Premier of Greece CAILLAUX SAYS Urges Stern Measures Against Turk Sultan

London, March 10 .- The peace conference spent the day in trying to work out the details of military and naval plans in connection with Turkey, giving attention to Armenia. Admiral Beaty, Winston Spencer Churchill, secretary for war, and others were called in to give their opinions. Premier Veni-zelos of Greece was also present and again insisted that the allies should take the sternest measures against

The general plan of action was not changed, however, but as a re-sult of the conference it became mote a dishonorable and premature known that the military domination at Constantinople is likely to take the form of allied military control of certain Turkish governmental activities, among them probably the war department.

THEATERS

BOTH of the headline attractions at the Orpheum this week are extremely popular. Will M. Cressy and Blanche Dayne are appearing in Mr. Cressy latest comedy, "The Man Who Butted In." Nat Nazarro, assisted by the Atlantic Fleet Jazz band, is the other stellar altraction. A group of four dances is presented by the Marmein-Sisters. Mirlam Marmein made her professional debut at the Little theater in Chicago. She offered dance interludes in the Greek tragedles presented by that organization. When this company went on tour in "Trojan Women" by Euripides she was a distinguished member of the cast.

A laugh medium is "The Doll Hospital," presented twice daily at the Gayety theater this week by the "Hip Hip Hooray," edition of 1920. Charles Horwitz, the author, has stirred up some original laugh matter and has devised some truly amusing situations, with curious complications constantly cropping up to lend new interest to the situations. Ladies' matinee at 2:15 daily.

Magnificent costumes, cleverly conceived numbers and individual charm helps explain why the Terpsichore Four, dancing act at the Empress today, is a big hit all over the circuit. One of the interesting contributions to the bill will be the rural comedy sketch, "At the Town Pump," to be offered by Robbins and Fulton. Hal Chamberlain and Vivian Earle will contribute a specialty of comedy and music. An important attraction on the bill will be the appearance of "Wanda," the seal with the human brain, a juggler, tight rope performer and musician.

Charles Dillingham's combination of stars, Julia Sanderson and Joseph Cawthorn, appear at the Brandels for the last time tonight in "The Canary," with Doyle and Dixon, Maude Eburne, an unusual cast, chorus and the famous Broadway "Johnnies." Nineteen lovely songs carry out the romantic story, which is interspersed with plenty of fun, dancing of every variety and the usual big Dillingham chorus of beautiful girls.

ingham chorus of beautiful girls.

"Tip Smarter Set," the greatest aggregation of colored players since the days of Williams and Walker, is to be seen at the Brandels for four days starting to morrow night, in their musical comedy success, "The Children of the Sun," adapted from the historical book of the same title by George Wells Parker of this city. This organization is headed by the bomedians Salem Tutt Whitney and J. Homer Tutt, known from one end of the country to the other, and consists of 35 neople, including the pick of the colored profession, besides a bronze dancing therus, who are well worth hearing as well as seeing.

well as seeing.

Frances Starr's newest and greatest role, Sally, in Capt. Edward Knoblock's appealing drama, "Tiger! Tiger!" which comes to the Brandels Tuesday, March 16, is said to be one that will doubtless exert even to be one that will doubtless exert even wider appeal than any in which she has previously been seen. Written by Capt. Edward Knoblock while he was in the trenches in France, "Tiger! Tiger!" is a worderfully appealing sex play which attracted capacity audiences to the Belasco theater, New York, last winter.

F you haven't seen "A Daughter of the Gods," which William Fox presents for the last times today at the Muse theater, go see it. It is a fairy tale, as romantic and delightful as those of childhood days, but harboring a theme that is mature and plquant. Annette Kellerman does splendid work and spices the story with her water stunts, diving from great heights and swimming against the current with hands bound. She is seconded by several hundred beautiful mermalds.

Strand—Norma Talmadge in her latest Select special, "She Loves and Lies," a comedy-drama founded on Wilkie Collins' story of the same name, is keeping the Strand theater crowded to capacity his week. In this play Miss Talmadge partrays two sides of the well known eternal triangle, being her own rival for the affections of her husband. Realizing that she cannot flirt with him at home under the circumstances, she goes elsewhere, becomes someone else and sets out to win him.

Sun—Remarkable contribution to the aesthetic movement in motion picture production, "Woman" is so entrancing to the eye and so beguiling to the thoughts and sentiments of the spectator that it lures him into a state of dreamy forgetfulness of himself and the little world in which he has been living. "Woman" will continue to be the stellar attraction at the Sun this week and is proclaimed by many to be the best picture shown at this movie house for some time.

movie house for some time.

Rialto—One of the many dramatic incidents in "Even as Eve," a First National picture to be shown at the Rialto the balance of the week, is that of a battle of a man on horseback with a man on foot. O'Hara, a recluse, meets a clubman, Sproul, in the fastnesses of the Adirondacks. O'Hara recognizes in the clubman an enemy, who had wrecked his home and disgraced his wife. He throws down his gun and attempts to drag-Sproul from the saddle. The two battle flercely, the frightened horse leaping and rearing, hurling O'Hara from side to side. In moment he is struck by one of the horse's hoofs and hurled to the ground, where the maddened animal tramples him to death.

Moon—"The Paliser Case," the offer-

Moon—"The Paliser Case," the offering at the Moon theater the balance of the week and starring Pauline Frederick,
is an intense, suspense-laden mystery drama which deals with the life of a trusting girl who is betrayed by a fake marriage to an unscrupulous roue, and finds herself in the toils of justice when the latter is mysteriously murdered. The elemental emotions, the moments of dislilusionment and despair of this drama will no doubt keep the Moon crowded to its capacity.

Empress—A fascinating drama of the "Jim The Penman" type, by Daniel F. Whitcomb, is "The Dangerous Talent." featuring Margarita Fisher, which comes to the Empress today for a three-day run. The play presents Miss Fisher in the role of an appealing little stenographer who wasn't in the least to biame for possessing the special faculty that her employer decided was altogether too dangerous an accomplishment to have around the premises.
