Campfire Girls

At the regular meeting of the Guardians' association held Thursday evening at the Y. W. C. A., a goodly number were present. Further plans were discussed for the pageant and grand council fire which is to be given Saturday afternoon, March 20, at the Brandeis theater. Much time is being given to rehearsals.

A number of our groups are dispensing with their regular campfire meetings for a few weeks so that more time can be devoted to frequent rehearsals for the pageant in which all the girls will take part.

The Alahi and Okiki groups hiked west of Florence Sunday. Phyllis Smith and Hazel Kisor blazed the trail, with Bernice Anderson, they cooked the dinner which is an honor toward their fire maker's rank. Louise Fury was a visitor. Miss Louise Guy went with the girls and directed the hike.

hostesses for the social hour from 6 to 7 o'clock. Monday evening, March 8, the Federation of Industrial clubs, representing about 150 girls, will take up the study of citizenship. As a text book they will use the "Handbook of Nebraska Citizens," prepared by Grace M. Wheeler of Lincoln. Monday evening at 7:30 Mr. Harry S. Byrne will address the clubs on "The Constitution." Also the republican platform will be explained by Mr. Byrne. It is the plan of the clubs to have prominent democrats and republicans appear before them and explain the issues of their respective parties. Following the lecture the "General Pershing" club will have charge of an open forum. Any persons interested are invited to these Monday evening talks. At 8:30 the Victory club will present a play entitled "The Beau of Bath," to be given in the association auditorium. All are cordially invited. A small admission will be charged.

The Dublin College of Science was the first of the higher educational institutions in the United Kingdom to admit women to its lectures. One Mme. Girard, unable to find an apartment in Paris, is living in a little wooden hut on the Rue de l'Epervon not far from the Boulevard St. Germain, a vegetable garden surrounding her tiny home.

Girls! Your hair needs a little "Danderine"—that's all! When it becomes lifeless, thin or loses its lustré, when ugly dandruff appears, or your hair falls out, a 35-cent bottle of delightful, dependable "Danderine" from any store, will save your hair, also double its beauty. You can have nice, thick hair, too.

A Strange Legacy

I heard of a man who died recently and left everything he had to the Orphans' and Widows' Home. On inquiring what the legacy amounted to, I was told it was a wife and three small children.
