENTENCE STOPS WEDDING OF YOUNG COUPLE

Sioux City Youths and Girls Draw Jail Sentence After Trial in Police Court.

Jail sentences imposed upon two youthful lovers in Central police court yesterday prevented them from being married when they were arraigned before Police Judge Fitzgerald.

The couple, Lois LeRoy, 19 years old, and Gail Jivveny, 19 years old, both of Sioux City, informed the judge they wanted to be made man and wife. Juvenile Officer Vosburgh requested the ceremony be postponed until word is received from their parents.

They were arrested Wednesday in company with three other boys and a girl, all from Sioux City.

The intended groom was given a jail sentence of three days. His sweetheart was given five days in the police matron's ward at Central police station.

"I'm going to wire right home for money," the plucky girl sighed. "I'll get out of this and wait for my man at home, if they won't let us get married now."

Court attendants offered to donate toward the marriage license. When arrested Jivveny gave the name of Henry Budweiser. He confessed to his right name in police court.

Marion Smith and John Jones, who accompanied the party on their trip from Sioux City, were each given three days in the county jail also.

All wired to their homes of their plight.

The other girl, Eva Poge, was principal witness against young Jones, who appeared before United States Commissioner Neely for alleged violation of the Mann act. The girl was later allowed her freedom on provision she return home.
