

DAN CUPID MAY TAKE BURK FROM ROURKE OUTFIT

Star Hurler's Wife Prefers Flatbush to Nebraska And Sandy May Not Report.

Sandy Burk, who was Pa Rourke's best hurling bet last year, threatens to throw the local Western League club down flat this year.

Last fall, it became known yesterday, Sandy felt the sting of Daniel's well-known darts. He married a girl in Brooklyn, his home town.

Offers Lure of Gold. Rourke is trying to lure Sandy back into the fold with promises of much gold and Sandy is wavering.

Pa is particularly anxious to get one good outfielder. He tried to land Duke Reilly from the American association and the deal was completed when Salt Lake City refused to waive and the Duke had to beat it to the coast loop.

Pa also offers 1,500 kopeks for Bruno Haas. Regular money, too. Then St. Paul coughed up $3,000 and Bruno will not be among us this year.

It is still trying to figure out where St. Paul got all the money and who the wild man is who put up the coin.

Starts South Tonight. Rourke leaves tonight for Okmulgee, where the spring training season starts Monday.

SOLDIER TEAM IS BARRED BY SANDLOTTERS

Manager of Fort Omaha Team Can't Get Berth in Amateur League—Issues Sweeping Challenge.

City amateur baseball league managers engaged in a lively session last night in the city hall.

Shortly after the Nebraska Power company was awarded the sixth franchise in the league and things were running smoothly, Manager Mat Pascal of the Union Outfitting team would probably not be represented in the league and he resigned as manager of the team.

At this stage, F. T. King of the Fort Omaha team, who has been trying hard to get a franchise in the local leagues, applied for a franchise in this circuit, as did the Paxton-Vierling team, members of last season's American league.

The Fort Omaha team was barred from the Commercial league at their meeting held Wednesday night and was anxious to get in the City league.

King issued a challenge to any team in the City league for any amount of money, but his challenge was not accepted.

Time after time, Mason, when urged on by his enthusiasts, attempted to break through the Britisher's guard, but the plucky little Briton dodged, feinted, shifted and retaliated with a right and left, chasing the American about the ring.

After the fight referee Ed Smith declared never in his life had he seen any fighter who was so willing to carry or mix matters as Wilde.

Franchises were awarded the following teams: Nebraska Power company, H. R. Bowers, Riggs Optical company, McCaffrey Motor company, Union Stock Yards and the Paxton-Vierlings, the latter team taking the franchise of the Union Outfitters in case the latter fail to put a team in the league.

The Power company team, managed by Joe Moran, the well-known amateur base ball manager, entered the league under the condition that Chris Kemmy would be allowed to play.

WILDE WINS ON POINTS FROM FRANK MASON

Britisher Takes Every Round But Three—Mason Wins One Round—Two Are Even.

Ringside, Coliseum, Toledo, March 12.—Jimmy Wilde, of England, recognized fly weight boxing champion of Great Britain, Friday night decisively outpointed Frankie Mason of Fort Wayne, Ind., the American claimant of the title.

Throughout the battle, the plucky Briton was the aggressor. He carried the fight in all but one round, the fifth. Two of the rounds were even, the fourth and tenth.

The ring, which was 21 feet square, gave the little American plenty of room to jump away from the pressing Britisher.

Mason started to bleed from the mouth early in the battle but he wore a smile of confidence while the little Briton from the time he entered the ring seemed set and determined.

Time after time, Mason, when urged on by his enthusiasts, attempted to break through the Britisher's guard, but the plucky little Briton dodged, feinted, shifted and retaliated with a right and left, chasing the American about the ring.
